Roots Of Evil The Origins Of Genocide And Other Group Violence:

The Roots of Evil Ervin Staub,1992-07-31 How can human beings kill or brutalise multitudes of other human beings Focusing particularly on genocide Erwin Staub explores the psychology of group aggression He sketches a conceptual framework for the many influences on one group s desire to harm another and within this framework considers four historical examples of genocide When History is a Nightmare Stevan M. Weine,1999 Through the narratives and testimonies of Bosnian refugees who survived ethnic cleansing in Bosnia Herzegovina this title demonstrates how ethnic cleansing has worked its way into people s lives and memories Destroy Them Gradually Andrew R. Basso,2024-02-16 Destroy Them Gradually reframes forced displacement as an annihilatory process rather than as an event that precedes an atrocity Displacement crimes are defined as the unique fusion of forced displacement with systemic deprivations of vital daily needs to destroy populations Visions in Conflict Brian C. Alston,2010 A conflict in visions stands at the center of major international and national crises in the Middle East Africa Asia or elsewhere Whether in mass killing genocide or intractable conflict ideology is usually present and plays important role By ideology political religious economic social or some other is meant visions of social arrangements and human relations that provide meaning and hope for a group Such ideologies can identify others as enemies who stand in the way of their fulfillment The present volume contains essays written by authors from around the world on powerful vehicles of conflict resolution namely religion psychology education and training psychotherapy and sports It is our sincere hope that these essays shed light on the process of peace and reconciliation

The Deadly Ethnic Riot Donald L. Horowitz,2023-11-15 Donald L Horowitz s comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethnic group on civilian members of another ethnic group Serious frequent and destabilizing these events result in large numbers of casualties Horowitz examines approximately 150 such riots in about fifty countries mainly in Asia Africa and the former Soviet Union as well as fifty control cases With its deep and thorough scholarship incisive analysis and profound insights The Deadly Ethnic Riot will become the definitive work on its subject Furious and sadistic the riot is nevertheless directed against a precisely specified class of targets and conducted with considerable circumspection Horowitz scrutinizes target choices participants and organization the timing and supporting conditions for the violence the nature of the events that precede the riot the prevalence of atrocities during the violence the location and diffusion of riots and the aims and effects of riot behavior He finds that the deadly ethnic riot is a highly patterned but emotional event that tends to occur during times of political uncertainty He also discusses the crucial role of rumor in triggering riots the surprisingly limited role of deliberate organization and the striking lack of remorse exhibited by participants Horowitz writes clearly and eloquently without compromising the complexity of his subject With impressive analytical skill he takes up the important challenge of explaining phenomena that are at once passionate and calculative Donald L Horowitz's comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethni

Confronting Genocide René Provost, Payam Akhavan, 2010-11-11 Never again stands as one the central pledges of the international community following the end of the Second World War upon full realization of the massive scale of the Nazi extermination programme Genocide stands as an intolerable assault on a sense of common humanity embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other fundamental international instruments including the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide and the United Nations Charter And yet since the Second World War the international community has proven incapable of effectively preventing the occurrence of more genocides in places like Cambodia Yugoslavia Rwanda and Sudan Is genocide actually preventable or is ever again a more accurate catchphrase to capture the reality of this phenomenon The essays in this volume explore the complex nature of genocide and the relative promise of various avenues identified by the international community to attempt to put a definitive end to its occurrence Essays focus on a conceptualization of genocide as a social and political phenomenon on the identification of key actors Governments international institutions the media civil society individuals and on an exploration of the relative promise of different means to prevent genocide criminal accountability civil disobedience shaming intervention

Criminal Justice in Transition Anne-Marie McAlinden, Clare Dwyer, 2015-11-12 This book represents a critical examination of key aspects of crime and criminal justice in Northern Ireland which will have resonance elsewhere It considers the core aspects of criminal justice policy making in Northern Ireland which are central to the process of post conflict transition including reform of policing judicial decision making and correctional services such as probation and prisons It examines contemporary trends in criminal justice in Northern Ireland and various dimensions of crime relating to female offenders young offenders sexual and violent offenders community safety and restorative justice The book also considers the extent to which crime and criminal justice issues in Northern Ireland are being affected by the broader processes of policy transfer globalisation and transnationalism and the extent to which criminal justice in Northern Ireland is divergent from the other jurisdictions in the United Kingdom Written by leading international authorities in the field the book offers a snapshot of the cutting edge of critical thinking in criminal justice practice and transitional justice contexts

Proceedings of the 2019 International Conference of The Computational Social Science Society of the Americas Zining Yang, Elizabeth von Briesen, 2021-10-02 This book presents the latest research into CSS methods uses and results as presented at the 2019 annual conference of the CSSSA This conference was held in Santa Fe New Mexico October 24-27 2019 at the Drury Plaza Hotel What follows is a diverse representation of new results and approaches for using the tools of CSS and agent based modeling ABM for exploring complex phenomena across many different domains Readers will therefore not only have the results of these specific projects on which to build but will also gain a greater appreciation for the broad scope of CSS and have a wealth of case study examples that can serve as meaningful exemplars for new research projects and activities The Computational Social Science Society of the Americas CSSSA is a professional society that aims to advance the field of CSS in all its areas from fundamental principles to real world applications by holding conferences and workshops promoting standards of scientific excellence in research and teaching and publishing novel research findings The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Y. Bar-Siman-Tov, 2007-02-19 This book focuses on the September 2000 confrontation between Israelis and Palestinians examining the characteristics of a confrontation that developed into a protracted low intensity conflict Topics addressed include the strategies adopted by both sides the reasons for the failure of moderation and the phenomenon of unilateral disengagement Über(w)unden Lien Heidenreich-Seleme, Sean O'Toole, 2012 This book follows on from Über(w)unden art in troubled times a multi disciplinary conference and series of performances organised by the Goethe Institut South Africa and held in Johannesburg 7-11 September 2011 Torture, Psychoanalysis and Human Rights Monica Luci, 2017-04-28 Torture Psychoanalysis and Human Rights contributes to the development of that field of study called psycho social that is presently more and more committed to providing understanding of social phenomena making use of the explicative perspective of psychoanalysis The book seeks to develop a concise and integrated framework of understanding of torture as a socio political phenomenon based on psychoanalytic thinking through which different dimensions of the subject of study become more comprehensible Monica Luci argues that torture performs a covert emotional function in society In order to identify what this function might be a profile of torturous societies and the main psychological dynamics of social actors involved torturers victims and bystanders are drawn from literature Accordingly a wide ranging description of the phenomenology of torture is provided detecting an inclusive and recurring pattern of key elements Relying on psychoanalytic concepts derived from different theoretical traditions including British object relations theories American relational psychoanalysis and analytical psychology the study provides an advanced line of conceptual research shaping a model whose aim is to grasp the deep meaning of key intrapsychic interpersonal and group dynamics involved in torture Once a sufficiently coherent understanding has been reached Luci proposes using it as a groundwork tool in the human rights field to re think the best strategies of prevention and recovery from post torture psychological and social suffering The book initiates a dialogue between psychoanalysis and human rights showing that the proposed psychoanalytic understanding is a viable conceptualisation for expanding thinking of crucial issues regarding torture which might be relevant to human rights and legal doctrine such as the responsibility of perpetrators the reparation of victims and the question of truth Torture Psychoanalysis and Human Rights is the first book to build a psychoanalytic theory of torture from which psychological social and legal reflections as well as practical aspects of treatment can be mutually derived and understood It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and Jungians as well as scholars of politics social work and justice and human rights and postgraduate students studying across these fields Rediscovering Gandhi Jonathan K. Agusti-Panareda R.P. Misra,2007      Emotions in Conflict Eran Halperin,2015-12-07 Social and political psychologists have attempted to reveal the reasons why individuals and societies that acknowledge that peace would improve their personal and collective well being and are aware of the required actions needed to promote it are simply incapable of making this step forward Some social psychologists have advocated the idea that certain societal beliefs and collective memories about the nature of the opponent the in group the history and the current state of the conflict distort the perceptions of society members and prevent them from identifying opportunities for peace But these cognitive barriers capture only part of the picture Could identifying the role of discrete emotions in conflicts and conflict resolution potentially provide a wide platform for developing pinpoint conflict resolution interventions Using a vast array of primary sources critical literature analysis and firsthand personal experiences in various conflict zones Middle East Cyprus Bosnia and Northern Ireland Eran Halperin introduces a new perspective on psychological barriers to peace Halperin focuses on various emotional mechanisms that hamper peace processes even when parties face real opportunities for conflict resolution More specifically he explores how hatred anger fear angst hope despair empathy guilt and shame combined with various emotion regulation strategies provide emotions based explanations for people s attitudinal and behavioral reactions to peace related events during the ongoing process of conflict resolution Written in a clear and accessible style Emotions in Conflict offers a thought provoking and pioneering insight into the role discrete intergroup emotions play in impeding as well as facilitating peace processes in intractable conflicts This book is essential reading for those who study intractable conflicts and their resolutions and those who are interested in the real world implication of recent theories and findings on emotion and emotion regulation      War Criminals on Trial Damien Scalia,2025-10-16 This book critically examines the practice of international criminal justice based on the experience of war criminals who have been tried for their crimes Presenting the perspectives of those commonly referred to as genocidaires war criminals or criminals against humanity this book presents their experience of international criminal justice and its impact on them By presenting their points of view and their feelings about justice it becomes possible to describe the way in which this branch of justice is apprehended by the perpetrators of mass crimes to produce testimony about the lived penal experience and to analyse the functioning of this institution through a new prism that of the persons standing trial From this perspective a new analysis of international justice is produced one that reveals its aporias as it demonstrates the difficulties international criminal justice faces insofar as the justifications that support it are not all confirmed and as some of the expectations placed on it are shown to be difficult to reach if not clearly unattainable Based on over 60 interviews carried out over a period of twelve years with persons tried by the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda this book offers a unique analysis of the working of international criminal justice This interdisciplinary book will appeal to those with relevant interests in law criminology sociology and criminology      Building Sustainable Peace Arnim Langer,Graham K. Brown,2016-06-16 Countries emerging from civil war or protracted violence often face the daunting challenge of rebuilding their economy while simultaneously creating the political and social conditions for a stable peace. The implicit assumption in the international community that rapid political democratisation along with economic liberalisation holds the key to sustainable peace is belied by the experiences of countries such as Iraq and Afghanistan. Often the challenges of post conflict reconstruction revolve around the timing and sequencing of different reforms that may have contradictory implications. Drawing on a range of thematic studies and empirical cases, this book examines how post conflict reconstruction policies can be better sequenced in order to promote sustainable peace. The book provides evidence that many reforms that are often thought to be imperative in post conflict societies may be better considered as long term objectives and that the immediate imperative for such societies should be people centred policies.

Making History in Mugabe's Zimbabwe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2010. The crisis that has engulfed Zimbabwe since 2000 is not simply a struggle against dictatorship. It is also a struggle over ideas and deep seated historical issues still unresolved from the independence process that both Robert Mugabe's ZANU PF regime and Morgan Tsvangirai's MDC are vying first to define and then to address. This book traces the role of politicians and public intellectuals in media, civil society and the academy in producing and disseminating a politically usable historical narrative concerning ideas about patriotism, race, land, human rights and sovereignty. It raises pressing questions about the role of contemporary African intellectuals in the making of democratic societies. In so doing, the book adds a new and rich dimension to the study of African politics which is often diluted by the neglect of ideas.

Compassionate Reasoning Marc Gopin, 2021-11-16. People who work in helping professions have in common, Marc Gopin argues, a set of cultivated moral character traits and psychosocial skills. They tend to be kinder, more reasonable, more self controlled and more goal oriented to peace. They are united by a particular set of moral values and the emotional skills to put those values into practice, allowing them to excel in what he calls Compassionate Reasoning. In this book, Gopin draws upon the history of ethics along with his own thirty year career in the field of peacebuilding to develop an understanding of decisions that we are all forced to make in life's many ethical gray zones. The very multiplicity of approaches to ethics, says Gopin, invites us to look for higher principles and intuitions.

Peace Movements Worldwide Michael N. Nagler, Marc Pilisuk, 2010-12-16. This three volume anthology is a comprehensive overview of how the human yearning for peace has played out and is playing out on this planet. Peace Movements Worldwide is quite simply the most comprehensive work of its kind on this important subject. In its three volumes, experts document the history and growth of the peace movement, why it is important, who gets involved and how it can succeed. Organized by major themes and issues, the work examines every facet of human striving for peace from the global to the personal. The first volume, History and Vitality of Peace Movements, explores the meaning of peace, its historical, philosophical and biological foundations and related spiritual, gender, social and economic viewpoints. The second volume, Players and Practices in Resistance to War, discusses control over weapons, efforts to prevent and end violent conflict and efforts to heal the traumatic aftereffects of violence The third volume Peace Efforts That Work and Why looks at how mankind can build a new world order by building communities with a sustainable culture of peace
