Rooted In Remembering A Collection Of Sermons:

The Collected Sermons of David Bartlett David L. Bartlett, 2020-01-21 This collection of fifty two sermons shows beloved New Testament scholar David Bartlett at his best Bartlett who died in 2017 spent his career teaching and mentoring preachers at The University of Chicago Divinity School Yale Divinity School Union Presbyterian Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary as well as serving as a pastor in American Baptist churches Thus he has generations of friends and former students who knew him for his quick wit passion for justice and deep knowledge of the Bible Those traits show through in these sermons As Nora Tisdale says in the foreword All of the sermons in this volume give witness to Davids passion for preaching that is solidly grounded in the biblical text Most of them actually begin as Karl Barth urged preachers to begin with the biblical text If they dont begin there they always get there fairly quickly And Davids interpretations of texts often surprise the reader with their freshness and clarity In addition to individual sermons several multiweek sermon series including a series on Who Is Jesus and Great Words of the Faith are included A Choice Collection of Very Valuable Prefaces, Lectures, and Sermons James Renwick, 1776 The Sermon on the Mount Victor Lee Austin, 2025-03-10 Although a central Christian text the Sermon on the Mount remains full of mystery In this book an ecumenical group of scholars guides us from exegesis to theology to application to proclamation Marianne Meye Thompson grounds the Sermon in the narrative of Matthew s Gospel Piotr Ma ysz provides theological amazement at the Sermon being at once law and gospel David Cloutier works with the Sermon to understand and critique our culture of victimhood Brent Waters explores its economic realism Sarah Hinlicky Wilson concludes with a poetic paraphrase and reflections on how to preach on the Sermon as a whole As a special supplement and continuing the concern of Pro Ecclesia for doing theology ecumenically Michael Root examines the changes in the ecumenical movement over the past generation This volume as a whole is offered pro ecclesia for the building up of the church The Sermon Bible: Psalm LXXVII to Song of Solomon, 1900 A Choice Collection of ... Prefaces, Lectures and Sermons, preached on the mountains and muirs of Scotland by ... James Renwick ... To which are added the form of the admission of ruling elders; a reply to Mr. Langlan's letter to G. Wotherspoon; and a testimony to the truths of God ... as is stated by the true Presbyterians of the Church of Scotland, etc James RENWICK (Presbyterian Minister.), 1804 The Collected Sermons of William Sloane Coffin William Sloane Coffin, 2008-01-01 Comprising the sermons preached by William Sloane Coffin while he was senior minister at the prestigious Riverside Church in New York City The Collected Sermons of William Sloane Coffin The Riverside Years captures the renowned preacher and social activist at work ministering to American hostages in Iran supporting AIDS awareness and rallying his audiences to battle poverty and nuclear proliferation all the while celebrating marriages baptisms and Mothers Days and mourning the loss of loved ones including his own son In each of these brilliant and painstakingly crafted sermons Coffin combined his deep love of Scripture and passionate commitment to peace and justice with his unparalleled gift for the spoken word While also revealing the personal and pastoral dimensions of ministry each sermon provides a powerful example of lives well accomplished mission to challenge the conscience of a nation For those who knew William Sloane Coffin these sermons will be a treasured remembrance For those who regret not knowing him they provide the best of introductions And for those who as yet have escaped Coffin's influence they are superb testimony to the great potential of ministry the possibilities of hope and determination and the remarkable power of one human voice

A Memorial, "to bring Remembrance." Twelve sermons preached in Christ Church, Barnwell John Doudney LANE, 1844

Preaching as Reminding Jeffrey D. Arthurs, 2017-11-07 We know of the preacher's roles as both teacher and proclaimer but Jeffrey Arthurs adds another assignment the Lord's remembrancer With decades of preaching experience he explains how to stir the memory of Christ followers fanning the flames of faith through vivid language story delivery and ceremony When knowledge fades and conviction cools the church needs to be reminded of the great truths of the faith

The Patristic Roots of Reformed Worship Hughes Oliphant Old, 2023-12-29 The first part of this work describes the development of Reformed Worship from 1500-1542 The story begins with liturgical reforms of the Christian Humanists in Alsace continues through the establishment of the first Protestant worship services in the Swiss cities of Zurich and Basel joins with the currents of French evangelical thought flowing from Meaux and finally reaches Geneva with the publication of Calvin's first psalter Reformed worship is presented as the fruit of an inner church liturgical renewal movement begun well before the Reformation which was then cultivated by the Rhineland Protestant Reformers In order that we might be clear about how patristic literature affected this process we turn next to discover what the Reformers knew about the church fathers We show evidence of the impressive patristic knowledge of such men as Zwingli Brucer Hedio Oecolampadius and Calvin An extensive bibliography of patristic editions known and used by the Reformers concludes the second part of the book Finally we analyze each element of Reformed worship to show its development and to indicate its scriptural and particularly its patristic roots The Prayer of Confession the Prayer of Intercession the Communion Invocation and the Benediction are studied to show their liturgical purpose How the Reformers understood their use of the lectionary the sermon psalmody and hymnody is presented in the light of their understanding of the practice of the ancient church

Twisted Roots Shelly Goodman Wright, 2012-06 I want to tell you something now I need you to listen closely and don't forget I'm not sure how much time I have He stopped again and shook his head at the sky He then pointed out a vivid star high above them in the moonless sky There are magical places that exist in this world Jess places that the master architect created to balance good and evil The time will come when you will leave this house and enter into another life that awaits you a life you deserve and one with greater purpose You don't know how special you really are Jessica's sole priority for the past thirteen years has been to keep her father alive in the hope he will wake up from his coma and save her Threatening to cut off his life support at any sign of independence her mother has controlled her life even to the point of an arranged engagement to Seth whom Jessica fears even more than her mother When

Jessica accepts this most outrageous demand yet and then discovers her father has passed away anyway she knows she has to escape She runs until she is lost and bewildered in a Georgia swamp where she discovers the existence of the wonderful place her father hinted at to her when she was only a child In this magical unreal world just as she begins to discover the truth about her twisted family roots three young men set their eyes on Jessica One will win her heart one will try to steal it and one will try to kill her

Parish Sermons. Fourth Series. My Duty Towards God, and My Duty Towards My Neighbour Harvey Goodwin (Bishop of Carlisle.),1856

Prosthetic Memory Alison Landsberg,2004 Prosthetic Memory argues that mass cultural forms such as cinema and television in fact contain the still unrealized potential for a progressive politics based on empathy for the historical experiences of others The technologies of mass culture make it possible for anyone regardless of race ethnicity or gender to share collective memories to assimilate as deeply felt personal experiences historical events through which they themselves did not live
