 behind the scenes of the government's psychic spy program as only an insider can A must read Harold E Puthoff PhD founder and former director of the CIA initiated Remote Viewing Program From behind the cloak of US military secrecy comes the story of Star Gate the project that for nearly a quarter of a century trained soldiers and civilian spies in extra sensory perception ESP Their objective To search out the secrets of America s cold war enemies using a skill called remote viewing Paul H Smith a US Army Major was one of these viewers With the Star Gate secrets declassified and the program mothballed by the Central Intelligence Agency the story can now be told of the ordinary soldiers drafted onto the battlefield of human consciousness Using hundreds of interviews with the key players in the Star Gate program and gathering thousands of pages of documents Smith reveals many secrets about how remote viewing works and how it was used against enemy targets Among these stories are the search for hostages in Lebanon spying on Soviet directed energy weapons investigating the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie Scotland tracking foreign testing of weapons of mass destruction combating narco trafficking off America s coasts aiding in the Iranian hostage situation finding KGB moles in the CIA pursuing Middle East terrorists and more This is a story for the believer and the skeptic a rare look at the innards of a top secret program and an eye opening treatise on the power of the human mind to transcend the limitations of space and time Reading Hitler's Mind Norman Ridley,2022-07-20 Most strongly associated with Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain it is often stated that Britain s policy of appeasement was instituted in the 1930s in the hope of avoiding war with Hitler s Nazi Germany At the time appeasement was viewed by many as a popular and seemingly pragmatic policy In this book the author sets out to show how appeasement was not a na ve attempt to secure a lasting peace by resolving German grievances but a means of buying time for rearmament By the middle of the 1930s British policy was based on the presumption that the balance of power had already dramatically shifted in Germany s favour It was felt that Britain chiefly for economic reasons was unable to restore the balance and that extensive concessions to Germany would not satisfy Hitler whose aggressive policies intensified the already high risk of war The only realistic option and one that was clearly adopted by Neville Chamberlain was to try to influence the timing of the inevitable military confrontation and in the meantime pursue a steady and economically sustainable program of rearmament Appeasement would buy that time for the British government Crucially this strategy required continuously updated and accurate information about the strength current and future of the German armed forces especially the Luftwaffe and an understanding of their military strategy Piercing the Nazis veil of secrecy was vital if the intelligence services were to build up a true picture of the extent of German rearmament and the purposes to which it might be put The many agents codebreakers and counter espionage personnel played a vital role in maximising the benefits that appeasement provided even as war clouds continued to gather These individuals were increasingly handed greater responsibility in a bid to inform British statesmen now scrambling to prepare for a catastrophic confrontation with Germany In Reading Hitler s Mind Norman Ridley reveals the remarkable efforts made by the tiny underfunded and often side lined British intelligence services as they sought to inform those whose role it was to make decisions upon which the wheels of history turned The Future a Memory: The Cold War and Intelligence Services - Aspects Heiner Timmermann,2013 This book presents an overview about the activities of intelligence services and their role during the Cold War period
