Robert Coover The Universal Fictionmaking Process Crosscurrents Modern Critiques New Series:

Robert Coover Lois Gordon,1983 Robert Coover Lois G. Gordon,1983 With works ranging thematically and stylistically from The Universal Baseball Association to The Public Burning from Pricksongs and Descants to Spanking the Maid Robert Coover emerges as one of the most vibrant writers from a remarkable avant garde that in the mid 1960s mounted serious assault on traditional ideas of form and content in world literature Lois Gordon here defines Coover's novels short stories and plays in terms of his contemporaries among Americans Donald Barthelme William S. Burroughs John Hawkes and others among Europeans Julio Cortázar Robert Pinget and Italo Calvino to name a few These writers dismiss the conventions of traditional form linear plot character development definable theme Aristotle's unities of time and space as no longer appropriate in the modern world Coover writes in a dazzling variety of forms and styles in each he demonstrates a diversity of the style and manipulates the trappings of every conventional form from Old Comedy to theater of the absurd He also translates or transposes techniques associated with other art forms such as film montage or operatic interlude In Coover's hands any of these forms are fair game for parody Gordon notes Coover's method more specifically is this at the same time that he maintains a strong narrative line he counterpoints it his musical term is descants with numerous mythic legendary or symbolic levels which serve to explode any final meaning or resting point Nothing is static personality event human values Coover writes about a continual flux in which everything is constantly qualified and dramatically altered He portrays the public and private rituals that man construes to barter inner and outer disorder

The Fiction of Philip Roth and John Updike George John Searles,1985 In this comparative study of Philip Roth and John Updike Searle examines their literary methods provides background materials about each writer and discusses their themes He finds that Roth concentrates on the individual within the society while Updike describes society's typical individual Roth writes in the first person Updike in the third setting is incidental to Roth while Updike can be considered a regional writer He points out that both writers share themes such as ethnicity interpersonal relationship moral responsibility and guilt and are preoccupied with subsidiary concerns such as materialism the importance of meaningful work the fallen state of the clergy and the idea of sport as metaphor ISBN 0 8093 1175 5 16 95 Book of Days C. Edward Wall,1987 Realism and Naturalism in Nineteenth-century American Literature Donald Pizer,1984 The 1966 edition of this book has become a standard work In this new revised edition Pizer has dropped three chapters and has refined and extended the work by adding six American Literary Naturalism An Approach Through Form American Literary Naturalism The Example of Dreiser The Problem of Philosophy in the Naturalistic Novel Hamlin Garland's 1891 Main Travelled Roads Local Color as Art Jack London The Problem of Form and Dreiser's Nigger Jeff The Development of an Aesthetic The book contains definitions of realism and naturalism based on representative novels of the period ranging from Howells' Rise of Silas Lapham to Crane's Red Badge of Courage analyses of the literary criticism of the age stressing that of Howells Garland and Norris and close readings of specific works by major figures of the period Tri-quarterly ,1985 West Coast Review of Books ,1983 Library Journal ,1985 Margaret Drabble, Existing Within Structures Molly Hurley Moran,1983 Though often proclaimed a woman s writer Margaret Drabble is ultimately concerned with larger philosophical and psychological issues the most important being the question of the human will Moran sees Drabble s fiction as being focused more on the problems which confront both men and women of living in the bewildering contemporary world It is a world of IRA terrorism aborted fetuses and suicide but it is also a world of homecoming parties homebaked bread and waterfalls It is a world where in spite of the fact that a human being is a tiny powerless speck in a turbulent menacing universe there are redeeming qualities to the position There is both beauty and humor in the condition of being human Drabble s novels hold up for our admiration people who perceive these qualities of life in spite of its pre vailing gloom For Drabble the psychological and physical connections of family provide both spiritual and psychological solace Although the family curtails individual freedom by influencing one s character and imposing familial responsibilities it is ultimately a bulwark against life s tur bulence and uncertainties
