Roman Art Franz Wickhoff, 1900      The Routledge Handbook of Early Christian Art Robin M. Jensen, Mark D. Ellison, 2018-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Early Christian Art surveys a broad spectrum of Christian art produced from the late second to the sixth centuries The first part of the book opens with a general survey of the subject and then presents fifteen essays that discuss specific media of visual art catacomb paintings sculpture mosaics gold glass gems reliquaries ceramics icons ivories textiles silver and illuminated manuscripts Each is written by a noted expert in the field The second part of the book takes up themes relevant to the study of early Christian art These seven chapters consider the ritual practices in decorated spaces the emergence of images of Christ's Passion and miracles the functions of Christian secular portraits the exemplary mosaics of Ravenna the early modern history of Christian art and archaeology studies and further reflection on this field called early Christian art Each of the volume's chapters includes photographs of many of the objects discussed plus bibliographic notes and recommendations for further reading The result is an invaluable introduction to and appraisal of the art that developed out of the spread of Christianity through the late antique world Undergraduate and graduate students of late classical early Christian and Byzantine culture religion or art will find it an accessible and insightful orientation to the field Additionally professional academics archivists and curators working in these areas will also find it valuable as a resource for their own research as well as a textbook or reference work for their students      The Dawn of Christian Art in Panel Paintings and Icons Thomas F. Mathews, Norman E. Muller, 2017-02-01 Staking out new territory in the history of art this book presents a compelling argument for a lost link between the panel painting tradition of Greek antiquity and Christian paintings of Byzantium and the Renaissance While art historians place the origin of icons in the seventh century Thomas F Mathews finds strong evidence as early as the second century in the texts of Irenaeus and the Acts of John that describe private Christian worship In closely studying an obscure set of sixty neglected panel paintings from Egypt in Roman times the author explains how these paintings of the Egyptian gods offer the missing link in the long history of religious painting Christian panel paintings and icons are for the first time placed in a continuum with the pagan paintings that preceded them sharing elements of iconography technology and religious usages as votive offerings Exciting discoveries punctuate the narrative the technology of the triptych enormously popular in Europe traced by the authors to the construction of Egyptian portable shrines such as the Isis and Serapis of the J Paul Getty Museum the discovery that the egg tempera painting medium usually credited to Renaissance artist Cimabue has been identified in Egyptian panels a millennium earlier and the reconstruction of a ring of icons on the chancel of Saint Sophia in Istanbul This book will be a vital addition to the fields of Egyptian Graeco Roman and late antique art history and more generally to the history of painting      Roman and Palaeochristian Painting Gérald Gassiot-Talabot, 1969      Roman Art Franz Wickhoff, 1919      Roman Art; Some of Its Principles and Their Application to Early Christian Painting: Wickhoff Franz 1853-1909, Strong Eugenie

Early Christian Painting Pierre Du Bourguet, 1966 A book dedicated to the study of early Christian painting

Early Christian Art André Grabar, 1969 The beginnings of any historical movement are bound to be mysterious So it is with Christianity and so it is with Christian art Into the ordered world of late classicism came the arresting voice and disturbing gaze of men heavy with conscience for whom art was only a medium for higher truth Andr Grabar traces the emergence of this art from its pagan background and shows the social and spiritual forces that governed its growth Early Christian Art covers a vast area from Spain to Syria and a vast theme since content and meaning are inseparable from expression Chapters are devoted to painting and sculpture during the persecutions to the great Roman basilicas and Old St Peter's to the mosaics of Saint Costanza and to the haunting and still too little known sarcophaguses of the 4th century The book also includes a section of ancient texts relating to art a chronological table and a glossary index and the whole work is
