Mary New Century Theology:

Mary Sarah Jane Boss, 2004-06-12 C G Jung argued that the definition of the doctrine of the Assumption was the most important religious event since the Reformation the feminine principle has been absorbed into the Godhead The author argues that Christian theology should conceive of creation both physical and spiritual as sacred in the highest degree and that this understanding is already implicit in traditions of Marian doctrine and devotion making her a vital theological symbol reclaimed by women as a symbol of true humanity which the church and the modern world urgently needs The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II s call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2006 Having confronted the conflict between feminism and the Vatican and Pope Benedict XVI Beattie proposes a new theological approach to the encounter between feminism and Catholicism for the twenty first century Jacket Theology after Postmodernity Tina Beattie, 2013-10-04 Theology after Postmodernity is a ground breaking study that has the capacity to transform the relationship between psychoanalytic theory and Christian theology Reading the theology of Thomas Aquinas in close engagement with the psychoanalytic theory of Jacques Lacan Tina Beattie shows how Thomism exerted a formative influence on Lacan and she also shows how a Lacanian approach can bring rich new insights to Thomas s theology A growing number of English speaking scholars now recognize the extent to which twentieth century French theorists and philosophers were influenced by medieval theology and there have been several studies of Jacques Lacan s Thomism However this is the first study published in English to bring a Lacanian feminist perspective to bear on the theology of Thomas Aquinas Focusing on the centrality of desire in Thomas s theology and Lacan s psychoanalytic theory Beattie follows Lacan along an overgrown and often hidden path through the changing configurations of desire gender and knowledge from their Aristotelian formation in the medieval universities to their fragmentation in the collapse of modernity s visions and values Beattie offers a penetrating critique of Thomas s Aristotelianism but she also excavates the mystical treasures within his theology This enables her to show how Thomas s God remains an unconscious but potent influence in the shaping of modern western thought and to ask what transformations might be needed in order to bring about a Thomism for our times Probing beneath the surface of Thomas's Summa Theologiae and other writings she brings to light the Other of Thomas's One God an incarnate maternal Trinity who emerges when Thomas's Aristotelian ontotheology is suspended and the more neglected aspects of his doctrinal and theological insights are allowed to emerge Lacan makes possible a renewed Thomism which offers a rich theology of creation incarnation and redemption capable of responding to some of the most urgent and far reaching challenges that questions of gender nature and God pose to Christian theological language in its classical and postmodern formations

Immaculate Misconceptions Amey Victoria Adkins-Jones, 2025-03-16 Immaculate Misconceptions A Black Mariology begins with this claim to challenge how Christian thinking of salvation possibility and identity are challenged when we rethink assumptions about race gender and divine significance through the lens of the Virgin Mary and specifically through a return to the Black Madonna A layered journey is offered through art theology and culture to consider a theology arising from the condition of the Black Mother a theology following the condition of the Black Madonna a theology for the consideration of all those who pursue justice and life at the spiritual intersections of the world questioning the legislative doctrine around our perceptions of Mary as the mother of God and extending conversations forward to consider the what else of life Immaculate Misconceptions considers how Christian collusion with colonialism capitalism and anti Blackness have worked theologically to deny Blackness from the realms of the sacred Through the lens of art and icon the treatise thinks through Black women's reproductive legacies and revisits the figure of the Black Madonna as a necessary return to the womb as hush harbor birth as liturgy and Black life as holy

Mother of the Lamb Matthew J. Milliner, 2022-10-04 Mother of the Lamb tells the remarkable story of a Byzantine image that emerged from the losing side of the Crusades Called the Virgin of the Passion in the East and Our Lady of Perpetual Help in the West the icon has expanded beyond its Byzantine origins to become one of the most pervasive images of our time It boasts multiple major shrines on nearly every continent and is reflected in every epoch of art history since its origin even making an appearance at the Olympics in 2012 Matthew Milliner first chronicles the story of the icon's creation and emergence in the immediate aftermath of the Third Crusade whereupon the icon became a surprising emblem of defeat its own fame expanding in inverse proportion to Christendom's political contraction Originally born as a Christian response to the Christian violence of the Crusades it marked the moment when Mary's ministry of suffering love truly began Having traced the icon's origin and ubiquity Milliner teases out the painting's theological depth and continues the story of the icon's evolution and significance from its origins to the present day As the story of the icon moves well beyond Byzantine art history both temporally and thematically it engages religion politics contemporary art and feminist concerns at once Always though the icon exemplifies dignity in suffering a lesson that through this image Byzantium bequeathed to the wider world Encapsulating eleven centuries of development of the mourning Mary in Byzantium the Virgin of the Passion emerges as a commendable icon of humility a perennial watchword signaling the perils of imagined political glory The Virgin of the Passion emblemizing political humility the powerful agency of women and the value of inter Christian and extra Christian concord is an exemplary Marian image for the fledgling twenty first century

The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics D. Stephen Long, Rebekah L. Miles, 2023-01-01 The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics brings together two different but related disciplines the first is contemplative or theoretical asking what are the beliefs or doctrines that characterize Christianity whilst the second is practical asking what are the ethical practices that attend its teachings The movement between the theoretical and practical aspects is not however one way as doctrine and life are mutually informing In this comprehensive volume leading scholars address key topics problems and debates in this hotly debated topic within a truly global context Comprising over 35 chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into three parts based on the three persons of the Trinity God the Father God the Son and God the Holy Spirit Within these sections cutting edge issues are examined including God and genetics War peace and violence White supremacy Creation and sexuality Digital ethics Transgender studies Climate change Immigration and refugees Adopting a practical approach that must consider new concerns that have arisen with recent social political and cultural shifts The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics is essential reading for students and researchers in Christian ethics religious ethics and Christianity studies The handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as ethics and philosophy

The Fabric of Marian Devotion in Isabel de Villena's Vita Christi Lesley K. Twomey, 2013 Isabel de Villena 1430 1490 is one of the most fascinating women of the Spanish Middle Ages Related to the royal family she became abbess of the Poor Clare convent the Santa Trinitat a convent founded in Valencia by Queen Maria of Castile Sor Isabel was abbess for almost 30 years Her version of the Life of Christ the Vita Christi was the first book by a woman to be printed in the kingdom of Aragon This is the first full length survey in English of Isabel's life and literary works P 4 of cover

Philosophy of Religion for a New Century Jeremiah Hackett, Jerald Wallulis, 2004-04-30 Philosophy of Religion for a New Century represents the work of nineteen scholars presented at a conference in honor of Eugene T Long at the University of South Carolina April 5 6 2002 This volume is a good example of philosophy in dialogue there is both respect and genuine disagreement First an account of our present situation in the Philosophy of Religion is given leading to a discussion of the very idea of a Christian Philosophy and the coherence of the traditional concept of God The implications of science and a concern for the environment in our concepts of God are carefully examined A discussion follows on the possibility of speech about God and silence about God Since much of modern European philosophy is concerned with the Death of God theme the positions of Nietzsche and some of his twentieth century interpreters are presented There are presentations on Feminist Approaches to Philosophy of Religion and Comparative Religion is examined in relation to cultures and the demands of rationality The volume concludes with a critical dialogue on the relation of Religious Discourse to the Public Sphere Developing global awareness has led to significant change in the Philosophy of Religion One dimensional approaches have given way to honest dialogue The traditional boundaries between the secular and the religious have shifted and new approaches to traditional problems are required This volume presents examples of these new approaches A Documentary History of Religion in America Since 1877 Edwin S. Gaustad, Mark A. Noll, 2003-09-19 A richly variegated selection of short documents illustrative of the history of religion in America The best source book available to contemporary students and general readers Women in Christianity in the Modern Age Lisa Isherwood, Megan Clay, 2021-12-30 Women in Christianity in the Modern Age examines the role of women in Christianity in the 20th and early 21st Centuries This edited volume includes eight important contributions from academics in the field The modern era has been an age of social and religious upheaval and the ravages of global warfare and changes to women's role in society have made the examination of the place of women in religion a key question in theology From theological concerns engagements with the biblical texts by feminist and anti feminist theologians the modern role of Mary and women saints to political and social debates on women's ministry and place in society and cultural shifts as expressed through theologically inspired artwork by women Women in Christianity in the Modern Age provides an overview and in depth studies of a tumultuous and changing era This insightful text will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies The Oxford Handbook of Christology Francesca Aran Murphy, 2015-09-24 The Oxford Handbook of Christology brings together 40 authoritative essays considering the theological study of the nature and role of Jesus Christ This collection offers dynamic perspectives within the study of Christology and provides rigorous discussion of interconfessional theology which would not have been possible even 60 years ago The first of the seven parts considers Jesus Christ in the Bible Rather than focusing solely on the New Testament this section begins with discussion of the modes of God's self communication to us and suggests that Christ's most original incarnation is in the language of the Hebrew Bible The second section considers Patristic Christology These essays explore the formation of the doctrines of the person of Christ and the atonement between the First Council of Nicaea in 325 and the eve of the Second Council of Nicaea The next section looks at Mediaeval theology and tackles the development of the understanding of who Christ was and of his atoning work The section on Reformation and Christology traces the path of the Reformation from Luther to Bultmann The fifth section tackles the new developments in thinking about Christ which have emerged in the modern and the postmodern eras and the sixth section explains how beliefs about Jesus have affected music poetry and the arts The final part concludes by locating Christology within systematic theology asking how it relates to Christian belief as a whole This comprehensive volume provides an invaluable resource and reference for scholars students and general readers interested in the study of Christology How Might We Live? Global Ethics in the New Century Ken Booth, Timothy Dunne, Michael Cox, 2001-10-18 This volume looks outward to the new century and to the dynamics of this first truly global age It asks the fundamental question how might human societies live The contributors believe that there is nothing more political than ethics By exploring in the newest context some of the oldest questions about duties and obligations within and beyond humanly constructed boundaries the essays help us ponder the most profound question in world politics today who will the twenty first century be for Nineteenth-Century Religion and Literature Mark Knight, Emma Mason, 2006-11-16 This work introduces key debates movements and ideas relating to the Christian religion and connects these to literary developments from 1750 1914 The authors provide close readings of popular texts and use these to explore complex religious ideas Listening to Edith Stein: Wisdom for a New Century Kathleen Haney, 2018-04-28 A Morally Complex World James T. Bretzke, 2022-04-30 How can people celebrate the gospel of life in their daily lives What about cloning Is euthanasia morally acceptable in certain cases such as terminal illness In case of health reasons mental illness pregnancy due to rape etc is abortion morally acceptable Are you in favor of the use of contraceptives both natural and artificial A Morally Complex World will not answer such complex questions in detail but it does provide a framework for trying to grapple better with the first question of how we should lead our moral lives in general as well as some of the concrete ethical issues the other three questions raise A Morally Complex World is an accessible introduction to moral theology covering the methodology of moral theology basic concepts such as conscience and moral agency natural law moral norms how the Bible can be used in Christian ethics how to dialogue on contested ethical issues how to consider sin and moral failure and finally how to mediate moral principles and moral teaching in a pastorally sensitive manner in concrete life situations Chapters are Mapping a Moral Methodology The Natural Law and Moral Norms Moving Along the Rational Claim Axis Scripture and Ethics Moving Along the Sacred Claim Axis The Sanctuary of Conscience Where the Axes Intersect Modes of Moral Discourse Navigating Towards a Common Ground Navigating in the Morally Complex World Casuistry with a Human Face and Sin and Failure in a Morally Complex World James T Bretzke SJ STD is associate professor of theology and religious studies at the University of San Francisco and an adjunct professor of moral theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley He has written three books including Consecrated Phrases A Latin Theological Dictionary published by Liturgical Press which won an award from the Catholic Press Association He has also authored over fifty articles and scholarly reviews in the areas of Roman Catholic moral theology and cross cultural ethics The New Century Book of Facts Carroll Davidson Wright, 1910 The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore, 2005 Paul Ricoeur's Pedagogy of Pardon Maria Duffy, 2011-11-03 Maria Duffy describes Paul Ricoeur's narrative theory of memory and addresses central conceptual and methodological issues in his theory of forgiveness and reconciliation As the many Truth Commissions around the world illustrate revisiting the past has a positive benefit in steering history in a new direction after protracted violence A second deeper strand in the book is the connection between Ricoeur and John Paul II Both lived through the worst period of modern European history Ricoeur a prisoner of war during WWII and John Paul who suffered under the communist regime Both have written on themes of memory and identity and share a mutual concern for the future of Europe and the preservation of the Christian identity of the Continent as well as the promotion of peace and a civilization of love The book brings together their shared vision culminating in the award to Ricoeur by John Paul II of the Paul VI medal for theology Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Rebecca Styler, 2020-12-14 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion This first volume looks at Traditions offering an overview of the different religious traditions and denominations present in Britain during this period
