Five Ring Circus Christopher A. Shaw, 2008-07-01 This is a cleverly written and timely book New Society Publishers have managed to put a well designed paperback on the market just in time to wage a war of words on the tail end of a province wide gag law Indeed the cloak of silence surrounding all things Olympic have taken us to new levels as even the digits 2010 preceded by the name of our fair city are considered fair game and grounds for libel A historical perspective on the original intent and players in the Games from the days of their creation answers trivia questions like who was the first athlete to win the gold while adding a nostalgic touch and the chapter on dissent and resistance of the Olympics in other cities brings the whole book into international focus Christina Ferrero Epoch Times The shiny rings of the Olympic Games have grown tarnished over the years as doping corruption and other scandals rise to the surface Those scandals are the tip of the iceberg according to author Christopher A Shaw the lead spokesperson for several anti Games groups Five Ring Circus details the history of how Vancouver won the bid for the 2010 Games who was involved and what the real motives were It describes the role of corporate media in promoting the Games the machinations of government and business and the opposition that emerged Disturbing questions come to light Why does the International Olympic Committee pay no taxes Who are the real estate developers behind the Vancouver bid Why are mega projects paid for with tax dollars What are the true costs of the Games The Olympic Games once considered the pinnacle of athleticism and fair play have become a cesspool of greed backroom deals and the wholesale trampling of civil liberties In Vancouver preparations for the 2010 Games have had a substantial negative impact on the environment and have resulted in the economic cleansing of the poor and homeless This book is a cautionary tale for future Olympic bid cities and will appeal to those concerned about the effects of globalization on many aspects of life Christopher A Shaw is a professor at the University of British Columbia He is a founding member and lead spokesperson for the No Games 2010 Coalition and 2010 Watch He lives in North Vancouver Awakening the New Masculine Gary L.
