Mass Mediauras Samuel Weber, Alan Cholodenko, 1996      Samuel Weber Simon Morgan Wortham, 2018-01-12 Title first published in 2003 Weber is probably the only person in his generation who is equally at home in and directly informed about contemporary literary theory and its antecedents in Germany France and the US His theoretical interest in psychoanalysis serves as a viewpoint from which a powerful combination of philosophical linguistic and political concerns are brought together in an uncommonly productive dialectical interplay Paul de Man This book presents the first introductory text examining the work of the contemporary thinker Samuel Weber Accessible compelling and challenging Weber's writing offers a rewarding investigation into the connections between literary and cultural studies media and technology and philosophy and aesthetics in the context of significant intellectual debates and developments linking Europe and North America The critical practice of Weber's various texts is explored in detail along with his studies in philosophy aesthetics deconstruction media technology psychoanalysis and theatre      Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghaifi, 2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other the relation of Moses to God Derrida's friendship with Jean Luc Nancy Derrida's relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be For Derrida the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity the otherness of the human other but also the otherness of the nonliving the no longer living or the not yet alive Addressing Derrida's readings of Husserl Levinas Barthes Blanchot and Nancy this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing the phenomenality and visibility of the other The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other      Blind Spots Frederic J. Schwartz, 2005-01-01 In four extended case studies the book traces the way in which central concepts of the aesthetics later termed Frankfurt School were deeply rooted in contemporary developments in painting photography architecture and films as well as psychology advertising and the discipline of art history as it was practised by figures such as Heinrich Wölfflin Erwin Panofsky Wilhelm Pinder and Hans Sedlmayr By studying the emergence and importance of the concepts of fashion distraction non simultaneity and mimesis in the work of the critical theorists the book traces the shifting intersection between the history of art and the Frankfurt School and seeks to uncover its specific logic      Adrian Piper John P. Bowles, 2011-02-14 This in depth analysis of Adrian Piper's art locates her groundbreaking work at the nexus of Conceptual and feminist art of the late 1960s and 1970s      Passing Rihan Yeh, 2018 Passing Two Publics in a Mexican Border City is an ethnography of the public sphere in Tijuana based on intensive fieldwork in 2006 and 2007 and numerous subsequent brief visits Its central contribution is to develop an ethnographic method for apprehending how the border marks collective subjectivities in ways that illuminate the basic impasses of publicness in general She examines major communicative genres such as print news street demonstrations internet forums and popular ballads as well as a variety of minor genres family discussions thank you notes at religious shrines police encounters workplace banter and personal interview The question of collective subjectivity that she traces through all these examples is particularly live politically and socially at the border where US legal categories forcefully shape the logics of class exclusion and thus national membership and democratic possibility that are general in Mexico

Museum Making Suzanne Macleod, Laura Hourston Hanks, Jonathan Hale, 2012-03-15 Over recent decades many museums galleries and historic sites around the world have enjoyed an unprecedented level of large scale investment in their capital infrastructure in building refurbishments and new gallery displays This period has also seen the creation of countless new purpose built museums and galleries suggesting a fundamental re evaluation of the processes of designing and shaping of museums

Museum Making Narratives Architectures Exhibitions examines this re making by exploring the inherently spatial character of narrative in the museum and its potential to connect on the deepest levels with human perception and imagination Through this uniting theme the chapters explore the power of narratives as structured experiences unfolding in space and time as well as the use of theatre film and other technologies of storytelling by contemporary museum makers to generate meaningful and it is argued here highly effective and affective museum spaces Contributions by an internationally diverse group of museum and heritage professionals exhibition designers architects and artists with academics from a range of disciplines including museum studies theatre studies architecture design and history cut across traditional boundaries including the historical and the contemporary and together explore the various roles and functions of narrative as a mechanism for the creation of engaging and meaningful interpretive environments

Animation Chris Pallant, 2021-01-01 Animation Critical and Primary Sources is a major multi volume work of reference that brings together seminal writings on animation studies Gathering historical and contemporary texts from a wide ranging number of sources the volumes provide a key resource in understanding and studying the past and future directions of animation studies The four volumes thematically trace animation studies from its many definitions or a lack thereof to the institutional nature of animation production to establishing greater space within animation discourse for the consideration of broadcast and interactive animation and finally giving greater contextual understanding of the field of animation studies by focusing on Authorship Genre Identity Politics and Spectatorship thus enabling readers to engage more deeply with the ideas discussed in the final volume Ordering the collection in this way avoids imposing an overly simplistic chronological framework thereby allowing debates that have developed over years and even decades to stand side by side Each volume is separately introduced and the essays structured into coherent sections on specific themes

After Images Eric Downing, 2006 Explores the intersections of photography archaeology and psychoanalysis and their effect on conceptions of the subject and his formation or Bildung in the literature and theory of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This title examines works from Thomas Mann Sigmund Freud and Walter Benjamin

Theory for Classics Louise Hitchcock, 2008-01-10 This student's guide is a clear and concise handbook to the key connections between Classical Studies and critical theory in the twentieth century Louise Hitchcock looks at the way Classics has been engaged across a number of disciplines Beginning with four foundational figures Freud Marx Nietzsche and Saussure Hitchcock goes on to provide guided introductions of the major theoretical thinkers of the past century from Adorno to Williams Each entry offers biographical theoretical and bibliographical information along with a discussion of each figure's relevance to Classical Studies and suggestions for future research

Theory for Classics adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal is a brisk thoughtful provocative and engaging title which will be an essential first volume for anyone interested in the intersection between theory and classical studies today      Cultural Histories of Sociabilities, Spaces and Mobilities Colin Divall, 2015-10-06 For the majority of us the opportunity to travel has never been greater yet differences in mobility highlight inequalities that have wider social implications Exploring how and why attitudes towards movement have evolved across generations the case studies in this essay collection range from medieval to modern times and cover several continents      Theory for Art History Jae Emerling, 2013-09-13 Theory for Art History provides clear and concise introductions to thirty key figures of contemporary theory four essential predecessors Freud Marx Nietzsche and Saussure and twenty six major moderns from Adorno to Spivak This book includes key concepts biography survey of work bibliography of primary texts and a bibliography of secondary criticism Adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal      Between Stillness and Motion Eivind Røssaak, 2011 Since the development of film as an artistic medium in the 1890s there has been an inherent tension between still photographic images and moving cinematic images from their form and function to the messages they convey and their impact on the beholder and on culture at large This volume one of the first book length works to analyze critique and further the international debate about the meaning and use of motion and stillness in film and photography takes these concepts out of the theoretical arena of cinematic studies and applies them to the wider and ever changing landscape of images and media With contributions from such acclaimed international scholars as Tom Gunning Thomas Elsaesser Mark B N Hansen George Baker Ina Blom and Christa Bluminger these collected essays examine the strategic uses of stillness and motion in art from the mid nineteenth century to the technologically driven present      Walter Benjamin and the Corpus of Autobiography Gerhard Richter, 2000 Walter Benjamin and the Corpus of Autobiography is not merely the most extensive and insightful treatment of Benjamin's autobiographical writings      In the Place of Origins Rosalind C. Morris, 2000 A sophisticated wide ranging theoretical account of how spirit mediums mediate the Thai experience of capitalist modernity      Judging the Image Alison Young, 2005 This book extends the cultural turn in legal and criminological studies by interrogating our responses to the image It provides a space to think through problems of ethics social authority and the legal imagination      Things: Dick Houtman, Birgit Meyer, 2012-09-12 The relation between religion and things has long been conceived in antagonistic terms privileging spirit above matter belief above ritual and objects meaning above form and inward contemplation above outward action This book addresses these issues      Anamorphosis in Early Modern Literature Jen E. Boyle, 2017-03-02 Anamorphosis in Early Modern Literature explores the prevalence of anamorphic perspective in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in England Jen Boyle investigates how anamorphic media flourished in early modern England as an interactive technology and mode of affect in public interactive art city and garden design and as a theory and figure in literature political theory and natural and experimental philosophy Anamorphic mediation Boyle brings to light provided Milton Margaret Cavendish and Daniel Defoe among others with a powerful techno imaginary for traversing through projective virtual experience Drawing on extensive archival research related to the genre of practical perspective in early modern Europe Boyle offers a scholarly consideration of anamorphic perspective its technical means performances and embodied practices as an interactive aesthetics and cultural imaginary Ultimately Boyle demonstrates how perspective media inflected a diverse set of knowledges and performances related to embodiment affect and collective consciousness      The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2013-04-25 What does it mean for a cinematic work to be Chinese Does it refer specifically to a work's subject or does it also reflect considerations of language ethnicity nationality ideology or political orientation Such questions make any single approach to a vast field like Chinese cinema difficult at best Accordingly The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas situates the term more broadly among various different phases genres and distinct national configurations while taking care to address the consequences of grouping together so many disparate histories under a single banner Offering both a platform for cross disciplinary dialogue and a mapping of Chinese cinema as an expanded field this Handbook presents thirty three essays by leading researchers and scholars intent on yielding new insights and new analyses using three different methodologies Chapters in Part I investigate the historical periodizations of the field through changing notions of national and political identity all the way from the industry's beginnings in the 1920s up to its current forms in contemporary Hong Kong Taiwan and the global diaspora Chapters in Part II feature studies centered on the field's taxonomical formalities including such topics as the role of the Chinese opera in technological innovation the political logic of the Maoist film and the psychoanalytic formula of the kung fu action film Finally in Part III focus is given to the structural elements that comprise a work's production distribution and reception to reveal the broader cinematic apparatuses within which these works are positioned Taken together the multipronged approach supports a wider platform beyond the geopolitical and linguistic limitations in existing scholarship Expertly edited to illustrate a representative set of up to date topics and approaches The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas provides a vital addition to a burgeoning field still in its formative stages      Navigating Technomedia Sam Han, 2008 This is an introductory survey of what the author calls the technomedia the generation of communication technologies after television cell phones and the first wave of the Internet Beginning with a history of media the book explores the nature and effects of technomedia like the blogosphere Blackberries and related technologies Because they are transforming the relations of their users to the social environment the topic is fast becoming an important focus of modern social theory
