Master Humphreys Clock:

Master Humphrey's Clock Charles Dickens, 2017-11-17 Master Humphrey's Clock was a weekly periodical edited and written entirely by Charles Dickens and published from 4 April 1840 to 4 December 1841. It began with a frame story in which Master Humphrey tells about himself and his small circle of friends which includes Mr Pickwick and their penchant for telling stories. Several short stories were included followed by the novels The Old Curiosity Shop and Barnaby Rudge. It is generally thought that Dickens originally intended The Old Curiosity Shop as a short story like the others that had appeared in Master Humphrey's Clock but after a few chapters decided to extend it into a novel. Master Humphrey appears as the first person narrator in the first three chapters of The Old Curiosity Shop but then disappears stating "And now that I have carried this history so far in my own character and introduced these personages to the reader I shall for the convenience of the narrative detach myself from its further course and leave those who have prominent and necessary parts in it to speak and act for themselves."

It has a historical context with research of the time. Master Humphrey's Clock by Charles Dickens. It was a weekly magazine edited and written entirely by Charles Dickens that was published from April 4, 1840 to December 4, 1841. It began with a framed narration in which Master Humphrey tells us about himself and his small circle of friends including Mr Pickwick and also reveals his fondness for storytelling. Several short stories were published in this magazine as well as the novels The Antique Shop and Barnaby Rudge. Dickens is originally believed to have intended the first one to be a short story like the others that had appeared in Master Humphrey's Watch but after publishing a few chapters and in the face of declining magazine sales he decided to extend it to novel. Master Humphrey appears as a first person narrator during the first three chapters of The Antique Shop but then it disappears after alleging "And now that in this story I have gone so far with my own figure and presented these characters to the reader for the convenience of the narrative I will detach myself from their future plots and I will leave those who have prominent roles and necessary in them speak and act for themselves."

Charles Dickens,2017-10-16 Excerpt from Master Humphrey s Clock Vol 1 When the author commenced this Work he proposed to himself three objects First To establish a periodical which should enable him to present under one general head and not as separate and distinct publications certain fictions which he had it in contemplation to write Secondly To produce these Tales in weekly numbers hoping that to shorten the intervals of communication between himself and his readers would be to knit more closely the pleasant relations they had held for Forty Months Thirdly In the execution of this weekly task to have as much regard as its exigencies would permit to each story as a whole and to the possibility of its publication at some distant day apart from the machinery in which it had its origin The characters of Master Humphrey and his three friends and
