Kathleen Anne McManus

Mary Yesterday Today Tomorrow:

Mary Edward Schillebeeckx, 1993 Two distinguished Catholic theologians reflect on how their views about Mary have changed since the 1960s and illustrate this by discussing some of their earlier publications After looking back on Vatican II Fr Schillebeeckx brings out the increasing importance of the Biblical record for his thinking Catharina Halkes explains why despite her allegiance to the feminist movement and her dissatisfaction with many of the emphases associated with Mary she is still unwilling to abandon this figure from her Catholic youth and how in some ways she has grown closer to her again With an extended introduction and bibliography this book has been written for Catholics and non Catholics alike and will prove most helpful to anyone concerned with the role of Mary in the Christian Church of today and tomorrow Back cover Mary : yesterday, today, tomorrow, 1993

Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering, 2014-11-24 In Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering presents a contemporary explanation and defense of the Catholic doctrine of Mary's bodily Assumption He asks How does the Church justify a doctrine that does not have explicit biblical or first century historical evidence to support it With the goal of exploring this question more deeply he divides his discussion into two sections one historical and the other systematic Levering's historical section aims to retrieve the rich Mariological doctrine of the mid twentieth century He introduces the development of Mariology in Catholic Magisterial documents focusing on Pope Pius XII's encyclical Munificentissimus Deus of 1950 in which the bodily Assumption of Mary was dogmatically defined and two later Magisterial documents Vatican II's Lumen Gentium and Pope John Paul II's Redemptoris Mater Levering addresses the work of the neo scholastic theologians Joseph Duhr Alo's Janssens and R ginald Garrigou Lagrange before turning to the great theologians of the nouvelle th ologie Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Joseph Ratzinger and their emphasis on biblical typology Using John Henry Newman as a guide Levering organizes his systematic section by the three pillars of the doctrine on which Mary's Assumption rests biblical typology the Church as authoritative interpreter of divine revelation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the fittingness of Mary's Assumption in relation to the other mysteries of faith Levering's ecumenical contribution is a significant engagement with Protestant biblical scholars and theologians it is also a reclamation of Mariology as a central topic in Catholic theology

Mary for Evangelicals Tim Perry, 2006-10-18 With his feet planted firmly in the evangelical tradition Tim Perry began to think that there must be more to Mary than generally meets the evangelical eye Should we maintain that two thousand years of Christian thought on Mary is almost wholly wrong How could the mother of our Lord simply by virtue of the fact that she was God's chosen means of the incarnation not deserve more serious theological reflection And where might this lead Beginning with Scripture Perry probes the texts and traces the lengthy development of Christian thinking and practice related to Mary Finally he concludes with a constructive and even surprising theological proposal for an evangelical Mariology that is rooted in and demanded by a high Christology This book addresses the increasing evangelical interest in Mary and contributes to the current discussion of Mariology in evangelical Roman Catholic dialogue Sure to be discussed and debated this is a book that will leave readers in a different place from where they began Market Audience Students and professors of theology Pastors Catholic readers Endorsements From the fathers to the feminists Tim Perry surveys the history of Marian traditions and comes to some conclusions that are bound to prod and provoke This is an important study that deserves serious consideration Timothy George dean Beeson Divinity School Samford University and executive editor Christianity Today Features and Benefits Examines what we know of Mary from the New Testament Explores the development of Mariology in the patristic period Surveys Mariology in medieval and Reformation periods and on into the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Offers a constructive theological proposal for an evangelical understanding of Mary rooted in Christology In Quest of the Jewish Mary Mary Christine Athans, 2013 Jesus was born and raised as a Jew in first century Palestine A great deal of theological study has focused on the Jewish cultural and religious context of his life and ministry It is only natural that this attention should lead us to a new approach to his mother Mary of Nazareth In this book Mary Christine Athans draws on historical research the fruits of post Vatican II Jewish Christian dialogue the insights of feminist theology and contemporary spiritual reflection to rediscover the Jewish Mary a woman of enormous courage strength and prayer Hail Mary? Maurice Hamington, 2014-04-23 Hail Mary examines the sexist and misogynist themes that underlie the socially constructed religious imagery of Mary the mother of Jesus Maurice Hamington explores the sources for three prominent Marian images Mary as the the blessed Virgin Mary the Mediatrix and Mary the second Eve Hamington critiques these images for the valorization of sexist forces with the Catholic Church that serve to maintain systems of oppression against women In challenging dominant religious representations of Mary Hamington surveys a variety of emerging reinterpretations of Mary He then provides a framework for further study of non alienating images of Mary T&T Clark Handbook of Edward Schillebeeckx Stephan van Erp, Daniel Minch, 2019-09-05 Written by leading experts on both the thought of Edward Schillebeeckx and modern theology this handbook offers the first comprehensive study of the historical philosophical political and theological aspects of Schillebeeckx s work As one of the most influential Catholic theologians of the twentieth century he played a key role in the preparations for the theological revolution of the Second Vatican Council and the debates of the post conciliar era His engagement with critical theory hermeneutics and biblical scholarship culminated in his groundbreaking Christological trilogy which marked Schillebeeckx as one of the most significant and innovative thinkers of his time By building an overview of recent research into Schillebeeckx s writing the contributors shed new light on his influence and ongoing relevance in contemporary theology Beginning with the roots of Schillebeeckx s views on metaphysics spirituality and faith the essays then move to his work during and after the Second Vatican Council and then to his engagement with new directions in philosophy and his renewal of classical topics such as creation theological and soteriological anthropology and eschatology Culminating with an analysis of theology and culture this handbook thoroughly explores the implications of Schillebeeckx s theology for a contemporary readership

Enter the Story Ferder, Fran ,2014-04-10 In a delightful yet profound reading of the Scriptures Enter the Story opens up the central stories in the Bible and shows how they are alive in us These stories happen over and over again much like a great unfinished symphony in the lives of those of us who look to Scripture for inspiration In this sense the biblical stories are metaphors events that may have occurred long ago among biblical characters but also the same dramas great and small that happen to believers today every day Fran Ferder takes familiar stories from Scripture and shows us what the significant events or feasts in the great Christian story mean and how they continue to unfold in our lives in ways we do not expect These old stories are new stories Unfinished stories They are our stories And when we understand them they can transform our lives

God's Mother, Eve's Advocate Tina Beattie,2002-12-01 Tina Beattie has written a stunning book on the theology of woman Her stated objective is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female the figures of Mary and Eve Beattie has pursued her subject with the aid of French psychoanalytic feminism these writers are preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary Virginal desire according to Beattie need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women s desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality

Mary on the Eve of the Second Vatican Council John C. Cavadini,Danielle M. Peters,2017-05-15 The Blessed Virgin Mary is uniquely associated with Catholicism and the century preceding the Second Vatican Council was arguably the most fertile era for Catholic Marian studies In 1964 Pope John Paul VI published the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church or Lumen Gentium LG the eighth chapter of which presents the most comprehensive magisterial teaching on the Blessed Virgin Mary As part of its Marian Initiative the Institute for Church Life at the University of Notre Dame invited scholars to a conference held at Notre Dame in October 2013 to reflect the rich Marian legacy on the eve of the Second Vatican Council The essays unanimously stress that the Blessed Virgin Mary is not merely a peripheral figure in Christian faith and in the panorama of theology More than fifty years after Lumen Gentium students of theology as well as Marian devotees take their bearings from this document in order to promote the person of Mary and the study of Mariology as well as grow in authentic Marian piety This book will have great appeal to students and scholars of Catholic theology and history particularly those interested in Mariology Contributors Ann W Astell Peter Casarella John C Cavadini Lawrence S Cunningham Brian Daley S J Peter J Fritz Kevin Grove CSC Msgr Michael Heintz Matthew Levering Danielle M Peters James H Phalan CSC Johann G Roten S M Christopher Ruddy Troy Stefano and Thomas A Thompson S M

Hope Lichner Milos, 2021-06-14 In our times hope is called into question The disintegration of economic systems of states and societies families friendships distrust in political structures forces us to ask if hope has disappeared from the experience of today s men and women In August 2019 up to 240 participants met at the international theological congress in Bratislava Slovakia The main lectures congress sections and workshops aimed to provide a space for thinking about the central theme of hope in relation to philosophy politics pedagogy social work charity interreligious dialogue and ecumenism Transformative Power in Motherwork Marie

Porter,2021-02-03 This book explores the experiences of a group of Australian women who became first time mothers between 1950 and 1965 A grounded theory of transformative power in motherwork is presented that has emerged from the analysis of interviews The mothers talked about what they did in their active mothering years The author argues that despite being constrained by the gender bias in the patriarchal context these mothers were agents who developed skills that enabled them to resist or creatively deal with most of the constraints they faced Their emphasis was on their agency and the power to nurture their children into responsible adults Their awareness of the importance of their motherwork acted as a motivator in this development The author further argues that the relationship between each mother and each of her children is a transformative power relationship in which both mother and child are transformed the child into an independent adult and the mother into a skilled self motivated agent through her motherwork Any threat to this process resulted in the mother doing all she could to resist or counteract the constraints she was encountering Transformative power expressed in motherwork can be recognised analytically by several characteristics It empowers both parties in the mother child duality Complexity diversity fluidity and responsiveness to the physical intellectual and emotional aspects of the relationship are all evident in transformative power relationships Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus,2004-01-01 The reality of suffering is the greatest challenge to faith in the goodness of creation and the possibility of salvation Edward Schillebeeckx not only takes this into account but dialectically incorporates the reality of suffering into a theology generally defined by its focus on the interrelated themes of creation salvation and eschatological hope In Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus O P traces the origins of Schillebeeckx s thought its development and its consequences Schillebeeckx grounds his entire theological project in the promise of a divine human future made visible in creation and entrusted to human freedom Because suffering is so tangibly present in human experience it provides the means dialectically of imaging the horizon of our hope It is thus that Schillebeeckx turns suffering into hope
