AN INTRODUCTION TO WOMEN'S STUDIES

Reading Womens Lives Second Edition

Janet Giltrow

Reading Womens Lives Second Edition:

Helpmates, Harlots, and Heroes, Second Edition Alice Ogden Bellis, 2007-07-03 This best selling book now revised and updated shares the work of many feminist biblical scholars who have examined women's stories for several years. These stories are powerful accounts of women in the Old Testament stories that have profoundly affected how women understand themselves as well as men's perception of them. Here Alice Bellis shares the research of feminist biblical scholarship during a quarter of a century which renders a vast amount of refreshing exciting sometimes disturbing material Academic Reading - Second Edition Janet Giltrow, 2002-03-21 This reader has been designed to accompany Giltrow's Academic Writing one of the key principles of which is that there is a close connection between the processes of reading and of writing academic prose. Each reading is preceded by introductory commentary questions and suggestions for discussion and the book also includes a brief general introduction. As with Giltrow's Academic Writing her Academic Reading is a challenging text. At its core are examples of actual academic writing of the sort that students must learn to deal with daily and to write themselves. As newcomers to the scholarly community students can find that community's ways of reading and writing mysterious unpredictable and intimidating. Academic Reading demystifies the scholarly genres shedding light on their discursive conventions. Throughout Academic Reading respects the student writer it engages the reader's interest without ever condescending and it avoids entirely the arbitrary and the dogmatic. The second edition is expanded to include twenty one selections nineteen of which come from scholarly publications and more than half of which are new to this edition.

Reading Canadian Women's and Gender History Nancy Janovicek, Carmen Nielson, 2019-05-06 Inspired by the question of what's next in the field of Canadian women's and gender history this broadly historiographical volume represents a conversation among established and emerging scholars who share a commitment to understanding the past from intersectional feminist perspectives. It includes original essays on Quebecois Indigenous Black and immigrant women's histories and tackles such diverse topics as colonialism religion labour warfare sexuality and reproductive labour and justice. Intended as a regenerative retrospective of a critically important field this collection both engages analytically with the current state of women's and gender historiography in Canada and draws on its rich past to generate new knowledge and areas for inquiry Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010-07-02 With the memoir boom life storytelling has become ubiquitous and emerged as a distinct field of study Reading Autobiography originally published in 2001 was the first comprehensive critical introduction to life writing in all its forms. Widely adopted for undergraduate and graduate level courses it is an essential guide for students and scholars reading and interpreting autobiographical texts and methods across the humanities social sciences and visual and performing arts. Thoroughly updated the second edition of Reading Autobiography is the most complete assessment of life narrative in its myriad forms. It lays out a sophisticated theoretical approach to life writing and the components of autobiographical acts including memory experience identity embodiment space and agency Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson explore these components review the history of life writing and the foundations of autobiographical subjectivity and provide a toolkit for working with twenty three key concepts Their survey of innovative forms of life writing such as autographics and installation self portraiture charts recent shifts in autobiographical practice Especially useful for courses are the appendices a glossary covering dozens of distinct genres of life writing proposals for group and classroom projects and an extensive bibliography

Staging Women's Lives in Academia Michelle A. Massé, Nan Bauer-Maglin, 2017-01-12 Staging Women's Lives in Academia demonstrates how ostensibly personal decisions are shaped by institutions and advocates for ways that workplaces not women must be changed Addressing life stages ranging from graduate school through retirement these essays represent a gamut of institutions and women who draw upon both personal experience and scholarly expertise The contributors contemplate the slipperiness of the very categories we construct to explain the stages of life and ask key questions such as what does it mean to be a graduate student at fifty Or a full professor at thirty five The book explores the ways women in all stages of academia feel that they are always too young or too old too attentive to work or too overly focused on family By including the voices of those who leave as well as those who stay this collection signals the need to rebuild the house of academia so that women can have not only classrooms of their own but also lives of their own

Reading the Bible outside the Church David G. Ford, 2018-07-12 In many places in the Western world churchgoing is in decline and it cannot be assumed that people have a good grasp of the Bible's content In this evolving situation how would the person on the street read the Bible Reading the Bible Outside the Church begins to answer this question David Ford spent ten months at a chemical industrial plant providing non churchgoing men with the opportunity to read and respond to five different biblical texts Using an in depth qualitative methodology he charts how their prior experiences of religion sense of non religious identity attitudes towards the Bible and beliefs about the Bible all shaped the readings that occurred

Cloth as Metaphor: (Re)Reading the Adinkra Cloth G. F. Kojo Arthur, 2017-11-30 Adinkra symbols visually integrate striking aesthetic power evocative language mathematical structures and philosophical concepts The book views the Adinkra cloth symbols as a writing system It develops themes from the texts encoded in the proverbs stories and maxims associated with the symbols The themes covered include Akan cosmology social and political organization social and ethical values economics and Akan knowledge systems Perhaps the most modern and certainly one of the most comprehensive works on Adinkra Oluwatoyin Adepoju

On Reading Prophetic Texts Dijkstra, Bob Prof. Dr. Becking, 2021-09-06 The articles in this volume have been written in memory of the feminist biblical scholar Fokkelen van Dijk Hemmes who died at the early age of 50 The authors endeavour to continue and advance the dialogue with her by evaluating and interacting with her scholarly legacy Their concern is with various aspects of her work on the Hebrew Bible and they respond in particular to the feminist hermeneutics she developed for reading biblical texts Several articles test her method in application to specific prophetic texts Other contributions focus on aspects of the role of women in the cults of Ancient Israel A third group of essays confronts Fokkeli van Dijk Hemmes approach with more traditional ways of biblical interpretation This book is an important contribution to the ongoing debate on feminist insights into aspects of the literature culture and religion of Ancient Israel Eat My Words Janet Theophano,2016-01-26 Some people think that a cookbook is just a collection of recipes for dishes that feed the body In Eat My Words Reading Women s Lives through the Cookbooks They Wrote Janet Theophano shows that cookbooks provide food for the mind and the soul as well Looking beyond the ingredients and instructions she shows how women have used cookbooks to assert their individuality develop their minds and structure their lives Beginning in the seventeenth century and moving up through the present day Theophano reads between the lines of recipes for dandelion wine Queen of Puddings and half pound cake to capture the stories and voices of these remarkable women The selection of books looked at is enticing and wide ranging Theophano begins with seventeenth century English estate housekeeping books that served as both cookbooks and reading primers so that women could educate themselves during long hours in the kitchen She looks at A Date with a Dish a classic African American cookbook that reveals the roots of many traditional American dishes and she brings to life a 1950s cookbook written specifically for Americans by a Chinese migr and transcribed into English by her daughter Finally Theophano looks at the contemporary cookbooks of Lynne Rosetto Kaspar Madeleine Kamman and Alice Waters to illustrate the sophistication and political activism present in modern cookbook writing Janet Theophano harvests the rich history of cookbook writing to show how much more can be learned from a recipe than how to make a casserole roast a chicken or bake a cake We discover that women s writings about food reveal and revel in the details of their lives families and the cultures they help to shape Feminist Companion to Reading the Bible Athalya Brenner-Idan,Carole Fontaine,1997-10-01 A Feminist Companion to Reading the Bible Approaches Methods and Strategies forms a conclusion to the series of 10 volumes published in the groundbreaking Feminist Companion to the Bible since 1993 Not only is this the companion to the Companion but it is at the same time the forerunner and companion to a second series of nine volumes of the Feminist Companion In all there will be a unique collection of 20 volumes representing the enormous range of influence that feminist criticism has come to have in biblical studies Anchored always in particular biblical texts the essays in this multi authored Companion to Reading the Bible have a distinct methodological slant reflecting the numerous developments in feminist criticism that have occurred since the first books in the series were published and forming an indispensable handbook for every biblical scholar and student today Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence Rachel Starr,2018-04-17 Domestic violence is a significant threat to women s survival But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships Can the Church s teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts Argentina and England

Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage Drawing on Augustine s notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save The Fifth Gospel John F. A. Sawyer,1996-03-21 There is currently much interest in the history of interpretation reader response and the sociology of sacred texts in what the text does as much as what it means Isaiah more evangelist than prophet according to Jerome and others provides an ideal case study because of his profound influence on the language and imagery of Christianity With illustrations from art music literature and the media as well as commentaries sermons and official church pronouncements Professor Sawyer shows how Isaiah has been used in all kinds of context from the cult of the Virgin Mary mediaeval passion iconography and antisemitic propaganda to Christian feminism and liberation theology This first attempt at a comprehensive critical study of an essential part of biblical interpretation will provide a model for further research and ensure that commentaries will never be the same again

Reading Early Modern Women Helen Ostovich,Elizabeth Sauer,2004-08-02 Much has been written about women of the English Renaissance but few examples of women s writing from that era have been readily available until now This remarkable anthology assembles for the first time 144 primary texts and documents written by women between 1550 and 1700 and reveals an unprecedented view of the intellectual and literary lives of women in early modern England The writings range from poetry to philosophical treatises addressing a wide array of subjects including law gender education motherhood medicine religion life writing and the arts Each selection is paired with a beautifully reproduced facsimile of the text s original source manuscript allowing a glimpse into the literary past that will lead the reader to truly appreciate the care and craft with which these women writers prepared their texts This essential anthology is a captivating guide to the legacy of early modern women s literature and its authors that must not be overlooked Re-reading Spare Rib Angela Smith,2017-09-07 Spare Rib remains one of the most iconic symbols of Second Wave Feminism its influence far out living the span of its publication 1972 1993 This collection examines various aspects of the magazine based on the digitised publication by the British Library in 2015 in order to explore the ways in which it has influenced society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries as well as the lives of individual readers By analysing several articles from a modern post feminist perspective and using cross generational interviews of Spare Rib readers and reflective accounts of reading the publication the significance and endurance of the publication is demonstrated Written by both academics experienced researchers and independent scholars alike the inter disciplinary nature of the text results in a multi dimensional reading of Spare Rib suitable for both an academic and general readership interested in cultural and media studies Reading the Thread Lesley Millar,Alice Kettle,2024-12-26 Reading the Thread brings together artists theorists and designers to explore the nature and use of cloth as a means of record and communication Cloth is constructed from threads and in acknowledging its qualities of recording or communicating a story we are reading the threads the read thread There is also however an East Asian myth that when you are born you are linked by an invisible red thread to your soul mate no matter what you do this red thread connects you to your fate and although the thread may become tangled or infinitely long it will never break Exploring histories of making and cultural practices a multidisciplinary team of international scholars use the metaphorical thread to link the experiences of cloth production lineage practices contemporary challenges and sustainable futures and to explore through imagery and ideas the agency of cloth to shape and communicate the sensations and emotions connected with human experience Divided into four sections on reading cloth challenging the stories it tells following the thread of its narrative and finally anticipating its future The Read Thread allows a variety of viewpoints and a diversity of voices without favouring theory or specific cultural approaches to interrogate cloth as a record of experience within its social historical psychological and cultural context the authors explore our encounters with cloth and its role in the exploration of identity and biography representative of passage exchange life and death Provocative and timely and beautifully illustrated with over 50 color images it is vital reading for students and scholars of textiles fashion material culture art and anthropology

Reading Feminist Theory Susan Archer Mann, Ashly Suzanne Patterson, 2016 Reading Feminist Theory From Modernity to Postmodernity interweaves classical and contemporary writings from the social sciences and the humanities to represent feminist thought from the late eighteenth century to the present Editors Susan Archer Mann and Ashly Suzanne Patterson pay close attention to the multiplicity and diversity of feminist voices visions and vantage points by race class gender sexuality and global location Along with more conventional forms of theorizing this anthology points to multiple sites of theory production both inside and outside of the academy and includes personal narratives poems short stories zines and even music lyrics Offering a truly global perspective the book devotes three chapters and more than thirty readings to the topics of colonialism imperialism and globalization It also provides extensive coverage of third wave feminism poststructuralism queer theory postcolonial theory and transnational feminisms

Reading by Starlight Damien Broderick, 2005-06-29 Reading by Starlight explores the characteristics in the writing marketing and reception of science fiction which distinguish it as a genre Damien Broderick explores the postmodern self referentiality of the sci fi narrative its intricate coded language and discursive encyclopaedia He shows how for perfect understanding sci fi readers must learn the codes of these imaginary worlds and vocabularies all the time picking up references to texts by other writers Reading by Starlight includes close readings of paradigmatic cyberpunk texts and writings by SF novelists and theorists including Isaac Asimov Arthur C Clarke Brian Aldiss Patrick Parrinder Kim Stanley Robinson John Varley Roger Zelazny William Gibson Fredric Jameson and Samuel R Delaney
