

An aerial photograph of Maryborough, Australia, showing a winding asphalt road that leads from the foreground into the town. The road is flanked by green grass and trees with autumn-colored foliage. In the background, the town of Maryborough is visible, with its buildings and houses spread across a valley. The sky is filled with dramatic, dark clouds, suggesting an overcast day.

Maryborough, Victoria James Flett, 1975 Local History in Victoria Carole Beaumont, Alice Zydower, 1980 Julius Vogel Raewyn Dalziel, 2013-10-01 Julius Vogel 1835 he was an optimistic visionary Raewyn Dalziel's definitive biography Julius Vogel Business Politician traces both the career and the character of the man Sludge Peter Davies, Susan Lawrence, 2019-08-05 The fascinating troubling legacy of the gold rush Everyone knows gold made Victoria rich But did you know gold mining was disastrous for the land engulfing it in floods of sand gravel and silt that gushed out of the mines Or that this environmental devastation still affects our rivers and floodplains Victorians had a name for this mining waste sludge Sludge submerged Victoria's best grapevines near Bendigo filled Laanecoorie Reservoir on the Loddon River and flowed down from Beechworth over thousands of hectares of rich agricultural land Children and animals drowned in sludge lakes Mining effluent contaminated three quarters of Victoria's creeks and rivers Sludge is the compelling story of the forgotten filth that plagued nineteenth century Victoria It exposes the big dirty secret of Victoria's mining history the way it transformed the state's water and land and how the battle against sludge helped lay the ground for the modern environmental movement Sludge is a fascinating entangled story of human endeavour and environmental destruction An exciting and timely reminder that history is a dirty business precisely because it oozes its way into the present Clare Wright Sludge slurry slickens or porridge call it what you will mining waste made a mess of Victoria's environment In Sludge Susan Lawrence and Peter Davies carefully investigate this murky history of greed mismanagement reform and forgetting It is a gripping account of an environmental catastrophe and it vividly conveys the long term costs of short term gains Billy Griffiths This is the book about the goldfields I most wanted to read but didn't think could be written It's a remarkable achievement Tom Griffiths If Victorians dreamed of glittering gold what they got was a tidal wave of sludge that covered the land like a poisonous blanket and made the rivers run thick as gruel Susan Lawrence and Peter Davies vividly recreate the forgotten landscapes of nineteenth century Victoria revealing how people and mining destroyed the country that nurtured them and how that silent legacy is still with us today Here is a powerful parable a work of brilliant rediscovery and a wakeup call for our own times Grace Karskens The Traveller's Guide to the Goldfields Richard Everist, 2006 This book tells the stories gives background information and presents a detailed guide to the goldfields natural and historic heritage It includes detailed maps superb photography detailed information on all cities towns and villages and a comprehensive coverage of national and state parks Engines of Influence Elizabeth Morrison, 2005 Engines of Influence is a fifty year history of Victoria's country newspapers beginning with James Harrison's Geelong Advertiser in 1840 and ending in December 1890 when 166 papers were being published in 122 country towns This significant book identifies all press sites and newspapers of the era whether long lasting or short lived and highlights the major part played by them in helping construct the machinery of government lay the foundations of party politics and foster a sense of rural Victorian identity The country press was an important agent of political change leading up to events such as the separation of the Port Phillip District from New South Wales in 1851 and the federation of the colony of Victoria with other British dependencies into a single nation at the end of the nineteenth century Engines of Influence shows how country newspapers also exercised cultural authority circulating ideas generated both within local communities and from the wider world Towards the end of the fifty years examined this rural press was becoming a close part of a unified political state linked through the metropolitan press and agencies to a technologically based global communications network Walks, Tracks and Trails of Victoria Derrick Stone, 2009-11-12 For the first time in a single volume this book brings together more than 150 of the best walks tracks or trails in Victoria which can be walked cycled or driven by the moderately fit individual They are located in national and state parks state forests conservation reserves historic parks and local government and public easements Other routes follow state highways old railways and gold routes or pass bushranger haunts and back roads linking towns historical and geological or geographical features Most of the routes chosen do not require specialist navigation or bushcraft skills and vary from a short 45 minutes on a boardwalk to four day long distance walking and camping Walks Tracks and Trails of Victoria covers the best the state has to offer from deserts to coastal and mountain environments It highlights the features of each location and encourages you to enjoy the experience at an informed level Easy to interpret maps are included to help you navigate and the book's size makes it convenient to bring with you on your adventures The Gold Fields of Victoria in 1862 J. A. Patterson, 1862

Victorian History and Politics Joanna Monie, 1982 Indigenous and Minority Placenames Ian D. Clark, Luise Hercus, Laura Kostanski, 2014-08-01 This book showcases current research into Indigenous and minority placenames in Australia and internationally Many of the chapters in this volume originated as papers at a Trends in Toponymy conference hosted by the University of Ballarat in 2007 that featured Australian and international speakers The chapters in this volume provide insight into the quality of toponymic research that is being undertaken in Australia and in countries such as Canada Finland South Africa New Zealand and Norway The research presented here draws on the disciplines of linguistics geography history and anthropology The book includes meticulous studies of placenames in central NSW and the Upper Hunter region Gundungurra cave names western Arnhem Land Northern Cape York Peninsula and Mount Wheeler in Queensland saltwater placenames around Mer in the Torres Strait and the Kurna in South Australia A Global History of Gold Rushes Benjamin Mountford, Stephen Tuffnell, 2018-10-16 Nothing set the world in motion like gold Between the discovery of California placer gold in 1848 and the rush to Alaska fifty years later the search for the precious yellow metal accelerated worldwide circulations of people goods capital and technologies A Global History of Gold Rushes brings together historians of the United States Africa Australasia and the Pacific World to tell the rich story of these nineteenth century gold rushes from a global perspective Gold was central to the growth of capitalism it whetted the appetites of empire builders mobilized the integration of global markets and economies profoundly affected the environment and transformed large scale migration patterns Together these essays tell the story of fifty years that changed the world Victorian Year-book ,1980

And The Son Will Rise Danielle Hircock,2016-01-01 And the son will rise is a true story of courage hope and survival following the experiences of 18 year old Douglas Cumper of the 24th AIF Australian Imperial Forces battalion during the First World War Determined venturesome and strong spirited Doug embarks on a perilous journey to the Western Front Through confronting horrors of the front line with his mates he begins to question the value of life and how a turn of events can quickly tip the balance between life and death With trepidation his family back home in Australia anticipates his return while Doug feels the weight of new challenges as he is forced to leave the past behind becoming responsible for those men under his leadership And the son will rise demonstrates a great truth that mateship is an anchor to the community of soldiers who share the goal of surviving and returning home
