The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning, 2009-02-12 The complex philosophical theology of Paul Tillich 1886 1965 increasingly studied today was influenced by thinkers as diverse as the Romantics and Existentialists Hegel and Heidegger A Lutheran pastor who served as a military chaplain in World War I he was dismissed from his university post at Frankfurt when the Nazis came to power in 1933 and emigrated to the United States where he continued his distinguished career This authoritative Companion provides accessible accounts of the major themes of Tillich's diverse theological writings and draws upon the very best of contemporary Tillich scholarship Each chapter introduces and evaluates its topic and includes suggestions for further reading The authors assess Tillich's place in the history of twentieth century Christian thought as well as his significance for current constructive theology Of interest to both students and researchers this Companion reaffirms

Tillich as a major figure in today's theological landscape 2005, 052185440X Conversations with Barth on Preaching Bishop William H. Willimon, 2010-09-01 One of today's greatest preacher theologians engages one of the twentieth century's greatest teacher theologians on the meaning of preaching Readers of William H Willimon's many books have long found there the influence of Karl Barth probably the most significant theologian of the twentieth century In this new book Willimon explores that relationship explicitly by engaging Barth's work on the pitfalls and problems glories and grandeur of preaching the Word of God The Swiss theologian says the author expressed one of the highest theologies of preaching of any of the great theologians of the church Yet too much of Barth's understanding of preaching lies buried in the Church

Dogmatics and other sometimes obscure sources Willimon brings this material to light introducing the reader to Barth's thought not just on the meaning but the practice of preaching as well The Lost Discipline of Conversation Joanne J. Jung, 2018-06-12 Recovering Spiritual Practices of the Past titles reach beyond commonly known spiritual formation practices in order to mine the wisdom of the past bringing to light ways of thinking living and growing in Christ that the church today has largely overlooked In The Lost Discipline of Conversation spiritual formation professor and author Joanne Jung walks readers through the Puritan practice of conference or focused spiritual conversations intended to promote ongoing transformation An antidote to privatized faith conference calls believers to biblical literacy and soul care in a context of transparency and accountability Useful for believers in any sphere or ministry or stage in life conference is ultimately a tool for nurturing mutual godly authenticity within community John Webster Jordan Senner, 2021-12-16 Jordan Senner captures the systematic shape logic and development of his thought from the vantage point of the God creature relation Webster's development is depicted in terms of three phases Christocentric Trinitarian and Theocentric culminating in a conceptual analysis of three key aspects of his mature theology his doctrine of divine perfection theory of mixed relations and concept of dual causality Senner illustrates this heuristic framework for interpreting Webster's theology through an exploration of different aspects of his account of the God creature relation Christology hypostatic relation ecclesiology redemptive relation bibliology communicative relation and theological theology rational relation This volume not only provides a dynamic introduction to Webster's theology as a whole but it also includes fascinating forays into the complexities of Webster's engagement with Barth and Aquinas raising interesting questions for constructive theological dialogue that is neither straightforwardly Protestant nor Catholic
