Looking for Ashley: Re-reading What the Smith Case Reveals about the Governance of Girls, Mothers and Families in Canada Jaremko Rebecca Bromwich, 2015-10-01 The 2007 death by self-induced strangulation in prison of nineteen-year-old inmate Ashley Smith drew a great deal of public attention The case gave rise to a shocking verdict of homicide in the 2013 inquest into the cause of her death In this book I inquire into questions about what social problem or phenomenon Ashley Smith is a case and what governmental work is done by prevalent constructions of her as an exemplar This book performs a critical discourse analysis of figures of Ashley Smith that emerge in her case looking at those representations as technologies of governance It argues that the Smith case is read most accurately not as an isolated system failure but an extreme result of routine everyday brutality of a society and bureaucracies gradual necropolitical successes It critically analyzes how representations of Ashley in the case leave intact and even reinforce logics and systems governing gender motherhood security risk race thinking and exclusion in power and knowledge that make it predictable for similar deaths in prison to recur It argues that in the logics underlying constructions through which Ashley Smith was celebritized and sacralized mothers girls and women s subjectivities and agencies are made unknowable and even unthinkable while the racialized social boundaries of a white settler society are maintained This book attempts to intervene in those logics to help make alternative outcomes possible and to take steps towards questioning the raced classed and heteronormative boundaries of commonly assumed figures of the noble victim good girl and good mother while supporting the agencies of adolescent girls in actively playing a part in the authoring of their lives Omar Khadr, Oh Canada Janice Williamson, 2012-05-01 In 2002 a fifteen year old Canadian citizen was captured in Afghanistan for allegedly killing an American soldier A badly wounded Omar Khadr was transferred to the US Bagram Air Force base and then Guant namo Bay detention camp He would remain there without trial until October 2010 when a military commission admitted evidence considered tainted by Canadian courts A plea bargain and guilty plea initiated his promised return to Canada a year later Some Canadians see Khadr as a symbol of terrorism in action For others he is the victim of a jihadist father and Canadian complicity in the unjust excesses including torture of the US war on terror The youngest prisoner held at Guant namo and the only citizen of a Western country not repatriated Khadr was formally identified by the United Nations as a child soldier In Omar Khadr Oh Canada over thirty contributors analyze Khadr s background his incarceration the actions of Canadian authorities and the implications raised by his legal case This multi genre book includes essays articles poems a play extended excerpts from the documentary film You Don t Like the Truth and other texts produced by distinguished contributors such as Sherene Razack General Rom o Dallaire Charles Foran Kim Echlin Judith Thompson Audrey Macklin Shadia Drury George Elliott Clarke Maher Arar Rick Salutin and Sheema Khan While they sometimes disagree on issues such as radical Islam and Canadian multiculturalism they all write from the conviction that Khadr s treatment has been and continues to be shamefully unjust and shaped by post 9 11 Islamophobia that continues to distort the views of many Canadians Many Canadians are dismayed by the government s behaviour toward Omar Khadr Adding strong and articulate voices to the debate Omar Khadr Oh Canada will educate and inform readers as his story continues to unfold Contributors include Maher Arar human rights activist and journalist Craig Kielburger child labour activist and co founder of Free the Children Foundation George Elliott Clarke poet playwright and English professor at the University of Toronto Luc C t and Patricio Henriquez screenwriters directors cinematographers and producers of the documentary You Don t Like the Truth 4 Days Inside Guant namo LGen Rom o A Dallaire commanded the UN Assistance Mission for Rwanda in 1994 and was appointed to the Senate of Canada in 2005 Gail Davidson executive director Lawyer s Rights Watch Canada Nathalie des Rosiers General Counsel Canadian Civil Liberties Association Robert Diab lawyer and faculty member of Capilano University Alnoor Gova broadcaster and PhD student Simon Fraser University Shadia Drury CRC Chair in Social Justice University of Regina Kim Echlin novelist essayist film producer Dennis Edney former lawyer of Omar Khadr Charles Foran novelist biographer Deborah Gorham history professor Carleton University Yasmin Jiwani associate professor in the department of
