Tales from the Easel, 2004 Tales from the Easel features seventy full color reproductions that convey the expressive allusive powers of narrative painting Though they range widely in subject and setting all of the paintings gathered here are rendered in a representational or realistic style Carrying moral social or patriotic messages the paintings are meant to teach enlighten or inspire Then again the paintings can also tweak the very conventions that define them with results that range from the delightfully idiosyncratic to the visionary Thomas Hart Benton Winslow Homer Andrew Wyeth and Jacob Lawrence are just some of the household names whose work appears in Tales from the Easel Others like Elihu Vedder and Lilly Martin Spencer are less well known but still vital to the development of narrative painting While some of the artists including George Caleb Bingham and Paul Cadmus were classically trained self taught painters such as Carlos Shoney Moon and Thomas Waterman Wood are also represented American rivers cities and battlefields are among the native surroundings shown in many of the paintings However artists also looked elsewhere for settings to Europe the Holy Land or even some imagined realm Charles C Eldredge's essay discusses the rich and varied sources of American narrative painting from literature and history to childhood and domestic life and an essay by William Underwood Eiland provides a discussion of the southern tale telling tradition Artist biographies by Reed Anderson and Stephanie J Fox appear opposite the paintings adding further context Tales from the Easel a companion volume to the national touring exhibit of the same name is a stunning reminder of a tradition in American painting that has endured across two centuries and numerous art movements New Deal Art in Alabama Anita Price Davis, Jimmy S. Emerson, 2015-08-17 As the United States struggled to recover from the Great Depression 24 towns in Alabama would directly benefit from some of the 83 million allocated by the Federal Government for public art works under the New Deal In the words of Harold Lloyd Hopkins administrator of the Federal Emergency Relief Act artists had to eat too and these funds aided people who needed employment during this difficult period in American history This book examines some of the New Deal art murals reliefs sculptures frescoes and paintings of Alabama and offers biographical sketches of the artists who created them An appendix describes federal art programs and projects of the period 1933 1943 American National Biography John A. Garraty, Mark C. Carnes, 2005-05-12 American National Biography is the first new comprehensive biographical dictionary focused on American history to be published in seventy years Produced under the auspices of the American Council of Learned Societies the ANB contains over 17 500 profiles on historical figures written by an expert in the field and completed with a bibliography The scope of the work is enormous from the earliest recorded European explorations to the very recent past The Artist's Mentor Ian Jackman, 2009-03-25 What inspires a person to create How does an artist see the world What happens during a eureka moment How does an artist find self discipline The Artist s Mentor is for those of us who want to create art but do not know how to begin Drawing on interviews and autobiographical writings of more than 100 famous painters photographers sculptors and film and video artists Jackman gets to the heart of what makes art Here Michelangelo Brungardt Frida Kahlo Jean Renoir Andy Warhol Ansel Adams Annie Leibowitz Pablo Picasso and many other visual artists describe the creative process Quotes and passages from the artists are accompanied by commentary from Jackman

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner,Estill Curtis Pennington,Charles Reagan Wilson,2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America s cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe s architectural plans for the nation s Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague s tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region s artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume s contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South

We Gather Together Charles C. Eldredge,2022-01-18 The mutual history of art agriculture and American identity as told through the theme of the harvest The harvest has traditionally been a productive season both on American farms and in its artists studios Before the early nineteenth century the ideal of the Jeffersonian yeoman singly cultivating a subsistence plot for family use dominated the American imagination after World War II the advent of big agribusiness proved less immediately attractive for artists In We Gather Together Charles C Eldredge examines the period in between when many Americans were farmers and much of America was farmland Organized in a series of case studies each devoted to a single crop We Gather Together initially focuses on familiar commodity crops such as corn wheat and potatoes and then expands to other yields by Native American harvesters and California floriculturists as well as winter ice cutters and coastal seaweed gatherers This novel history of agriculture and art traces parallel developments on land and canvas highlighting breakthroughs in each field Artists such as Winslow Homer Doris Lee and Georgia O Keeffe are joined by innovators in agriculture whether mechanical inventors such as Eli Whitney John Deere and Cyrus McCormick or genetic hybridizers such as Luther Burbank W Atlee Burpee and Theodosia Shepherd Surveying an astonishing amount of material and a wide range of paintings prints and other artworks from the nineteenth century to the mid twentieth century We Gather Together gorgeously demonstrates how the use of agricultural metaphors permeated American visual culture The harvest we see here came to signify and dominate politics poetry and popular culture ultimately representing a primary facet of American identity and nationhood Visual Shock Michael Kammen,2009-04-22 In this lively narrative award winning author Michael Kammen presents a fascinating analysis of cutting edge art and artists and their unique ability to both delight and provoke us He illuminates America s obsession with public memorials and the changing role of art and museums in our society From Thomas Eakins s 1875 masterpiece The Gross Clinic considered too big bold and gory when first exhibited to the bitter disputes about Maya Lin s Vietnam War Memorial this is an eye opening account of American art and the battles and controversies that it has ignited

Dark Times, Dire Decisions Jonathan Frankel,2005-05-19 The newest volume of the annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry series features essays on the varied and often controversial ways Communism and Jewish history interacted during the 20th century The volume s contents examine the relationship between Jews and the Communist movement in Poland Russia America Britain France the Islamic world and Germany Digging Up the Dead Michael Kammen,2010-05-15 With Digging Up the Dead Pulitzer Prize winning historian Michael Kammen reveals a treasure trove of fascinating surprising and occasionally gruesome stories of exhumation and reburial throughout American history Taking us to the contested grave sites of such figures as Sitting Bull John Paul Jones Frank Lloyd Wright Daniel Boone Jefferson Davis and even Abraham Lincoln Kammen explores how complicated interactions of regional pride shifting reputations and evolving burial practices led to public and often emotional battles over the final resting places of famous figures Grave robbing skull fondling cases of mistaken identity and the financial lures of cemetery tourism all come into play as Kammen delves deeply into this little known yet surprisingly persistent aspect of American history Simultaneously insightful and interesting masterly and macabre Digging Up the Dead reminds us that the stories of American history don t always end when the key players pass on Rather the battle over reputations interpretations and last but far from least possession of the remains themselves is often just beginning Spheres of Liberty Michael Kammen,2001 A historical overview of the concept of liberty in American culture and thought American Modernism at the Art Institute of Chicago Art Institute of Chicago,Judith A. Barter,Jennifer M. Downs,2009 The first publication to focus on the Art Institute s outstanding collection of American modernism this volume includes over 175 important paintings sculptures decorative art objects and works on paper made in North America between World War II and 1955 Together they fully reflect the history of American art in these decades including examples of early modernism Social Realism Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism Among the paintings are such iconic works as Hopper s Nighthawks and Wood s American Gothic along with notable pieces by Davis De Kooning Hartley Lawrence Marin O Keeffe Pollock and Sheeler Among the sculptors represented are Calder Cornell and Noguchi Spectacular decorative artwork by the Eameses Grotell Neutra Saarinen F L Wright and Zeisel are also featured Reproduced in full color each work is accompanied by an accessible and up to date text complete with comparative illustrations The introduction traces the formation of this important collection by a number of noted curators collectors and patrons Distributed for the Art Institute of Chicago
