Romare Bearden Romare Bearden, 2002 Romare Bearden Narrations Romare Bearden, Lucinda H. Gedeon, Dede Young, Sharon F. Patton, Neuberger Museum of Art, Flint Institute of Arts, Delaware Art Museum, 2002 The Romare Bearden Reader Robert G. O'Meally, 2019-06-14 The Romare Bearden Reader brings together a collection of new essays and canonical writings by novelists poets historians critics and playwrights The contributors who include Toni Morrison Ralph Ellison August Wilson Farah Jasmine Griffin and Kobena Mercer contextualize Bearden's life and career within the history of modern art examine the influence of jazz and literature on his work trace his impact on twentieth century African American culture and outline his art's political dimensions Others focus on specific pieces such as A Black Odyssey or the ways in which Bearden used collage to understand African American identity The Reader also includes Bearden's most important writings which grant readers insight into his aesthetic values and practices and share his desire to tell what it means to be black in America Put simply The Romare Bearden Reader is an indispensable volume on one of the giants of twentieth century American art Contributors Elizabeth Alexander Romare Bearden Mary Lee Corlett Rachel DeLue David C Driskell Brent Hayes Edwards Ralph Ellison Henri Ghent Farah Jasmine Griffin Harry Henderson Kobena Mercer Toni Morrison Albert Murray Robert G O Meally Richard Powell Richard Price Sally Price Myron Schwartzman Robert Burns Stepto Calvin Tomkins John Edgar Wideman August Wilson Albert Murray and the Aesthetic Imagination of a Nation Barbara A. Baker, 2010-06-29 This is the first book length study of the writings work and life of Renaissance man and Alabama native Albert Murray The collection consists of essays and interviews written by prominent scholars of African American literature jazz and Albert Murray that illustrate Murray's place as a central figure in African American arts and letters and as an American cultural pioneer Book jacket Drawing from the Modern Jodi Hauptman, Gary Garrels, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 Published on the occasion of the exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art New York Mar 30 Aug 29 2005 Reading Contemporary African American Drama Trudier Harris, 2007 Textbook Antagonistic Cooperation Robert G. O'Meally, 2022-03-15 Winner 2023 Columbia University Press Distinguished Book Award Finalist 2023 Pauli Murray Book Prize in Black Intellectual History African American Intellectual History Society Shortlisted Historical Nonfiction Legacy Award Hurston Wright Foundation Ralph Ellison famously characterized ensemble jazz improvisation as antagonistic cooperation Both collaborative and competitive musicians play with and against one another to create art and community In Antagonistic Cooperation Robert G O Meally shows how this idea runs throughout twentieth century African American culture to provide a new history of Black creativity and aesthetics From the collages of Romare Bearden and paintings of Jean Michel Basquiat to the fiction of Ralph Ellison and Toni Morrison to the music of Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington O Meally explores how the worlds of African American jazz art and literature have informed one another He argues that these artists drew on the improvisatory nature of jazz and the techniques of collage not as a way to depict a fractured or broken sense of Blackness but rather to see the Black self as beautifully layered and complex They developed a shared set of methods and motives driven by the belief that art must involve a sense of community O Meally s readings of these artists and their work emphasize how they have not only contributed to understanding of Black history and culture but also provided hope for fulfilling the broken promises of American democracy

We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn t until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023

Life Narratives, Creativity, and the Social in the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Susana Rocha Teixeira, 2024-12-02 Resorting to life narratives as a comprehensive umbrella term and embracing hemispheric American studies paradigms this edited volume explores the interrelations between life narratives the social world creativity and different forms of media to narrate and re present the self to see in which way these expressions offer new means of self representation within cultural productions from the Americas Creativity in the context of life narratives nourishes the act of narrating and propels among others the desire to link individual life stories with larger stories of social embeddedness conditioning and transformation thus pushing new forms of historiography and other forms of nonfictional writing Accordingly the creative impulse fuses individual and collective experience with a larger understanding of the social including the latter s local and global embeddedness The contributions in this volume analyze the ways in which the dynamics tensions and reciprocities between narrative creativity and the social world unfold in life narratives from the Americas In particular this volume addresses scholars and students of life writing cultural and literary studies gender disability and postcolonial studies with new insights into life narratives from the Americas

Envisioning Black Feminist Voodoo Aesthetics Kameelah L. Martin, 2016-09-30 In the twenty first century American popular culture increasingly makes visible the performance of African spirituality by black women Disney s Princess and the Frog and Pirates of the Caribbean franchise are two notable examples The reliance on the black priestess of African derived religion as an archetype however has a much longer history steeped in the colonial othering of Haitian Vodou and American imperialist fantasies about so called black magic Within this cinematic study Martin unravels how religious autonomy impacts the identity function and perception of Africana women in the American popular imagination Martin interrogates seventy five years of American film representations of black women engaged in conjure hoodoo obeah or Voodoo to discern what happens when race gender and African spirituality collide She develops the framework of Voodoo aesthetics or the inscription of African cosmologies on the black female body as the theoretical lens through which to scrutinize black female religious performance in film Martin places the genre of film in conversation with black feminist womanist criticism offering an interdisciplinary approach to film analysis Positioning the black priestess as another iteration of Patricia Hill Collins notion of controlling images Martin theorizes whether film functions as a safe space for a racial and gendered embodiment in the performance of African diasporic religion Approaching the close reading of eight signature films from a black female spectatorship Martin works chronologically to express the trajectory of the black priestess as cinematic motif over the last century of filmmaking Conceptually Martin recalibrates the scholarship on black women and representation by distinctly centering black women as ritual specialists and Black Atlantic spirituality on the silver screen

All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio, 2011-05-17 In All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio provides the first full length study of John Edgar Wideman's entire oeuvre to date Specifically Guzzio examines the ways in which Wideman's 1941 engages with three crucial themes history myth and trauma throughout his career showing how they intertwine Guzzio argues that for four decades the influential African American writer has endeavored to create a version of the African American experience that runs counter to mainstream interpretations using history and myth to confront and then heal the trauma caused by slavery and racism Wideman's work intentionally blurs boundaries between fiction and autobiography myth and history particularly as that history relates to African American experience in his hometown of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania The fusion of fiction national history and Wideman's personal life is characteristic of his style which due to its complexity and smudging of genre distinctions has presented analytic difficulties for literary scholars Despite winning the PEN Faulkner award twice for Sent for You Yesterday 1984 and Philadelphia Fire 1990 Wideman remains understudied Of particular value is Guzzio's analysis of the many ways in which Wideman alludes to his previous works This intertextuality allows Wideman to engage his books in direct intentional dialogue with each other through repeated characters images folktales and songs In Wideman's challenging of a monolithic view of history and presenting alternative perspectives to it and his allowing past present and future time to remain fluid in the narratives Guzzio finds an author firm in his notion that all stories and all perspectives have merit

Narratives of African American Art and Identity Terry Gips, 1998 One of the most exciting and eclectic celebrations of African American art ever published Narratives of African American Art and Identity showcases one hundred paintings etchings sculptures and photographs from the collection of David C Driskell A true Renaissance man Driskell himself is an esteemed artist educator curator and philanthropist His fifty year career has been committed to promoting African American art Included are works by John Biggers Sam Gilliam Lois Mailou Jones Keith Morrison Henry Ossawa Tanner Alma Thomas Romare Bearden Elizabeth Catlett Augusta Savage and James VanDerZee to name just a few Each artwork is accompanied by information about the artist and the particular work This book is the catalog for the exhibition of the same title which travelled to various American museums through February 2001 An ^AAmerican Odyssey Mary Schmidt Campbell,2018-08-08 Mary Schmidt

Campbell offers the first major biography of Romare Bearden exploring his influences and legacy The Hearing Eye Graham Lock,David Murray,2009-01-02 The widespread presence of jazz and blues in African American visual art has long been overlooked The Hearing Eye makes the case for recognizing the music s importance both as formal template and as explicit subject matter Moving on from the use of iconic musical figures and motifs in Harlem Renaissance art this groundbreaking collection explores the more allusive and elusive references to jazz and blues in a wide range of mostly contemporary visual artists There are scholarly essays on the painters Rose Piper Graham Lock Norman Lewis Sara Wood Bob Thompson Richard H King Romare Bearden Robert G O Meally Johannes V lz and Jean Michel Basquiat Robert Farris Thompson as well an account of early blues advertising art Paul Oliver and a discussion of the photographs of Roy DeCarava Richard Ings These essays are interspersed with a series of in depth interviews by Graham Lock who talks to quilter Michael Cummings and painters Sam Middleton Wadsworth Jarrell Joe Overstreet and Ellen Banks about their musical inspirations and also looks at art s reciprocal effect on music in conversation with saxophonists Marty Ehrlich and Jane Ira Bloom With numerous illustrations both in the book and on its companion website The Hearing Eye reaffirms the significance of a fascinating and dynamic aspect of African American visual art that has been too long neglected Dialogue ,2003

Gullah Images ,2020-05-22 Paintings magisterial and universal that capture the essence of a vibrant African American community In his art Jonathan Green paints the world of his childhood and an ode to a people imbued with a profound respect for the dignity and value of others the Gullah people of the South Carolina barrier islands His canvases beloved for their sense of jubilation and rediscovery evoke the meaning of community in Gullah society and display a reverence for the rich visual oral and spiritual traditions of its culture His art also reveals a keen awareness of the interpersonal social and natural environments in which we live The 180 images assembled in this collection showcase the meaning purpose and beauty that Green finds in the small but critical tasks of life His work elevates the everyday preparing morning meals doing the wash accomplishing farming chores finishing a day s work relaxing in the evening and celebrates the social and religious community dances baptisms weddings funerals Green allows his audience the space and silence to observe people unobtrusively as they pursue life s mission of labor love and belonging and as they work in harmony with nature s mysterious ever changing fabric While Green s paintings speak specifically to his own upbringing they transcend racial cultural and ethnic boundaries thus allowing individuals of all backgrounds to recall fond memories and to reflect on the place that purpose and dignity hold in their lives In addition to a foreword by Pat Conroy essays by Bettye J Mbitha Parker Smith Lynn Robertson and Ronne Hartfield complement Green s images They tell of the vitality of the Gullah community the progression of Green s career and the authenticity of his work Writing Blackness James W. Coleman,2010-12-10 One of the most critically acclaimed yet least recognized contemporary writers African American author John Edgar Wideman creates work often described as difficult even unfathomable In Writing Blackness James Coleman examines Wideman s prolific body of work with the goal of making his often elusive imagery and dense style more accessible and thus broadening his readership More so than for most writers Coleman shows Wideman s life has affected his writing Born in 1941 Wideman grew up in a Pittsburgh suburb where he attended an integrated high school starred on the basketball team and was senior class president and valedictorian At the University of Pennsylvania he studied creative writing and became an all Ivy League basketball player Winning a Rhodes scholarship he studied at Oxford after which he returned to Penn and became its first black tenured professor Wideman published his first novel A Glance Away at age twenty six and by 1973 had published two more works of fiction But for all this success something began to wear on him In 1973 his grandmother died and after listening to family stories when he traveled home for the funeral Wideman began to change his world view Between 1973 and 1981 Wideman published nothing and immersed himself in African American culture reading widely and even more important moving much closer to his family Since 1981 Wideman has refocused his life and writing on blackness and published twelve experimental works all very different from his earlier books Coleman examines nearly all of Wideman s work from A Glance Away 1967 to Fanon 2008 He shows how Wideman has developed a unique style that combines elements of fiction biography memoir history legend folklore waking life and dream in innovative ways in an effort to grasp the meaning of blackness an effort that makes his writing challenging but that holds more than ample rewards for the perceptive reader In Writing Blackness Coleman demonstrates why Wideman ranks among the best of contemporary American writers

You Made Me Love You John Edgar Wideman, 2022-02-15 A powerful and stunning Publishers Weekly starred review selection of the best of John Edgar Wideman s short stories over his fifty year career representing the wide range of his intellectual and artistic pursuits When John Edgar Wideman won the PEN Malamud Award in 2019 he joined a list of esteemed writers from Eudora Welty to George Saunders all of whom are acknowledged masters of the short story Wideman s commitment to short fiction has been lifelong and here he gathers a representative selection from throughout his career stories that have a wary brooding spirit a lonely intelligence and air the problem of consciousness including the fragile contingency of our existence The New York Times Wideman s stories are grounded in the streets and the people of Homewood the Pittsburgh neighborhood of his childhood but they range far beyond there to the small western towns of Wyoming and historic Philadelphia the contemporary world and the ancient past He explores the interior lives of his characters and the external pressures that shape them These stories are as intellectually intricate as they are rich with the language and character Wideman has been compared to William Faulkner and James Baldwin these prove that he is every bit as masterful a cartographer of the American spirit as his forebears Esquire Comprised of thirty five stories drawn from past collections American Histories Briefs God s Gym All Stories Are True Fever and Damballah and an introductory essay by the National Book Critics Circle board member and scholar Walton Muiyumba this volume of Wideman's selected stories celebrates the lifelong significance of this major American writer's essential contribution to a form illuminating the ways that he has made it his own. If there were any doubts, Wideman belongs to the American canon; this puts them to bed. Publishers Weekly starred review.
