

Drastic Measures

Terry was determined to be a drummer. His parents were very supportive and bought him a drum set. They were supportive, that is, until it came to actually letting Terry practice. Terry's mother worked at home, and she didn't want him to practice when he got home from school because she was still working and was often on the phone.

By the time she was finished for the day, Terry's father was home. He didn't like his job, so he often came home in a lousy mood. He wanted peace and quiet, and he said Terry's drumming gave him a headache. Terry was frustrated. What was he going to do? The situation called for drastic measures.

Terry got an allowance every week for doing some chores. It wasn't a lot of money, but he tended to save it, so he had almost a hundred dollars in his piggy bank. He decided he needed to rent a practice space for his drums. But where? He asked all of his friends. Finally, his friend Pete extended him an offer. Both of Pete's parents were usually at work on weekdays until six p.m. For ten dollars a week, Pete would let Terry keep the drums in Pete's bedroom and come play them for two hours every day after school. Excited, Terry asked his parents. They agreed, after they checked with Pete's parents to make sure it was okay.

The very next day, Terry carried his drum set, one drum at a time, down the street to Pete's house, where he reassembled it in the corner of Pete's bedroom. Every day after school, Terry went to Pete's and played his drums for two hours. Pete got in the habit of taking two-hour-long walks after school because the drumming drove him crazy! But Pete didn't get an allowance, so he had decided he needed to take drastic measures if he was ever going to get his hands on any money!
