Groupware and Computer-Supported Cooperative Work Ronald M. Baecker, 1993-01-13 This comprehensive introduction to the field represents the best of the published literature on groupware and computer supported cooperative work CSCW The papers were chosen for their breadth of coverage of the field their clarity of expression and presentation their excellence in terms of technical innovation or behavioral insight their historical significance and their utility as sources for further reading Taken as a whole the papers and their introductions are a complete sourcebook to the field This book will be useful for computer professionals involved in the development or purchase of groupware technology as well as for researchers and managers It should also serve as a valuable text for university courses on CSCW groupware and human computer interaction

Management Laureates Arthur G. Bedeian, 2018-04-17 First published in 1996 This volume compiles the autobiographies of the management discipline's most distinguished laureates Prior to this publication the available management literature provided little insight into the personal and intellectual lives the frustrations as well as the triumphs of the individuals in the management discipline Although such understanding could be conveyed in many forms perhaps the most intimate and fascinating of these for gaining behind the scenes insights is the autobiography Thus the autobiographies in this volume as in the five companion volumes offer the reader not only a glimpse of the subjective determinants and personal experiences of the management discipline's most distinguished laureates but also a deeper understanding of what management is and what it is becoming The various accounts reflect a diversity of approaches interests and experiences
