Shakespeare Studies in Colonial Bengal Hema Dahiya, 2014-07-03 Shakespeare Studies in Colonial Bengal The Early Phase represents an important direction in the area of historical research on the role of English education in India particularly with regards to Shakespeare studies at the Hindu College the first native college of European education in Calcutta the capital city of British India during the nineteenth century Focusing on the developments that led to the introduction of English education in India Dr Dahiya's book highlights the pioneering role that the eminent Shakespeare teachers at Hindu College namely Henry Derozio D L Richardson and H M Percival played in accelerating the movement of the Bengal Renaissance Drawing on available information about colonial Bengal the book exposes both the angular interpretations of Shakespeare by fanatical scholars on both sides of the cultural divide and the serious limitations of the present day reductive theory of postcolonialism emphasizing how in both cases such interpretations led to distorted readings of Shakespeare Offering a comprehensive account of how English education in India came to be introduced in an atmosphere
