and African countries met in Bandung Indonesia to discuss matters ranging from national unity cooperation decolonization peace economic development and their role to play in international policy The ten points declaration of the conference the so called Spirit of Bandung included the principles of nationhood for the future of the newly independent nations and their interrelations After the conference most non aligned Asian and African countries opted for philosophies of national unity to guarantee peace and stability Much is required of a philosophy of national unity It should connect and inspire citizens via shared ideals provide a basis for equal citizenship construct a national history and national identity being the foundation for laws and institutions etc Nowadays changed international relations have created a diversity of views on secular or religious philosophies of national unity This development has only made the question of the role of religion in this post secular era more pressing In the context of the resurgence of religions the Bandung conference marks the increasing relevance of the choice at the time for a secular or religious approach In the African case of Tanzania the Ujamaa philosophy was secular although Tanzania had a civic religion In the Asian case of Indonesia the philosophy of Pancasila was religious pluralistic by recognizing six official religions In both this and other countries the philosophies of national unity are now contested Therefore 68 years after the Bandung Conference experts from Africa Asia and Europe do critically answer the questions What philosophy secular or religious succeeds or succeeded in promoting peace and stability Are there comparable philosophies of national unity from other countries The Origins of Modern African Thought Robert W. July, 2004 For the better part of two centuries racial domination has been the central concern of African social thought Other questions among them national identity the role of chieftaincy representation justice and constitutional design have often been defined in relation to a preoccupation with racial and colonial forms of domination This book by examining the history of African thought will prove an invaluable tool to those new thinkers who have begun to revisit the intellectual history of Africa at the outset of the twenty first century African Political Thought of the Twentieth Century Shiera Malik, 2018-02-06 This book focuses on African political thought as it emerged in the context of and contributed to fundamental changes in world order during the twentieth century and as it continues to speak to the present global condition The six chapters form a set of close readings of 20th century African political theorists insofar as their work forms part of a conversation that Africa had with itself and with the rest of the world regarding freedom independence emancipation and statehood as well as forming part of the larger global conversations within which these theorists can be situated The essays analyse the ideas and practices of a number of prominent figures including Frantz Fanon Leopold Senghor Amílcar Cabral Agostinho Neto Julius Nyerere Gabriel d Arboussier Sembene Ousmane This collection is unusual in its breadth bringing together analyses of radical thinkers and activists from the Portuguese French and English speaking regions of Africa It includes chapters from prominent senior figures in the field as well as contributions from younger scholars The editor includes a short introduction which frames the collection and situates its contribution to broader debates and fields of enquiry This book was originally published as a special issue of African Identities      Readings for A History of Anthropological Theory Paul A. Erickson, Liam Donat Murphy, 2010-01-01 This comprehensive anthology presents 40 readings that are critical to an understanding of anthropological theory and the development of anthropology as an academic discipline The readings have broad anthropological appeal emphasizing social and cultural anthropology The third edition has been completely revised throughout and organized to work more closely alongside the companion overview text A History of Anthropological Theory It includes six new readings as well as two original essays written by contemporary anthropologists on Why Theory Matters These new essays help ground the more abstract readings in the collection The glossary has been significantly expanded and the discussion questions have been revised The result is a volume that offers not only a strong foundation in the history of the discipline but also a good overview of developments in twentieth and twenty first century anthropological theory including feminist anthropology postmodernity medical anthropology globalization postcolonialism and public anthropology

Readings in Constitutional Law and Politics in Africa Kivutha Kibwana, 1998      Africans on African-Americans Yekutiel Gershoni, 2016-07-27 Between the end of the nineteenth century and the outbreak of World War 2 Africans displaced by colonial rule created an African American myth a myth which aggrandized the life and attainments of African Americans despite full knowledge of the discrimination to which they were subjected The myth provided Africans in all parts of the continent with much needed succour and underpinned various religious educational political and social models based on the experience of African Americans whereby Africans sought to better their own lives      The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader's Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references      Postmodern Reading of Contemporary East African Fiction Andrew

Nyongesa,2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a naive physician who prescribes analgesics to treat symptoms while the underlying cause of the disease seethes in the blood In the same way persons who consistently blame their reckless conduct and shabbiness miss the point if they do not transform the actual cause of the problem the mind While most literary scholars problematise gender disparities racial and political othering oppression environment degradation education matters poor parenting and governance they tend to disregard the root cause modernism This book finds a gap in this grey area to address the authentic cause of the symptoms that most literary writers and scholars treat Pertinent modernist tenets such as bureaucracy the nation state systematisation and rationality and dualism are at the heart of racism corruption and other aforementioned symptoms It is the contention of this study that postmodernism offers a comprehensive understanding of modernism to mitigate its effects on society

Multilingualism and Nation Building Gerda Mansour,1993 This book is interdisciplinary drawing on the sociology and politics of language African linguistics African history and social history in general It focuses on the various issues related to multilingualism in West Africa but is also relevant to multilingual situations in Third World countries generally Although the book is aimed at the educated general reader it should also be of interest to language specialists and students of Third World politics

Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell,2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Politics of African Anticolonial Archive Shiera S. el-Malik,Isaac A. Kamola,2017-03-03 African political writing of the mid 20th century seeks to critically engage with questions of identity history and the state for the purpose of national and human liberation This volume collects an array of essays that reflect on anticolonialism in Africa broadly defined Each contribution connects the historical period with the anticolonial present through a critical examination of what constitutes the anticolonial archive The volume considers archive in a Derridean sense as always in the process of being constructed such that the assessment of the African anticolonial archive is one that involves a contemporary process of curating The essays in this volume as well as the volume itself enact different ways of curating material from this period The project reflects an approach to documents arguments and materials that can be considered international relations and world politics but in ways that that intentionally leaves them unhinged from these disciplinary meanings While we examine many of the same questions that have been asked within area studies African studies and International Relations we do so through an alternative archive In doing so we challenge the assumption that Africa is solely the domain of policy makers and area studies and African peoples as the objects of data

New African Intellectuals and New African Political Thought in the Twentieth Century Mbukeni Herbert Mnguni,2015 This book is purposely and deliberately entitled New African Intellectuals and New African Political Thought in the Twentieth Century It encapsulates the recent debate about the political and cultural role played by the New African intellectuals in developing modern African political thought The authors argue that the New African Intellectuals was a culturally and politically dominant movement of the twentieth century despite the fact that it was suppressed and oppressed by white colonialism and racism. It was a political and cultural expression of the oppressed and disposed people. During its cultural and political splay, the New African Intellectuals were preoccupied with three inseparable historical issues forming the concept of the New African: constructing the foundations of African modernity and formulating the principles of African Nationalism. Offering fresh insights that are both empirically and theoretically informed, this book illuminates the processes and consequences of the New African scholars and writers. The political contribution made by the New African intellectuals is traced from its origins in literature, music, and language. The discussion concludes with an exploration of the dilemma faced by African languages as they are dominated by European languages. The authors argue that this dominance has resulted in the petrification and mummification of African languages because outstanding even great African writers are not using them in relation to modern technological and linguistic experience. The authors believe that this broad-ranging book will be of interest to all those studying African politics and culture and who are concerned with understanding modern African societies in the light of post colonialism.
