Domestic violence as defined by the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence is the willful intimidation, physical assault, battery, sexual assault, or other abusive behavior that is used to overpower and control another person. Domestic violence takes on many forms, both visible and hidden. And according to studies, it affects one person every twenty seconds. Domestic violence is not a new problem in America, but one that has sadly existed for decades. And while the majority of victims are female, domestic violence knows no income bracket, demographic, age, race, or religion. Domestic violence occurs in every facet of society. Despite the many groups working to help victims of domestic abuse, the problems persist. Domestic violence is more commonly seen in situations where someone the abuser believes that behaviors such as physical, verbal, emotional, religious, sexual, or economical abuse is acceptable and justifiable. Adding to the perceived justification of abuse is the victim's inability to see the denigrating acts as abuse. Then, when they do identify the problem, they feel trapped by their circumstances, be it due to fear, lack of funds, poor physical, or various psychological issues, and are unable to leave the situation. More disturbing than the obvious problems of domestic abuse is that there have been connections made between domestic violence, specifically sexual abuse in children, and satanic influences. This type of abuse is referred to as satanic ritual abuse (SRA). The abuses suffered due to satanic influences are often more severe forms of physical and sexual abuse, especially in the form of child pornography, prostitution, and being used for snuff films. These abuse victims are often so brainwashed that they don't dare speak out. And while there are those who would like to ignore the connections between abuse and satanic forces, the fact remains that abuse is not something promoted in scripture. The believer is told to care for the helpless and to lift up the fallen, not knock them down and beat them up. In homes where children are abused, they often grow up to become adults who struggle with relationships, authority figures, and problem solving. Worse, abused children often become adult abusers, thus perpetuating the problem. Studies have also found that children who see their mother abused are more likely to develop PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder). Also interesting is that there is now a correlation between childhood domestic violence and adult health conditions like arthritis, ischemic heart disease, IHD, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, COPD, liver disease, irritable bowel syndrome, chronic pain, pelvic pain, ulcers, and migraines. Psychological challenges include depression, severe anxiety, panic attacks, and a feeling of worthlessness. As you read Ivy's story, you will discover that she could easily be the poster child for domestic violence. She spent fifteen years living in a situation where mental, physical, emotional, and sexual abuse was part of her daily life. She then entered a marriage that ultimately, albeit differently, was more of the same. But Ivy's story does not end as it began. She heard about a Savior who loved her.

unconditionally And while initially Ivy did not understand her Saviors love in time she learned the meaning of real love and acceptance As you read her story you will see how she looked and worked to eventually overcome the challenges brought on by domestic abuse If you have been abused or know someone who is or has been in an abusive situation then Ivys story can help It will provide hope and help as you see that while domestic abuse is horrific there is One who can overcome the hold abuse has on a persons life Dont let abuse keep you or a loved one from enjoying life Take the step now to begin the first day of the rest of your life Metadata Surviving domestic violence does not come easy Shielded by Gods Power reminds us that domestic violence can be overcome by real love The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 NASA Authorization for Fiscal Year 1982 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation. Subcommittee on Science, Technology, and Space,1981 Creating the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Robert W.

Doubek,2015-07-02 Since its dedication in 1982 the Vietnam Veterans Memorial has become an American cultural icon symbolizing the war in Vietnam the defining experience of the Baby Boom generation The black granite wall of names is one of the most familiar media images associated with the war and after three decades the memorial remains one of the nation s most visited monuments While the memorial has enjoyed broad acceptance by the American public its origins were both humble and contentious A grassroots effort launched by veterans with no funds the project was completed in three and a half years But an emotional debate about aesthetics and the interpretation of heroism patriotism and history nearly doomed the project Written from an insider s perspective this book tells the complete story of the memorial s creation amid Washington politics a nationwide design competition and the heated controversy over the winning design and its creator Counting on Everyone ,1984 Congressional Record Index ,1970 Includes history of bills and resolutions
