Mary Morgan Tarzanne Frida And Diego:

Mary Morgan Greg Cullen, 1998 This lively and topical collection illustrates Cullen's trademark ability to re-fashion theatrical conventions for contemporary and seemingly bizarre use. Conflict between generations, classes, anti-sexes, marks Mary Morgan the story of a young maidservant seduced and made pregnant by the son of her master. Based on a true and well-documented incident in nineteenth-century Wales, this domestic drama is played out against a wide background of harsh poverty and civil unrest. Tarzanne imaginatively reworks the famous Greystoke story by making the central character a girl raised by chimpanzees but rescued and brought home to the family's mansion in Wales. The struggle to humanize Tarzanne and the attempts of her family and friends to manipulate her future provide for a provocative analysis of human nature in Victorian Britain. In Diego and Frida: A Love Story, a chorus of characters from Mexican myth and folk art comment on the personal and professional relationships of artists Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo. Images from their paintings provide keys to their involvement with both Trotsky and Rockefeller as well as their own tempestuous partnership in a play which pits ideology and aestheticism against realpolitik and the power of money. Mary Morgan ; Tarzanne ; Diego and Frida: [a Love Story] Greg Cullen, 1998 English Drama Since 1940 David Ian Rabey, 2014-10-13 English Drama Since 1940 considers the bids of successive post-war dramatists to find language and images of remorseless disclosure appropriate to the public manifestation of sensed crisis and the interrogation of the ideal of renewal. This book introduces the period and its discourse whilst redefining them to give proper consideration to developments of themes, styles, concerns and contexts from the 80s to the present. The book offers succinct and analytical introductions to the work of 60 dramatists whilst arguing for re-appraisal of many dates, critical perspectives in order to stimulate further argument in the field. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000 The Shakespeare Factory Dic Edwards, 1998 A collection of three new dramas for young people, all commissioned and performed by Spectacle Theatre in 1993 and 1996. The first is an introduction to Shakespeare, the second highlights children's rights to steer their own lives, while the third deals with the issue of bullying. State of Play Hazel Davies, 1998 A study of the work of Greg Cullen, Dic Edwards, Edward Thomas and Charles Way. Staging Wales Anna-Marie Taylor, 1997 A collection of lively and provocative essays by dramatists and other theatrical professionals examining developments in the theatre in Wales during 1979-1997. Hijinx Val Hill, 2006 Featuring three plays produced by the Hijinx Theatre, this collection is both stirring and diverse. Paul Robeson Knew My Father is the story of a young boy growing up in the South Wales Valleys in the 1950s. The son of a single mother, he is an isolated child who becomes obsessed with Paul Robeson, the movie star, and retreats into a fantasy world of spies and fighter pilots while struggling to find out the truth about his father. Dreaming Amelia, inspired by Amelia Earhart's landing in Burry Port in 1928, reveals how the success of one person can inspire others to have the courage to follow their dreams. Spinning the Round Table, a take on the love triangle of Arthurian legend, explores love and betrayal in the corridors of power. Mary
