Mary Coulter Builder Upon The Red Earth:

Mary Colter, Builder Upon the Red Earth Virginia L. Grattan, 1992 This is the biography of an extraordinary woman It will appeal to those interested in the history of the Grand Canyon buildings the Fred Harvey Company and the Santa Fe Railway as well as those with an interest in architecture interior design native american art and women of accomplishment Mary Colter Arnold Berke, 2002 Mary Elizabeth Jane Colter was an architect and interior designer who spent virtually her entire career working simultaneously for the Fred Harvey Company and the Santa Fe Railway p 9 Culture in the American Southwest Keith L. Bryant, 2014-09-01 If the Southwest is known for its distinctive regional culture it is not only the indigenous influences that make it so As Anglo Americans moved into the territories of the greater Southwest they brought with them a desire to reestablish the highest culture of their former homes opera painting sculpture architecture and literature But their inherited culture was altered challenged and reshaped by Native American and Hispanic peoples and a new vibrant cultural life resulted From Houston to Los Angeles from Tulsa to Tucson Keith L Bryant traces the development of high culture in the Southwest Humans create culture but in the Southwest Bryant argues the land itself has also influenced that creation Incredible light natural grandeur and a geography at once beautiful and yet brutal molded societies that sprang from unique cultural sources The peoples of the American Southwest share a regional consciousness an experience of place that has helped to create a unified but not homogenized Southwestern culture Bryant also examines a paradox of Southwestern cultural life Southwesterners take pride in their cultural distinctiveness yet they struggled to win recognition for their achievements in high culture A dynamic tension between those seeking to re create a Western European culture and those desiring one based on regional themes and resources continues to stimulate creativity Decade by decade and city by city Bryant charts the growth of cultural institutions and patronage as he describes the contributions of artists and performers and of the elites who support them Bryant focuses on the significant role women played as leaders in the formation of cultural institutions and as writers artists and musicians The text is enhanced by more than fifty photographs depicting the interplay between the people and the land and the culture that has resulted Spaces that Tell Stories Donna R. Braden, 2019-07-12 Historical environments delight visitors because of their ability to make them feel transported to another time and place These environments found in both museum exhibitions and historic structures are usually rich with objects that hint at deeper stories and context But these spaces often lack rigor in terms of historical and interpretive methodology along with a thoughtful and purposeful integration of storytelling principles Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments offers a fresh look at historical environments providing a roadmap for applying this rigor and integrating these principles into the creation of such environments It begins by delving into the power of these environments for museum visitors drawing upon multiple cross disciplinary fields An in depth how to methodology follows which begins with the steps of framing the project by aligning it with institutional goals defining audiences involving visitor studies and inviting community engagement It continues through the steps of researching creating interpreting refining and evaluating the impact of the environment The author s methodology is applicable to environments in both historic structures and museum exhibits from different eras places and topics It is also scalable to museums varying sizes and budgets To give a sense of how the methodology laid out in this book translates into real world practice detailed case studies appear throughout along with practical tips checklists charts descriptive photographs and source lists An extensive bibliography follows Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments is a unique contribution to the museum field It is a must read for museum professionals installing or upgrading historic environments while the methodology and case studies also offer practical strategies for other museum professionals working with collections exhibitions and interpretation and how these are integrated thoughtful insights into museum practice for students and a helpful toolkit for local historians New Mexican Tinwork, 1840-1940 Lane Coulter, Maurice Dixon, 2004-08-30 A beautifully illustrated book on the origins and history of traditional Hispanic tinwork National Parks, 2008 The flagship publication of the National Parks Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization s park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country s history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between
