The Structure and Form of the French

Enlightenment, Volume 1 Ira O. Wade, 2015-03-08 The author describes the influence on the Enlightenment of the intellectual currents that had been active in France particularly the historical and humanistic esprit critique and the scientific esprit modern In the first volume he traces the transformation they brought about in religion ethics aesthetics science politics economics and self knowledge His analysis of works by Voltaire Diderot and Rousseau including the Encyclopedic defines their organic unity and clarifies contradictions that appear to threaten the coherence consistency and logical continuity of the esprit philosophique Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Models of the History of Philosophy Giovanni Santinello, Gregorio Piaia, 2010-12-01 This volume is the translation of Dall et cartesiana a Brucker the second volume of the multi volume work Storia delle storie generali della filosofia It guides the reader from the Cartesian rejection of the philosophical past that found voice in the work of Malebranche to the establishment of a critical history of philosophy by 18th century thinkers A F Boureau Deslandes and J J Brucker The latter pair investigated philosophy from its most ancient origins up to the contemporary age and oversaw the transformation of the history of philosophy into a genre in its own right thus spawning dozens of works that made a major contribution to the culture of the Enlightenment Through careful analysis of more than 36 separate works the authors show how in the span of a single century the theoretical and methodological techniques used to assess the history of philosophy were refined and developed The Structure and

Form of the French Enlightenment, Volume 2 Ira O. Wade, 2015-03-08 The author describes the influence on the Enlightenment of the intellectual currents that had been active in France particularly the historical and humanistic esprit critique and the scientific esprit moderne The second volume probes the writings of Morelly Helvetius Holbach Mably and Condorcet as they reveal the transformation of the esprit philosophique into the esprit revolutionnaire Originally published in 1978 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Discours Préliminaire Ann Thomson, 1981 Chinese and Indian Ways of Thinking in Early Modern European Philosophy Selusi Ambrogio, 2020-11-12 Why were Chinese and Indian ways of thinking

excluded from European philosophy in early modern times This is a study of what happened to the European understanding of China and India between the late 16th century and the first half of the 18th century Investigating the description of these two Asian civilizations during a century and a half of histories of philosophy this book accounts for the change of historiographical paradigms from Neoplatonic philosophia perennis and Spinozistic atheism to German Eclecticism Uncovering the reasons for inserting or excluding Chinese and Indian ways of thinking within the field of Philosophy in early modern times it reveals the origin of the Eurocentric understanding of Philosophy as a Greek European prerogative By highlighting how this narrowing and exclusion of non Western ways of thought was a result of conviction of superiority and religious prejudice this book provides a new way of thinking about the place of Asian traditions among World philosophies

National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases From Stevin to Spinoza Wiep Van Bunge,2001 This book attempts to provide a general interpretation of the history of philosophy in the seventeenth century Dutch Republic It concentrates on the heritage of Humanism and on the rise of Dutch Cartesianism and Spinozism The Episteme of the Gallic Past Lisa Regazzoni,2024-12-02 This book aims to reconceive the field of knowledge of the Gallic past in French discourse of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries by focusing on the monument as an object capable of underpinning insights into that past the evolution of the concept and the epistemic practices used to produce it Through monuments the book redirects our gaze toward the French provinces where material and immaterial evidence of the Gallic past was discovered and transformed into epistemic objects This perspective results in a provincialization of Paris as a site of knowledge production and sheds light on the crucial role of provincial scholarship not only in the invention of the Gallic past but also in methodological and epistemological renewal The result is a revision of recent historiography which interpreted the narrative of an autochthonous pre Roman Gallic past as nation building This volume offers a pioneering contribution toward new directions in historical epistemology focused on the historicity of the species of evidence of each epoch
