argue that we are in the midst of a large scale transformation a shift from a society oriented around prohibition i.e the notion that one cannot just do as one pleases to one oriented around enjoyment McGowan identifies many of the social ills of American culture today as symptoms of this transformation the sense of disconnection the increase in aggression and violence widespread cynicism political apathy incivility and loss of meaning Discussing these various symptoms he examines various texts from film literature popular culture and everyday life including Toni Morrison's Paradise Tony Kushner's Angels in America and such films as Dead Poets Society and Trigger Effect Paradoxically The End of Dissatisfaction shows how the American cultural obsession with enjoying ourselves actually makes it more difficult to do so
