Real Life Reading:

Real Life Literacy Kathy Paterson, 2006 The compelling connection between the classroom and what happens in the world is the basis of Real Life Literacy It shows teachers how to turn kids on to learning and build skills that will help them function more successfully in the real world It fills in the gaps often missing from traditional language arts classes and offers a range of classroom tools that promote real world reading and writing Some of the basic literacy topics that are covered include Writing and deciphering messages from notes and memos to invitations and advertisements Taking the mystery out of labels from understanding labels on medicine bottles to making sense of food and clothing labels Coping with everyday money management from completing order forms to writing cheques and balancing a bank book Reading and interpreting specialized text from finding information in nonfiction books to effectively using phone books entertainment guides and bus schedules This timely book makes a powerful case for linking genuine purposeful and functional in school activities to the lives of students It promotes using classroom learning to guide and support students as they strive to make meaning of their world

Reading for Real Kathy Collins, 2008 Just as adults join clubs to share and talk about common interests reading clubs allow kids to immerse themselves in topics and ideas they care about whether it's turtles fairy tales a beloved author a favorite new series or the desire to get better at reading aloud to a baby brother or sister While they are reading and talking about their interests and passions students in reading clubs are also orchestrating all of the reading skills and strategies they've learned and applying them in real life ways While Kathy presents ideas for implementing reading clubs during reading workshop in a balanced literacy framework the information she provides will be helpful for any teacher who wants to foster the joy of reading by offering students support and opportunities to read for authentic purposes and to have conversations about topics that interest and engage them After all we don't just want kids to learn to read we want them to love to read
