Mothers of Psychoanalysis Janet Sayers,1991 In lucid uncluttered prose Janet Sayers presents the reader with a fresh viewing of the lives and times of four extraordinary women pioneer analysts Sayers recounts how they were able to shift the theoretic balance of the day to include the creative evolution of their thinking This book is of value not only for the novice but certainly for many others who can learn from these excellent abridged biographies Dr Helene DeRosis

Sex Equity and Sexuality in Education Susan Shurberg Klein,1992-08-17 Neither sex equity nor sexuality are new topics to educators but little attention has been given to their combination This book identifies critical issues that researchers reformers and educators have failed to address publicly The authors show that it is necessary for educators to increase their understanding of ways that sex education can be sex equitable and ways that sexuality contributes to sex inequities in general education The book covers sexuality issues of special concern to minority disabled and homosexual students latchkey children and early parents

The discussions show why it is important to break the barriers of silence confusion and disunity to enable females and males of all ages to receive equal opportunities and outcomes in and through education

Domestic Noir Laura Joyce, Henry Sutton, 2018-04-23 This book represents the first serious consideration of the domestic noir phenomenon and by extension the psychological thriller The only such landmark collection since Lee Horsley's The Noir Thriller it extends the argument for serious academic study of crime fiction particularly in relation to gender domestic violence social and political awareness psychological acuity and structural and narratological inventiveness As well as this it shifts the debate around the sub genre firmly up to date and brings together a range of global voices to dissect and situate the notion of domestic noir This book is essential reading for students scholars and fans of the psychological thriller

The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo, Christina Moutsou, 2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity

Mother India, Children Abroad, 1988 Becoming a Spirit-led Mom Quin Sherrer, Ruthanne Garlock, 2004 Sherrer and Garlock use examples from Scripture prayers and contemporary stories to offer words of help encouragement and guidance to single moms married moms and stepmoms

Girlhood in America Miriam

Forman-Brunell, 2001-06-08 This groundbreaking reference work presents more than 100 articles by 98 high profile interdisciplinary scholars covering all aspects of girls roles in American society past and present In this comprehensive readable two volume encyclopedia experts from a variety of disciplines contribute pieces to the puzzle of what it means and what it has meant over the last 400 years to be a girl in America The portrait that emerges reveals deep differences in girls experiences depending on socioeconomic context religious and ethnic traditions family life schools institutions and the messages of consumer and popular culture Girls have been commodified idealized trivialized eroticized and shaped by the powerful forces of popular culture from Little Women to Barbie Yet girls are also powerful co creators of the culture that shapes them often cleverly subverting it to their own purposes From Pocahontas to punk rockers girls have been an integral if overlooked and undervalued part of American culture      Essential Breakthroughs: Conversations about Men, Mothers and Mothering Fionna Joy Green, 2015-11-01 Essential Breakthroughs Conversations About Men Mothers and Mothering thinks from the nexus of gender essentialism and care The authors creatively blend the philosophical and the personal to collectively argue that while gender is essential to our social and theoretical definitions of care it is dangerously co opted into naturalized discourses which limit particular identities and negate certain forms of care The perspectives curated in Essential Breakthroughs illuminate how care as a respected and productive cultural ethic is neither inherent nor instinctual for any human but is learned and fostered The chapters are informed by feminist queer and trans politics wielding post structuralist methodologies of unlearning and deconstruction while maintaining the maternal lens as a credible feminist analytical tool and not as a gender essentialist practice      Children and Families "At Promise" Beth Blue Swadener, Sally Lubeck, 1995-01-01 This book shows how the labeling of children as at risk actually perpetuates the inequities racism and discrimination facing many families in America
