wedded to tradition all novelty is extravagant and since an artistic form is grasped only after considerable Voices in the Wilderness Walter Simmons,2006-02-24 Despite the Modernist search for new and innovative aesthetics and rejection of traditional tonality several twentieth century composers have found their own voice while steadfastly relying on the aesthetics and techniques of Romanticism and 19th century composition principles Musicological and reference texts have regarded these composers as isolated exceptions to modern thoughts of composition_exceptions of little importance treated simplistically and superficially Music critic and scholar Walter Simmons however believes these composers and their works should be taken seriously They are worthy of more scholarly consideration and deserve proper analysis assessment and discussion in their own regard In Voices in the Wilderness the first in a series of books celebrating the Twentieth Century Traditionalist Simmons looks at six Neo Romantic composers Ernest Bloch Howard Hanson Vittorio Giannini Paul Creston Samuel Barber Nicolas Flagello Through biographical overviews and a comprehensive assessment of musical works Simmons provides readers with a clear understanding of the significance of the composers their bodies of work and their placement in musicological history The chapters delve deeply and objectively into each composer s oeuvre addressing their origins stylistic traits and consistencies phases of development strengths and weaknesses and affinities with other composers The composers most representative works are identified and each chapter concludes with a discography of essential recordings Visit the author s website to read samples from the book and to listen to representative excerpts of each composer s work
