The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley,Olof Johansson,2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower s long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume Creation Myths Marie-Louise von Franz, 2017-05-09 A leading Jungian scholar analyzes common motifs in creation myths from cultures around the world, explaining how they inform the collective unconscious and contribute to our ability to create as human beings. Parabola: Creation myths are the deepest and most important of all myths because they are concerned with both the basic patterns of existence and the ultimate meaning of life. In this book, an eminent Jungian analyst examines the recurring motifs that appear in creation myths from around the world and shows what they teach us about the mysteries of creativity, the cycles of renewal in human life, and the birth of consciousness in the individual psyche. Among the topics discussed are: Why the creative process is often accompanied by anxiety, depression, loneliness, and fear of the unknown; The meaning of creation motifs such as the egg, the seed, the primordial being, the creative fire, the separation of heaven and earth, and the four stages of creation; Creation symbolism in the alchemical opus of medieval tradition; How creation myth motifs appear in the dreams of people who are on the verge of a leap forward in consciousness.

Gender Reversal and Cosmic Chaos S. Tamar Kamionkowski, 2003-06-01 This book is about both the fear of gender reversal and its expression in the prophet Ezekiel's reworking of the marital metaphor. Kamionkowski argues that the abomination of wife Jerusalem is that she is attempting to pass for a male, thereby crossing gender boundaries and upsetting the world order. This story is therefore one of confused gender scripts, ensuing chaos, and a re-ordering through the reinforcement of these strictly defined prescriptions of gendered behaviour. Using socio-historical evidence and the existence of the literary motif of men turning into women as a framework, this book argues that Ezekiel 16 in particular reflects the gender chaos which arises as an aftermath of social and theological crises.

Shadow and Evil in Fairy Tales Marie-Louise von Franz, 2017-06-13 A renowned psychologist examines fairy tales through a Jungian lens revealing what they can teach us about the darkest sides of human behavior Fairy tales seem to be innocent stories yet they contain profound lessons for those who would dive deep into their waters of meaning In this book Marie Louise von Franz uncovers some of the important lessons concealed in tales from around the world drawing on the wealth of her knowledge of folklore her experience as a psychoanalyst and a collaborator with Jung and her great personal wisdom Among the many topics discussed in relation to the dark side of life and human psychology both individual and collective are How different aspects of the shadow all the affects and attitudes that are unconscious to the ego personality are personified in the giants and monsters ghosts and demons evil kings and wicked witches of fairy tales How problems of the shadow manifest differently in men and women What fairy tales say about the kinds of behavior and attitudes that invite evil How Jung's technique of Active imagination can be used to overcome overwhelming negative emotions How ghost stories and superstitions reflect the psychology of grieving What fairy tales advise us about whether to struggle against evil or turn the other cheek Dr von Franz concludes that every rule of behavior that we can learn from the unconscious through fairy tales and dreams is usually a paradox sometimes there must be a physical struggle against evil and sometimes a contest of wits sometimes a display of strength or magic and sometimes a retreat Above all she shows the importance of relying on the central authentic core of our being the innermost Self which is beyond the struggle between the opposites of good and evil
