Turning Back Robert Adams, 2005 Photographs by Robert Adams Turning Back Robert Adams, Haus der Kunst München, 2005 The Environmental Uncanny Brian A. Irwin, 2024-06-27 The Environmental Uncanny argues that the increasing destitution of our world is the result of a certain forgetfulness we have forgotten that the basis of our knowledge is not calculative reason but our participation in the natural world The modern built environment is exemplary of this forgetfulness and induces an uncanniness that can help us to understand the nature of our environmental crisis This book offers a unique interdisciplinary perspective on the global environmental crisis Ranging from traditional phenomenology including substantial discussion of both Merleau Ponty and Heidegger to philosophy of biology to architectural and urban design theory to landscape photography it makes illuminating connections to paint a multifaceted picture Tracing the root causes of dwindling biodiversity deforestation and suburban sprawl we can find how might we mark the path back toward a mode of rich inhabitation in a contemporary age In charting out how it is that we are losing our world Irwin offers a thought as to how we might regain it Along Some Rivers Robert Adams, 2006 Robert Adams one of America's foremost living photographers has spent decades considering and documenting the landscape of the American West and the ways it has been altered disturbed or destroyed by the hand of man A professor of English before turning to photography Adams is also a skilled writer and acute thinker on aesthetic questions Aperture's previous bestselling collections of his essays Beauty in Photography and Why People Photograph assembled his thoughts on a range of subjects including writing teaching photography's place in the arts and a host of fellow photographers Along Some Rivers collects Adams's correspondence and conversations some of which have never been published before with writers and curators including William McEwan Constance Sullivan and Thomas Weski In so doing it provides another point of entry offering a portrait of the artist in debate and elucidating his thoughts on a number of his now legendary projects including Cottonwoods and What We Bought Adams also expounds on why in his view Marcel Duchamp has not been a helpful guide for art and he discusses which filmmakers and painters have influenced him which cameras he prefers and how he approaches printing his pictures Along Some Rivers also includes a selection of 28 unpublished landscapes Stories from the Camera Michele M. Wyoming Grasslands Frank H. Goodyear, Charles R. Preston, 2015-07 Naturalist John James Audubon found the Great Plains and their wildlife so riveting when he visited the region in 1834 that he broke off a letter to his wife because he was too excited to write In the almost two hundred years since then the Wyoming landscape deemed the Italy of America by landscape painter Albert Bierstadt has retained its glory if not its place in the imagination of the American public This book reminds us of the remarkable bounty contained in the wild beauty and rich history of the Wyoming grasslands even as these riches are under threat from both human and natural forces This landscape is now captured in all its spectacular diversity in the photography of Michael P Berman and William S Sutton two of the modern American West's most accomplished and well known landscape photographers Essays by Frank H Goodyear Jr and Charles R Preston provide a contextual framework for the images Goodyear introduces us to the imagery of the American West and explains the place of Berman's and Sutton's work within that tradition and Preston focuses on the natural history of the grasslands illuminating the area's ecological diversity and changes through the seasons and over the years In 2012 Berman and Sutton launched their massive Wyoming Grasslands Photographic Project a partnership between The Nature Conservancy Wyoming Chapter and the Buffalo Bill Center of the West Working in the tradition of late nineteenth century explorers and photographers of the American West Berman and Sutton shot more than 50 000 digital photographs of Wyoming prairie from the Red Desert of southwestern Wyoming to the Thunder Basin National Grassland of the state's northeastern corner The best of their extraordinarily sensitive revealing and powerful images appear in these pages documenting the sweep and the seasons of the Wyoming landscape In eloquent words and pictures including a foreword by environmental historian Dan Flores Wyoming Grasslands offers dramatic proof of how the land that inspired the likes of Audubon and Bierstadt while having altered over time still holds and demands our attention Material Meanings Matthew S. Witkovsky,2020-03-24 Featuring highlights from Constance R Caplan s noted collection of 20th and 21st century art this publication considers artworks from different media as material objects Where We Live Judith Keller,Anne Lacoste,2006 This is a collection of more than 150 images from the Bruce and Nancy Berman Collection of contemporary photographs These images concentrate on the American landscape and the people and structures to be found in it
