

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a river with rapids. The water is turbulent, with white foam from the rapids in the foreground and middle ground. The river flows from the background towards the viewer. In the far background, there is a dense line of green trees under a clear sky.

Sacred Streams: the Ancient and Modern History of the Rivers of the Bible Philip Henry Gosse, 1877 The Ministry, Vol. 02, No. 08 Various Authors, 1998-08-01 In this issue of The Ministry we include a collection of short messages spoken by Brother Lee at different times and in different places throughout the United States between 1969 and 1972 concerning migration. These messages emphasize the twofold need in the Lord's recovery in this country to build up a strong large and adequate testimony in a metropolitan city as a center and from such a center to spread the church life to the strategic cities throughout the whole country. Following this are six messages from the Crystallization study of the Epistle to the Hebrews which were given in the Living Stream Ministry's Summer Training of 1998. The major crystals presented during this time of training can be expressed in the following statements: The believers in Christ should be river crossers following the Lord Jesus, the Pioneer and Forerunner, into the glorious expression of the Divine Being Christ; as the Captain of salvation is leading God's many sons into glory; the corporate expression of God by saving them organically through sanctification; Christ our High Priest ministers to us whatever we need, dispensing Himself into us as our supply for the fulfillment of God's eternal purpose; and we need to be brought on to maturity pursuing toward the fullest enjoyment and gaining of Christ for the uttermost enjoyment of Christ in the millennial kingdom. Lastly, we include a number of letters of appreciation concerning The Stream magazine in the Spanish language, El Manantial. Due to necessary adjustments in the schedule for producing this magazine, we are combining the August and September issues.

In Glory's Shadow explores the history of The Citadel, an institution set on preserving tradition in the face of profound change. Established as protection against slave insurrections feared by the white minority of Charleston, South Carolina, a generation later The Citadel was a school of privilege for young white men. Through two world wars it grew in size and reputation, proudly providing the United States with male military leaders paying little heed to what was happening in the country around it. In 1993, when the school rescinded Shannon Faulkner's admission because of her gender, a landmark legal battle ensued. Faulkner won, and although she faced vicious harassment and left after a week, The Citadel was forced to reform. Nearly 30 women have graduated since her brief time at The Citadel. In Glory's Shadow is an engrossing and illuminating look at this pivotal event in military history and the history of women. Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2005 Romans, vol 4: God's River Donald Grey Barnhouse, 2023-01-20. Romans is based on Donald Barnhouse's renowned series of radio broadcasts on the epistle from 1949 until his death in 1960. Demonstrating the author's acute understanding of Romans and heart for effective preaching, these classic studies reverently expound even the most difficult passage in a clear way. Examining the Letter to the Romans phrase by phrase, Barnhouse elucidates the Scripture with reference to both its immediate context and the Bible's overarching truths. Barnhouse's zeal for a universal appreciation of the epistle fuels his commentary and invites all readers into a deeper understanding of the life changing message of Romans New River Parkway, I-64 Interchange to Hinton, Raleigh and Summers Counties ,2003 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Through the analogy of the river God has given us a whole new consciousness of His Spirit Because He wants us to know the Spirit He is showing us the river When we see the Spirit of God as a great flowing river we can better understand how to step into it and how to flow with its currents The river is the Holy Spirit and the flow of the river is the outpouring of the Spirit Whatever brings us to the river if we can all get into it every need will be supplied The Poetics of Ascent Naomi Janowitz,2012-02-01 This book represents the first English translation of Maaseh Merkabah which is part of a body of early Jewish mystical texts known as palace hekhalot or chariot merkabah texts Through a complex dialogue a rabbi teacher reveals to his student the techniques of ascent methods for traveling up through the heavens by means of recitation of hymns The teacher gives vivid descriptions of the heavenly realm filled with flaming chariots and a chorus of angels engaged in praising the deity The emphasis in the text is on language on the correct recitation of the words to achieve the ritual The particular focus is on the divine Name which can be employed in unusual ways The author relates the structures of the text to the linguistic ideologies The complex structures of the text begin to unfold in light of the theories about the ritual function of language The hymns include praise of the deity and voces magicae words that have no semantic meaning but draw attention to sounds of letters in God s name Since God s name is used to create the world the sounds of the name are creative but the Name cannot be spoken The hymns create a multiplicity of Name equivalents words that have the functional status of the divine Name and which can be employed in ritual Voces magicae are not so much nonsense as they are logical extensions of the linguistic theory The final chapter surveys recent theories of ritual language and then uses the conclusions from the study to refine the general issue of the relationship between the semantic meaning of words and their ritual efficacy The dialogic structure of the text permits the reader to become the next student in a chain going back to the deity by means of Moses Proceedings of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress ,1907
