

ROBERT FROST

(March 26, 1874 - January 29, 1963)

Robert Frost was a high school teacher, college professor, and world-renowned poet. He was born in San Francisco, California in 1874. When his father died in 1885, he moved with his mother and sister to Lawrence, Massachusetts. Frost published his first poem in his high school's magazine in 1890. He graduated at the head of his class, alongside his co-valedictorian and future wife, Elinor White. Frost sold his first poem, "My Butterfly: An Elegy," in 1892 to the magazine The Independent for $15. He believed this was the beginning of a successful career as a poet. He celebrated by asking Elinor to marry him. She declined, explaining that she wanted to finish college first. Frost himself never completed college, but he did receive many honorary degrees in his lifetime. He and Elinor married after her graduation in 1895.
