Romantic Vision Ethical Context Novalis And Aritistic Autonomy:

Romantic Vision, Ethical Context Géza von Molnár,1987 Romantic Vision, Ethical Context Geza Von Molnar,1987 Exploring the full range of Novalis s the pen name of the German poet and philosopher Friedrich von Hardenberg work von Molnar shows how he dealt in theory and practice with a central issue in RomanticismOCothe emerging concept of the autonomous self and its relation

Romantic Vision, Ethical Context Géza von Molnár,1986 Private Lives in the Public Sphere Todd Kontje,2010-11 Private Lives in the Public Sphere examines the Bildungsroman in the context of the rapid changes that affected the German literary revolution that made up for its belatedness in its rapidity and scope The nature and quantity of reading material produced the social status of the writer and the reading habits of the public changed dramatically within a few decades At the beginning of the century the new texts that appeared at the annual book fairs were primarily written in Latin and devoted to theology By the end of the century the number of new publications each year has increased almost exponentially with the novel leading the way This new institution of literature constituted an important part of what J instead it transforms reality and the Bildungsroman is the genre that examines this transformation

Romantic Moods Thomas Pfau,2005-10-20 Pfau focuses on three specific paradigms of emotive experience paranoia trauma and melancholy Along the trajectory of Romantic thought paranoia characterizes the disintegration of traditional models of causation and representation during the French Revolution trauma the radical political cultural and economic restructuring of Central Europe in the Napoleonic era and melancholy the dominant post traumatic condition of stalled post Napoleonic history both in England and on the continent

BOOK JACKET Irony and Idealism Fred Rush,2016-09-22 Irony and Idealism investigates the historical and conceptual structure of the development of a philosophically distinctive conception of irony in early to mid nineteenth century European philosophy The principal figures treated are the romantic thinkers Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis Hegel and Kierkegaard Fred Rush argues that the development of philosophical irony in this historical period is best understood as providing a way forward in philosophy in the wake of Kant and Jacobi that is discrete from and many times opposed to German idealism Irony and Idealism argues against the grain of received opinion that among the German romantics Schlegel s conception of irony is superior to similar ideas found in Novalis It also presents a sustained argument showing that historical reconsideration of Schlegel has been hampered by contestable Hegelian assumptions concerning the conceptual viability of romantic irony and by the misinterpretation of what the romantics mean by the absolute Rush argues that this is primarily a social ontological term and not as is often supposed a metaphysical concept Kierkegaard although critical of the romantic conception deploys his own adaptation of it in his criticism of Hegel continuing and in a way completing the arc of irony through nineteenth century philosophy The book concludes by offering suggestions meant to guide contemporary reconsideration of Schlegel s and Kierkegaard s views on the philosophical significance of irony

Beyond Autonomy in Eighteenth-Century British and German Aesthetics Karl Axelsson, Camilla Flodin, Mattias Pirholt, 2020-10-25 This volume re-examines traditional interpretations of the rise of modern aesthetics in eighteenth century Britain and Germany It provides a new account that connects aesthetic experience with morality science and political society In doing so it challenges long standing teleological narratives that emphasize disinterestedness and the separation of aesthetics from moral cognitive and political interests The chapters are divided into three thematic parts The chapters in Part I demonstrate the heteronomy of eighteenth century British aesthetics They chart the evolution of aesthetic concepts and discuss the ethical and political significance of the aesthetic theories of several key figures namely the third Earl of Shaftesbury David Hume and Adam Smith Part II explores the ways in which eighteenth century German and German oriented thinkers examine aesthetic experience and moral concerns and relate to the work of their British counterparts The chapters here cover the work of Kant Moses Mendelssohn Alexander Gottlieb Baumgarten and Madame de Staël Finally Part III explores the interrelation of science aesthetics and a new model of society in the work of Goethe Johann Wilhelm Ritter Friedrich Holderlin and William Hazlitt among others This volume develops unique discussions of the rise of aesthetic autonomy in the eighteenth century In bringing together well known scholars working on British and German eighteenth century aesthetics philosophy and literature it will appeal to scholars and advanced students in a range of disciplines who are interested in this topic The Introduction and Chapters 2 10 and 12 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The German Bildungsroman Michael Minden, 1997-04-17 This book was originally published in 1997 The Bildungsroman the story of the development or formation of a young man is the most famous German contribution to the European novel Most studies of the Bildungsroman have concentrated on its underlying philosophy Michael Minden addresses it as literature He offers detailed readings of some of the best known novels in the German language from Goethe to Mann including Wilhelm Meisters Lehrjahre Agathon Anton Reiser Hyperion Heinrich von Ofterdingen Der grüne Heinrich Der Nachsommer and Der Zauberberg Looking at the novels from the points of view of gender subjectivity and the ideology of the aesthetic and taking account of the literary theory Minden uncovers aspects and motifs which subvert traditional ideas of the

Bildungsroman and raise questions about the function and status of literature Novalis: Philosophical, Literary, and Poetic Writings James D. Reid, 2024 Novalis Philosophical Literary and Poetic Writings assembles for the first time in English translations of Novalis's published philosophical works a large share of his surviving philosophical notes and fragments his two unfinished novels The Disciples at Saas and Heinrich von Ofterdingen and the Hymns to the Night Readers interested in Novalis's views on philosophy art morality politics and religion and how positions in each of these areas might be unified in single overarching vision of reality will find the present translation an essential guide Postmortem Postmodernists Laura E. Savu, 2009 This book scrutinizes the genre of the author as character with respect to three broad issues authorship the posthumous and cultural revisionism that arise in reading such works from a contemporary perspective Late twentieth century fiction postmodernizes romantic and modern authors not only to understand them better but also to understand itself in relation to a past literary tradition aesthetic paradigms cultural formations etc that has not really passed Penelope Fitzgerald's The Blue Flower Peter Ackroyd's The Last Testament of Oscar Wilde and Chatterton Peter Carey's Jack Maggs Michael Cunningham's The Hours Colm Toibin's The Master and Geoff Dyer's Out of Sheer Rage Wrestling with D H Lawrence the mighty dead Harold Bloom are brought back to life reanimated and bodied forth in new textual bodies that project a post modern understanding of the author as a historically and culturally contingent subjectivity constructed along the lines of gender sexual orientation class and nationality Laura E Savu is a lecturer at the University of Bucharest The Hieroglyph of Tradition Angelika Rauch, 2000 Rauch makes the case that reading is an activity within which we encounter something foreign to ourselves namely tradition in its otherness and that it is in this encounter that we enter into a dialogue with predecessors and past achievements that have the capacity to transform us This book will be of interest to scholars in philosophy psychoanalysis critical theory literary study history and cultural study BOOK JACKET Paradox, Aphorism and Desire in Novalis and Derrida Clare Kennedy, 2008 Building on recent investigations into affinities between early German Romanticism and French post structuralism this study brings together the work of Jacques Derrida with the writings of one of early Romanticism's most important theorists Friedrich von Hardenberg 1772-1801 better known as Novalis In contrast to recent criticism which traces the historical path from Romanticism to modern theory in broad strokes this book undertakes comparative readings of Novalis's and Derrida's texts on literature and philosophy The book focuses on the significance both writers accord to paradox and argues that readings which are attuned to paradox can better appreciate the proximity of Romanticism and post structuralism As well as their affirmation of paradox the texts of Novalis and Derrida testify to a profound respect for the Other and the close readings of selected texts reveal remarkable similarities in their thinking on literature philosophy and representation and on the intricate interrelation between language identity and desire

Representation and Its Discontents Azade Seyhan, 2023-04-28 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary theory Her analysis of key thinkers such as Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis explores their views on rhetoric systematicity hermeneutics and cultural interpretation Seyhan examines German Romanticism as a critical intervention in the debates on representation which developed in response to the philosophical revolution of German Idealism Facing a chaotic political and intellectual landscape the eighteenth century theorists sought new models of understanding and new objectives for criticism and philosophy Representation and Its Discontents identifies the legacy of this formative moment in modern criticism and suggests its relevance to contemporary discussions of post structuralism orientalism theories of textuality and the nature of philosophical discourse This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary Subversive Sublimities Eitel Friedrich Timm,1992 This anthology of critical essays pursues a field of scholarship that has only recently caught fire the dark side of the German Enlightenment The most prominent of German enlightened poets and thinkers Goethe Schiller Lichtenberg Tieck among others were conspicuously prone to the ideology of shamans occultists and charlatans of modern science and psychology And yet the studies published here for the first time argue that the fascination with magic and the occult are not symptoms of a dying age but subversively productive elements so that the subversiveness of irrationalism may be said to have become a progressive rather than a reactionary force Orienting the Self Debra N. Prager,2014 Follows the evolution of the Orient as a positive literary device in German literature and demonstrates how it was used to explore subjectivity and the possibility of wholeness For centuries Europe s eastward gaze has been wary if not hostile Medieval man envisaged grotesque beings at the world s edge and scanned the steppes and straits on the immediate horizon for the Asian or Arab hordes that might swarm across them Through the Crusades the early modern era and the age of imperialism Europeans regarded the Eastern subject as requiring both discovery and conquest Conveniently the Oriental came to represent fanaticism terrorism moral laxity and inscrutability among other stereotypes The list of German literary works that reinforced negative clichés about the East is long but Orienting the Self argues for the presence in the German literary tradition of a powerful perception of the East as the scene of desire fantasy and fulfillment It follows the evolution of the Orient as a literary device and demonstrates how it was used to explore subjectivity and the possibility of wholeness The five works treated in this study Parzival Fortunatus Effi Briest Heinrich von Ofterdingen and The Magic Mountain are narratives of development in which the encounter with the East is central to the progression toward selfhood and the promise of fulfillment Debra N Prager is

Wordsworth and English Literary Pilgrimage in the Nineteenth Century Keith Hanley, 2025-06-12

Using Wordsworth as a focal point this book describes how in the period of Romanticism and beyond the historical practice of pilgrimage became internalised figuratively and psychologically so as to represent Christian discourse in nineteenth century English literature It surveys the imaginative relocation of Jerusalem and Rome to real and present places thereby creating the nation's sacred imaginary Wordsworth is presented as central to founding a literary religious discourse on the sacred site of the Lake District Also explored are the ways in which other Victorian writers such as Ruskin and Newman participated in that construction by their own literary pilgrimages Overall this book revises assumptions about the decline of the religious imagination in nineteenth century

English literature and fundamentally reappraises the function of Romantic and Victorian representations of the sacred in forming the nation and empire

Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09

The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire

Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubadour to Toni

Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women's agency as both writers and lovers
