Romantic Vision Of Michael Brophy:

The Romantic Vision of Michael Brophy Rock Hushka, 2005 Explores the intersections of history forest ecology and the rich tradition of landscape painting 2006 Oregon Biennial Lorna Price, 2006 The Rhine: National Tensions, Romantic Visions Manfred Beller, J.Th. (Joep) Leerssen, 2017-09-04 Of all European landscapes and regions the Rhine is one of the most heavily overlaid with cultural and political meaning Cradle of Romanticism tourism and the picturesque bone of contention between the German and French spheres of cultural and geopolitical influence the Rhine has attracted armies artists activists and tourists for centuries and has featured prominently the key writings of Europe's literary and intellectual history from Byron to Lucien Febvre This volume brings together eminent literary and cultural historians to present materials and analyses from various of the central nexus of European culture The volume also contains a unique and comprehensive anthology of key texts historical poetical and polemical related to the Rhineland and its contested position Contributors are Reinhard Baumann Manfred Beller Hans Werner Breunig Giovanna Cermelli Joep Leerssen Elmar Scheuren Helmut J Schneider and Waldemar Zacharasiewicz American Book Publishing Record , 2006 Art Now Gallery Guide , 2005

Pierre Bourdieu in Studies of Organization and Management Sarah Robinson, Jette Ernst, Kristian Larsen, Ole Jacob Thomassen, 2021-10-01 There is increasing academic interest in how Pierre Bourdieu's sociology can be applied to management and organization studies MOS In a context of increasing complexity faced by organizations and those who work in them due to globalization neoliberalism austerity financial crisis ecological issues populism and developing technologies there is untapped potential to use Bourdieu's theoretical inventions to arrive at greater understandings of how change transition and crisis shape work organizational life as well as relations between different organizational and sectorial fields This book aims to take a specific focus on the relational nature of Bourdieu's work and its relevance for contemporary organizations It provides empirically grounded examples that showcase the explanatory strength of Bourdieu's intellectual concepts such as field habitus capital hexis hysteresis symbolic power symbolic violence doxa illusio as applied to the current challenges within MOS Such challenges include issues resulting from globalization neoliberalism financial crisis ecological crisis populism and developing technologies to name but a few and added to those a global pandemic The twelve chapters presented in this book study a great variety and range of organizational phenomena that are organized into three thematic sections Neoliberalism fields and hysteresis Global and national movements as sites for competition and symbolic domination and the The emergence and transformation of professional fields The chapters show a concern with the challenges and opportunities such developments offer to MOS scholars and to managers and employees in public and private sector organizations It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of organizational studies critical management studies human resource management and sociology Carlow past and present. To which is added, The state interpreter Michael Brophy, 1888 Carlow Past and Present Michael Brophy, 1888 Sound and Vision Simon

Frith, Andrew Goodwin, Lawrence Grossberg, 2005-12 The first significant collection of new and classic texts on video bringing together some of the leading international cultural and music critics writing today The Independent Film & Video Monthly, 1996 Visions of Queer Martyrdom from John Henry Newman to Derek Jarman Dominic Janes, 2015-04-27

Dominic Janes is at pains here to highlight the role played by Christianity in the history of homosexuality in Britain His story deals not merely with genital relations but also with identities both embraced and refused Necessarily coded expressions of desire as well as creative blurrings between religious idealism and queer gender and sexuality are integral to Janes's account A special focus for Janes is the way in which visual images and imaginary visions of suffering in ecclesiastical contexts were used to develop concepts of male same sex desire that projected the self as dutiful and penitent rather than shameful And so a model and in ways a substitute for same sex relationships was readily available in idealizations of the person and body of Christas unmarried queer martyr Homosexual desires and identities prove to have unfolded in creative dialogue with religion during and since the 19th century Various figures enter into Janes's history from Cardinal Newman and Oscar Wilde to artists such as Simeon Solomon and Frederick Rolfe and the plot thickens with forays into Victorian monasteries that functioned as queer families with fascinating side trips into Rolfe's Christmas cards as expressions of queer aesthetic identity He brings the account full circle with a concluding chapter on the life and works of Derek Jarman Janes uses this case to show that the experience of the AIDS epidemic led to a reconnection with older modes of queer self expression specifically concerned with the endurance of suffering The religious roots of queer creativity are a vital resource for modern churches and openly gay men and women to learn from The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica

Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts Nineteenth-century Literature Criticism Laurie Lanzen Harris, 1988-02 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1800 and 1900 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations Networks,

Narratives and Nations Marjet Brolsma, Alex Drace-Francis, Krisztina Lajosi-Moore, Enno Maessen, Marleen Rensen, 2025-10-01 Do narratives make nations and if so did networks make this happen The notion that national and other group identities are constructed and sustained by narratives and images has been widely postulated for several decades now This volume contributes to this debate with a particular emphasis on the networked transnational nature of cultural nation building processes in a comparative European and sometimes extra European context It gathers together essays that engage with objects of study ranging from poetry prose and political ideas to painting porcelain and popular song and which draw on examples in Icelandic Arabic German Irish Hungarian and French among other languages The contributors study transcultural phenomena from the medieval and early modern periods through to the modern and postmodern era frequently challenging conventional periodizations and analytical frameworks based on the idea of the nation state Double Vision Darby Lewes, 2008-01-01 Tremendous philosophical social technological and aesthetic revolutions overwhelmed those living in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries This volume examines the manner in which writers employed the metaphor of the literary palimpsest to respond to the resulting disorientation and alienation of this period of great change Vox Eurydice Margaret Ann Mendenhall, 2024-12-15 Vox Eurydice The Ascent of the Female Rescuer in German Language Opera is a mythological and depth psychological analysis written from a feminist perspective on the emergence of the theme of rescue stories and specifically plots where a female heroine saves a male character which arose in German language opera during the roughly one hundred years that spanned the lifetimes of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Ludwig van Beethoven and Richard Wagner Margaret Ann Mendenhall argues that the German language works of these three musical giants grew out of the rescue story paradigm as an extension of Italian opera buffa and French opéra comique This is reflected in Mozart's Singspiele and Beethoven's one completed opera Fidelio considered the epitome of the German language rescue opera The author then examines Wagner's oeuvre not only his ten mature masterpieces but also three earlier operas and his unfinished pieces The author also posits that the need for the ascent of the female rescuer in German language opera was unconsciously tied into the desire of the people of the German speaking territories for a homeland and how the presence of this archetype subsided soon after a German nation was established in 1871 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 The Complete Book of 1940s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz, 2015-02-02 The debut of Oklahoma! in 1943 ushered in the modern era of Broadway musicals and was followed by a number of successes that have become beloved classics Shows produced on Broadway during this decade include Annie Get Your Gun Brigadoon Carousel Finian's Rainbow Pal Joey On the Town and South Pacific Among the major performers of the decade were Alfred Drake Gene Kelly Mary Martin and Ethel Merman while other talents who contributed to shows include Irving Berlin Gower Champion Betty Comden Adolph Green Agnes de Mille Lorenz Hart Alan Jay Lerner Frederick Loewe Cole Porter Jerome Robbins Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II In The Complete Book of 1940s Broadway Musicals

Dan Dietz examines every musical and revue that opened on Broadway during the 1940s In addition to providing details on every hit and flop this book includes revivals and one man and one woman shows Each entry contains the following information Opening and closing dates Plot summary Cast members Number of performances Names of all important personnel including writers composers directors choreographers producers and musical directors Musical numbers and the names of performers who introduced the songs Production data including information about tryouts Source material Critical commentary Details about London and other foreign productions Besides separate entries for each production the book offers numerous appendixes such as a discography film versions published scripts Gilbert and Sullivan operettas and non musical productions that utilized songs dances or background music A treasure trove of information The Complete Book of 1940s Broadway Musicals provides readers with a complete view of each show This significant resource will be of use to scholars historians and casual fans of one of the greatest decades in musical theatre history Telecinematic Stylistics Christian Hoffmann, Monika Kirner-Ludwig, 2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmastylistic showcase It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en scene or montage The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context In this way it provides systematic insights into how meanings are displayed enhanced suppressed and negotiated in both film and televisual arts United Mine Workers Journal United Mine Workers of America, 1917
