Romare Bearden in the Homeland of His Imagination Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore, 2022-03-10 Romare Bearden 1911-1988 one of the most prolific original and acclaimed American artists of the twentieth century richly depicted scenes and figures rooted in the American South and the Black experience Bearden hailed from North Carolina but was forced to relocate to the North when a white mob harassed his family in the 1910s His family story is a compelling complicated saga of Black middle class achievement in the face of relentless waves of white supremacy It is also a narrative of the generational trauma that slavery and racism inflicted over decades But as Glenda Gilmore reveals in this trenchant reappraisal of Bearden's life and art his work reveals his deep imagination extensive training and rich knowledge of art history Gilmore explores four generations of Bearden's family and highlights his experiences in North Carolina Pittsburgh and Harlem She engages deeply with Bearden's art and considers it as an alternative archive that offers a unique perspective on the history memory and collective imagination of Black southerners who migrated to the North In doing so she revises and deepens our appreciation of Bearden's place in the artistic canon and our understanding of his relationship to southern African American and American cultural and social history

The Human Tradition in the Black Atlantic, 1500-2000 Beatriz G. Mamigonian, Karen Racine, 2010 Like snapshots of everyday life in the past the compelling biographies in this book document the making of the Black Atlantic world since the sixteenth century from the point of view of those who were part of it Centering on the diaspora caused by the forced migration of Africans to Europe and across the Atlantic to the Americas the chapters explore the slave trade enslavement resistance adaptation cultural transformations and the quest for citizenship rights The variety of experiences constraints and choices depicted in the book and their changes across time and space defy the idea of a unified black experience At the same time it is clear that in the twentieth century black identity unified people of African descent who along with other minority groups struggled against colonialism and racism and presented alternatives to a version of modernity that excluded and alienated them Drawing on a rich array of little known documents the contributors reconstruct the lives and times of some well known characters along with ordinary people who rarely left written records and would otherwise have remained anonymous and unknown Contributions by Aaron P Althouse Alan Bloom Marcus J M de Carvalho Aisnara Perera D az Mar a de los ngeles Meri o Fuentes Fl vio dos Santos Gomes Hilary Jones Beatriz G Mamigonian Charles Beatty Medina Richard Price Sally Price Cassandra Pybus Karen Racine Ty M Reese Jo o Jos Reis Lorna Biddle Rinear Meredith L Roman Maya Talmon Chvaicer and Jerome Teelucksingh Memory and Metaphor Romare Bearden, Sharon F. Patton, Mary Schmidt Campbell, Studio Museum in Harlem, 1991 When the prolific African American artist Romare Bearden died in 1988 at age 76 there had not been a full retrospective of his work in seventeen years In April 1991 however The Studio Museum in Harlem is planning a major exhibition that will offer a survey of the entire spectrum of Bearden s paintings from the cubist figurative pieces of the 40s through the lyrical abstractions of the 50s and early 60s to the brilliant later collages After opening in Harlem the exhibition will travel to Chicago Los Angeles Atlanta Pittsburgh and Washington D C It is especially appropriate that the retrospective is being organized by The Studio Museum Throughout his life Bearden loved and revered Harlem and was closely connected with the Museum serving on its Curatorial Council and attending many of its events and programs Here Bearden was able to interact with younger artists as well as writers and musicians and his influence is felt in much of their work August Wilson s play The Piano Lesson for example is named for one of Bearden s paintings This catalogue with a twenty four page section of beautiful full color plates is very nearly as sumptuous a record of Bearden s life and work as the exhibition itself The Museum s director Kinshasha Holman Conwill has written the Introduction Dr Mary Schmidt Campbell the foremost authority on Bearden has written an essay and Dr Sharon F Patton the Chief Curator has contributed an important essay focusing on the themes styles and iconography in Bearden s work In addition to the color plates the text is supported throughout by seventy eight black and white illustrations It also includes a biography of the artist and a selected bibliography making it essential for scholar and museum goer alike Romare Bearden A Retrospective offers us an extraordinary opportunity to learn how a great artist developed over time And it also allows us to see how Bearden s work while thoroughly grounded in the values of the African American tradition transcends cultural boundries as it speaks powerfully as an art of its time African Americans in the Visual Arts Steven Otfinoski, 2014-05-14 While social concerns have been central to the work of many African American visual artists painters Reading
