

"We are very impressed with Mary, Come Home! It is the moving story of the joys and trials of a mission pastor's family in pioneer missions." JACK REDFORD, director, Church Extension Division, Home Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention

"My appreciation of Mary, Come Home! is based on a personal acquaintance with Mary and Jim Bullis over the past twenty years and a knowledge of their work in Ohio, New York, and now in Ontario, Canada. . . . These friends are genuine. Their lives support their witness." ARTHUR L. WALKER, director, Missions Department, State Convention of Baptists in Ohio

Mary Bullis's father had written her: "Mary, why don't you come home? Jim and you have worked hard at starting churches. You need to slow down because of your health." Mary and her husband, Jim, graciously declined. Serving as pioneer missionaries Mary and Jim have founded nine churches, conducted scores of Vacation Bible Schools, started camps for adults and children, begun ministries, and ministered through radio and television.

MARY ALICE BULLIS works with her husband, JIM, in pioneer missions. She is a director of day-care centers and a free-lance writer. They serve the Highland Baptist Chapel in Burlington, Ontario.

Can I Come HOME Now? Barbara Godin, 2022-10-01 A True Story of Childhood Trauma Can I Come Home Now In this moving and painful memoir of growing up from age five to adulthood the author paints a sad and all too familiar story of early sexual abuse from men whom she should have been able to trust that evolves into a shattered sense of self worth and ultimately her own dysfunctional and abusive marriage The story relates how little Barbara came to be vulnerable to such trauma after the break up of her family and being shuttled among various not always willing relatives She details the highly effective and shrewd tactics predators use to keep their victims under their total control The unrelenting theme throughout is her constant longing for her mother's elusive love always just beyond her reach This is not a story of self pity but a story of surviving the odds and creating the life you want Coming Home to Clearwater Dale McMillan, 2011-10-25 The
