Women, Religion, and the Gift Morny Joy, 2016-10-19 This book introduces the special dynamics of women and their close relationships with the gift in both past and contemporary religious settings Written from a cross cultural perspective it challenges depictions of women's roles in religion where they have been relegated to compliance with specifically designated gendered attributes The different chapters contest the resultant stereotypes that deny women agency Each chapter describes women as engaged in an aspect of religion from that of ritual specialists to benefactors and patrons or even innovators The volume examines topics such as sainthood and sacrifice so as to refine these ideas in constructive ways that do not devalue women It also examines the meaning of the term gift today embracing the term in both figurative and literal ways Such a collection of diverse women's writings and activities provides a significant contribution to their quest for recognition and also suggests ways this can be understood and realized today Great Women of Faith Sue Stanton, 2003 What Does it Mean to be a Saint? Josephine Laffin, 2010 In 2010 Mary MacKillop became the first Australian citizen to be officially proclaimed a saint by the Catholic Church This event and the long canonisation process which preceded it has received much coverage in the Australian media Yet confusion persists over what exactly it means to be a saint In this book scholars from the Catholic Theological College of South Australia and the Flinders University School of Theology share reflections from different perspectives historical biblical philosophical theological ethical spiritual liturgical and personal Veneration of St Mary MacKillop is set in the context of a tradition which can be traced back to Christian martyrs in the ancient Roman Empire and which it is argued is still meaningful today Penal Law in Action Msgr. Gender, Feminist and Queer Studies Donna Bridges, Clifford Lewis, Elizabeth Wulff, Chelsea Litchfield, Larissa Bamberry, 2023-07-13 Exploring scholarship research practice and activism on gender feminist and queer studies this edited collection examines analyses and critiques the nature and causes of inequality disadvantage and marginalisation faced by women non hegemonic and LGBTIQ identities who do not fit hegemonic notions of masculinity femininity and heteronormativity The chapters in this book critically analyse and challenge visible and invisible power relations privilege and prejudice by problematising the artificial organisation of people into hierarchies that preference hegemonic masculinities white and heteronormative identities In questioning often unchallenged and legitimised inequality and disadvantage this book locates itself in the juxtaposition where the lived experiences of individuals activism community participation research and scholarship collide with mainstream local national and globalised culture and politics Divided into four parts this book provides a platform for interrogating how social change can occur in the current neoliberal political context of increasing conservatism

O'Donoghue,2004 The focus of this book is on the situation prevailing in the United States England and Wales Ireland Australia and New Zealand from 1922 to 1965 whereby Catholic schools were used to maximise the possibility of recruiting new members to the religious orders and to minimise the temptation to leave the religious life amongst those who had already joined Four major practices are examined in this regard First Catholic schools deliberately set out to encourage pupils to join the ranks of the religious Secondly they replicated within the schools the authoritarianism of the religious life Thirdly they worked continuously to marginalize lay teachers from their decision making Finally they were ever vigilant in their opposition to co education and sex education The contribution of the religious orders to Catholic education is recognized but consideration is also given to child abuse both physical and sexual in which members of various religious teaching orders engaged The book closes with some consideration of current practices in Catholic education book cover Trailblazers Carolyn Collins,Roy Eccleston,2019-12-11 Australia s first female prime minister The country s first female judge The first woman to win the Archibald Prize for portraiture Australia s first female chief diplomat The nation s first female winemaker These women were all trailblazers but they have something else in common every one of them was South Australian And they are just a handful of the 100 remarkable women whose stories are told in this beautiful book illustrated with hundreds of photographs Written by historian Carolyn Collins and journalist Roy Eccleston Trailblazers shines a light on the lives of these extraordinary women whose feats inspired their state nation and often enough the world Now they can inspire a whole new generation Seizing Opportunities Rebecca Hilton,2025-08-26 Until 1945 Australian Baptist women made up about two thirds of Australian Baptist adherents but rarely have their achievements been documented Instead Australian Baptist history has focused on structures and male ministers This book seeks to redress this deficiency and highlights the work of Baptist women in congregations state and national Baptist women s organizations overseas mission an area in which their contribution was essential and national non denominational organizations particularly the Woman s Christian Temperance Union Australian Baptist women seized the opportunities available to them with drive and passion and the recognition of their ministries is long overdue
