Master Of Petersburg:

The Master of Petersburg J. M. Coetzee, 2017-06-06 J M Coetzee's latest novel The Schooldays of Jesus is now available from Viking Late Essays 2006 2016 will be available January 2018 In the fall of 1869 Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky lately a resident of Germany is summoned back to St Petersburg by the sudden death of his stepson Pavel Half crazed with grief stricken by epileptic seizures and erotically obsessed with his stepson's landlady Dostoevsky is nevertheless intent on unraveling the enigma of Pavel's life Was the boy a suicide or a murder victim Did he love his stepfather or despise him Was he a disciple of the revolutionary Nechaev who even now is somewhere in St Petersburg pursuing a dream of apocalyptic violence As he follows his stepson's ghost and becomes enmeshed in the same demonic conspiracies that claimed the boy Dostoevsky emerges as a figure of unfathomable contradictions naive and calculating compassionate and cruel pious and unspeakably perverse The Master of Petersburg J. M. Coetzee, 1994-01-01 The Master of Petersburg, 1998

Dostoevsky's Political Thought Richard Avramenko, Lee Trepanier, 2013-05-23 Recognized as one of the greatest novelists of all time Fyodor Dostoevsky continues to inspire and instigate questions about religion philosophy and literature However there has been a neglect looking at his political thought its philosophical and religious foundations its role in nineteenth century Europe and its relevance for us today Dostoevsky's Political Thought explores Dostoevsky's political thought in his fictional and nonfictional works with contributions from scholars of political science philosophy history and Russian Studies From a variety of perspectives these scholars contribute to a greater understanding of Dostoevsky not only as a political thinker but also as a writer philosopher and religious thinker Retelling Dostoevsky Gary Adelman, 2001 It identifies motives particular to each novelist for his creative reuse of Dostoevsky and explores theoretic approaches to the problem of influence through Mikhail Bakhtin and Harold Bloom Jacket Revolution and Non-Violence in Tolstoy, Gandhi, and Mandela Imraan Coovadia, 2020-07-21 The dangers of political violence and the possibilities of non violence were the central themes of three lives which changed the twentieth century Leo Tolstoy writer and aristocrat who turned against his class Mohandas Gandhi who corresponded with Tolstoy and considered him the most important person of the time and Nelson Mandela prisoner and statesman who read War and Peace on Robben Island and who despite having led a campaign of sabotage saw himself as a successor to Gandhi Tolstoy Gandhi and Mandela tried to create transformed societies to replace the dying forms of colony and empire They found the inequalities of Russia India and South Africa intolerable yet they questioned the wisdom of seizing the power of the state creating new kinds of political organisation and imagination to replace the old promises of revolution Their views along with their ways of leading others are closely connected from their insistence on working with their own hands and reforming their individual selves to their acceptance of death On three continents in a century of mass mobilization and conflict they promoted strains of nationalism devoid of antagonism prepared to take part in a general peace Looking at Tolstoy Gandhi and Mandela in sequence taking into account their letters and conversations as well as the institutions they created or subverted placing at the centre their treatment of the primal fantasy of political violence this volume reveals a vital radical tradition which stands outside the conventional categories of twentieth century history and politics Acts of Visitation María J. López, María Jesús López Sánchez-Vizcaíno, 2011 Preliminary Material Critical Appropriations and Hermeneutic Resistance Penetration Dusklands and In the Heart of the Country Resistance Waiting for the Barbarians Parasitism Life and Times of Michael K and Age of Iron Visitation Disgrace Secrecy Foe Un belonging Boyhood Youth and Summertime Intrusion The Master of Petersburg and Slow Man Fidelities Elizabeth Costello and Diary of a Bad Year Works Cited Index Narratives of Disability and Illness in the Fiction of J. M. Coetzee Pawel Wojtas, 2024-03-31 This study offers a detailed analysis of the fiction of J M Coetzee including the novels of the South African and Australian periods to demonstrate the development of Coetzee's engagement with the complexities of non normative embodiment In this illuminating monograph Pawel Wojtas demonstrates the extent to which Coetzee's multifaceted depictions of disability offer a sustained critique of the ableist implications of political violence and neoliberal inclusionism alike Exploring a wide range of notions such as ocular normativism mute speech eco disability disability Gothic dismodernism autogerontography and bibliotherapy Wojtas shows how Coetzee's disabled textuality provokes a sustained meditation on various forms of cultural denigration of disability experience The Cambridge Introduction to J. M. Coetzee Dominic Head, 2009-03-26 The South African novelist and Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee is widely studied around the world and attracts considerable critical attention With the publication of Disgrace Coetzee began to enjoy popular as well as critical acclaim but his work can be as challenging as it is impressive This book is addressed to students and readers of Coetzee it is an up to date survey of the writer's fiction and context written accessibly for those new to his work All of the fiction is discussed and the brooding presence of the political situation in South Africa during the first part of his career is given serious attention in a comprehensive account of the author's main influences The revealing strand of confessional writing in the latter half of Coetzee's career is given full consideration This Introduction will help new readers understand and appreciate one of the most important and challenging authors in contemporary literature Père-versions of the Truth Sławomir Masłoń, 2007 J. M. Coetzee and the Power of Narrative , South African Literature's Russian Soul Jeanne-Marie Jackson, 2015-10-22 How do great moments in literary traditions arise from times of intense social and political upheaval South African Literature's Russian Soul charts the interplay of narrative innovation and political isolation in two of the world's most renowned non European literatures In this book Jeanne Marie Jackson demonstrates how Russian writing's Golden Age in the troubled nineteenth century has served as a model for South African writers both during and after apartheid Exploring these two isolated literary cultures alongside each other the book challenges the limits of global methodologies in contemporary literary studies and outdated models of center periphery relations to argue for a more locally involved scale of literary enquiry with more truly global horizons J. M. Coetzee and the Life of Writing David

Attwell,2015-09-29 An insightful literary biography of the Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee s illuminating the creation of his extraordinary novels J M Coetzee is one of the most renowned yet elusive authors of our time Now in J M Coetzee and the Life of Writing David Attwell explores the extraordinary creative process behind Coetzee s work from Dusklands to The Childhood of Jesus Drawing on Coetzee s manuscripts notebooks and research papers housed at the Harry Ransom Center at the University of Texas at Austin Attwell reveals the fascinating ways in which Coetzee s famous novels developed sometimes through more than fifteen drafts He convincingly shows that Coetzee s work is strongly autobiographical and that his writing proceeds with never ending self reflection while it moves toward aesthetic detachment Above all Attwell argues South Africa with its history language landscape and conflicts is much more present in his novels than we have realized Having worked closely with Coetzee on Doubling the Point a collection of essays and interviews Attwell is an engaging authoritative source J M Coetzee and The Life of Writing is the first book length study to make use of Coetzee s extensive archive A fresh engaging and moving take on one of the world s foremost literary figures it is bound to change the way Coetzee is read J. M. Coetzee Anthony Uhlmann,2020-01-23 J M Coetzee Truth Meaning Fiction illuminates the intellectual and philosophical interests that drive Coetzee s writing In doing so it makes the case for Coetzee as an important and original thinker in his own right Whilst looking at Coetzee s writing career from his dissertation through to The Schooldays of Jesus 2016 and interpreting running themes and scenarios style and evolving attitudes to literary form Anthony Uhlmann also offers revealing glimpses informed by archival research of Coetzee s writing process Among the main themes that Uhlmann sees in Coetzee s writing and which remains highly relevant today is the awareness that there is truth in fiction or that fiction can provide valuable insights into real world problems and that there are also fictions of the truth that we are surrounded in our everyday lives by stories we wish to believe are true J M Coetzee Truth Meaning Fiction offers a revealing new account of one of arguably our most important contemporary writers J. M. Coetzee Dominic Head,1997 The importance of J M Coetzee in the development of twentieth century fiction is widely recognised His work addresses some of the key issues of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries the relationship between postmodernism and postcolonialism the role of history in the novel and the question of how the author can combine an ethical and political consciousness with a commitment to the novel as a work of fiction In this study written in 1998 Dominic Head assesses Coetzee s position as a white South African writer engaged with the legacy of colonialism Through close readings of all the novels Head shows how Coetzee inhabits a transitional site between Europe and Africa and it is from this position that his more general concerns emerge Coetzee s engagement with the problems facing the postcolonial writer Head argues is always enriched by his awareness of a wider literary tradition J.M. Coetzee and the Novel Patrick Hayes,2010-08-12 This book argues that the significance of Coetzee s complex and finely nuanced fiction lies in the acuity with which it both explores and develops the tradition of the novel ranging from Cervantes Defoe and Richardson to Dostoevsky Kafka and Beckett as part of a sustained attempt to rethink the relationship between writing and politics Cultural Ways of Worldmaking Vera Nünning, Ansgar Nünning, Birgit Neumann, 2010-06-29 Taking as its point of departure Nelson Goodman's theory of symbol systems as delineated in his seminal book Ways of Worldmaking this volume gauges the possibilities and perspectives offered by the worldmaking approach as a model for the study of culture Its main objectives are to explore the usefulness and scope of the approach for the study of culture and to supplement Goodman's philosophy of worldmaking with a number of complementary disciplinary perspectives literary and cultural approaches and new questions and applications It focuses on three key issues or concepts which illuminate ways of worldmaking and their interdisciplinary relevance and ramifications viz 1 theoretical approaches to ways of worldmaking 2 the impact of media on ways of worldmaking and 3 narratives as ways of worldmaking The volume serves to demonstrate how specific media and narratives affect the worlds that are created and shows how these worlds are established as socially relevant It also illustrates the extent to which ways of worldmaking are imbued with cultural values and thus inevitably implicated in power relations (Re)Visions of History in Language and Fiction

Dorota Guttfield, Monika Linke, Agnieszka Sowińska, 2013-02-21 In imagining history one must inevitably rely on its textual representations whether fictitious or supposedly objective yet always subject to the constraints and conventions of textuality Still it is precisely by exploiting and consciously relying on the textual in the presentation of the past that contemporary authors including politicians and makers of history strive to provide it with current significance emotional impact and universal meaning The study of such attempts benefits from a variety of perspectives encompassing not only classical but also popular texts and media An interdisciplinary collection of papers devoted to the issues of retelling rewriting and representation of the past in fiction and various text types this volume juxtaposes modern and post modern understanding of collective versus personal history The contributors are scholars specializing in literary studies e g postcolonialism and popular fiction linguistics e g critical discourse analysis and cultural studies e g media studies bringing a wide spectrum of theoretical insights into the field The collection opens with papers on the general changes in viewing history that have occurred since the 19th century Further papers discuss postcolonial feminist and gender related perspectives on history reflected in postmodern fiction revealing the power struggle around the depiction of the past The next part of the volume is devoted to the presentation of historical breakthroughs in political and media discourse Finally the collection draws attention to some unorthodox visions of history involving alternative worlds and fantastic elements encountered in the genre of speculative fiction Writing Out of All the Camps Laura Wright, 2013-11-15 Writing Out of all the Camps J M Coetzee's

Narratives of Displacement is an interdisciplinary examination combining ethical postcolonial performance gender based and environmental theory of the ways that 2003 Nobel Prize winning South African novelist J M Coetzee primarily through his voicing of a female subject position and his presentation of a voiceless subjectivity the animal displaces both the narrative and authorial voice in his works of fiction Coetzee's work remains outside of conventional notions of genre by virtue of the free indirect discourse that characterizes many of his third person narrated texts that feature male protagonists Life Times of Michael K The Master of Petersburg and Disgrace various and differing first person narrative accounts of the same story Dusklands In the Heart of the Country the use of female narrators and female narrative personas Age of Iron The Lives of Animals and unlocatable ahistorical contexts Waiting for the Barbarians The work has broad academic appeal in the established fields of not only literary studies postcolonial contemporary postmodern and environmental but also in the realm of performance and gender studies Because of its broad and interdisciplinary range this text bridges a conspicuous gap in studies on Coetzee

Between Illusionism and Anti-Illusionism Marek Pawlicki, 2014-07-03 Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism Self Reflexivity in the Chosen Novels of J M Coetzee takes as its premise J M Coetzee's distinction between illusionism and anti illusionism the realist and the self reflexive traditions in prose fiction The aim of this critical study is to demonstrate that these two traditions are not opposed but rather complementary to each other and enrich the novel as a genre Based on Marek Pawlicki's doctoral thesis the book is a detailed analysis of Coetzee's oeuvre paying particular attention to the impact of the writer's literary essays on his fiction Insofar as it looks into the ways in which Coetzee's work as a critic has affected his novels this book deals with the relation between fiction and literary criticism Chapter One is an introduction into the topic of self reflexivity Chapters Two to Five devoted to Dusklands In the Heart of the Country Age of Iron and Summertime are concerned with the issue of subjectivity in confessional discourse and the boundary between fiction and autobiography Chapters Six to Eight concentrating on Foe Slow Man The Master of Petersburg and Elizabeth Costello offer insight into Coetzee's views on literary creation and the role of the writer in society Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism also examines intertextual references in Coetzee's novels to the works of Tolstoy Dostoevsky Kafka and Beckett
