They dubbed themselves The Vicious Circle The group first gathered in the Algonquin s Pergola Room later called the Oak Room at a long rectangular table As the gatherings increased in number the Algonquin manager Frank Case moved them to the Rose Room and a round table Daily association with each other both at the luncheons and outside of them inspired members of the Circle to collaborate creatively The entire group worked together successfully only once however to create a revue called No Sirree which helped launch a Hollywood career for Benchley His legacy in Hollywood includes his short film How to Sleep which was a popular success and won Best Short Subject at the 1935 Academy Awards He also acted with many memorable appearances in feature films such as Alfred Hitchcock s Foreign Correspondent 1940 and Nice Girl 1941 In Hollywood he worked for many of the major studios and as an actor was often called upon to create humorous points where either a plot could be explained or something that required explaining could be used as a clotheshorse for jokes In essence a screen image was established as a comic lecturer who tried but failed to clarify any given topic Whilst Benchley was highly paid and sought after it seemed to leave him less and less time to write the things he cared about Benchley s drinking already a problem had worsened over the years until he was diagnosed with cirrhosis of the liver Ironically when younger he had been a devoted teetotaler Robert Charles Benchley died in a New York hospital on November 21st 1945 His funeral was a private family affair and his body was cremated and interred in a family plot on the island of Nantucket Of All Things Robert Benchley, 1921 My Ten Years in a Quandary and How They Grew Robert Benchley, 2016-11-11 When Robert Benchley died in 1945 his obituaries read like love letters from the world Here is a collection of his short whimsical hilarious articles which show why With befuddled and heroic bewilderment Benchley faces his problems Among others are the mislaid locomotive a dachshund who sued for libel and a songbird who was out to get Benchley It ends with five sizzling chapters of his Untold Story starting when as an innocent young man from the country Boston he arrived in the city New York looking for pitfalls It was a holiday and they were all closed it is a saga of the gaga and probably not far from his masterpiece New York Times A rare gem of a book Illustrated by Gluyas Williams OF ALL THINGS Robert 1889-1945 Benchley, 2016-08-29 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Benchley Roundup Robert
