Handbook of African Popular Culture Grace A. Musila, 2022-05-15. This handbook brings together an international team of scholars from different disciplines to reflect on African popular cultural imaginaries. These imaginaries, in the sense of cultural productions, contexts, consumers, producers, platforms, and the material, affective, and discursive resources they circulate, are influential in shaping African realities. Collectively, the chapters assembled in this handbook index the genres, methods, mediums, questions, and encounters that preoccupy producers, consumers, and scholars of African popular cultural forms across a range of geohistorical and temporal contexts. Drawing on forms such as newspaper columns, televised English Premier League football, speculative arts, romance fiction, comedy, cinema, music, and digital genres, the contributors explore the possibilities and ambiguities unleashed by the production, circulation, consumption, remediation, and critique of these forms. Among the questions explored across these essays are the freedoms and constraints of popular genres, the forms of self-making, pleasure and harm that these imaginaries enable, the negotiations of multiple moral regimes in everyday life, and inevitably, the fecund terrain of contradictions definitive of many popular forms which variously enable and undermine world-making. An authoritative scholarly resource on popular culture in Africa, this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of African culture, society, and media.

Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, International African Institute, 2005-02-14. Readings in Gender in Africa collects the most important critical and theoretical writings on how gender issues have transformed contemporary views of Africa. Scholarship from North America, Europe, and Africa is represented in this comprehensive volume. A synthetic introduction by Andrea Cornwall discusses efforts to include women in research about Africa. The volume not only shows how gender relations have been constructed on the African continent but reflects the changes in approach and inquiry that have been brought about as scholars consider gender identities and difference in their work. Specific themes covered here include the contestation and representation of gender, femininity and masculinity, livelihoods and lifeways, gender and religion, gender and culture, and gender and governance. Readers from across the landscape of African studies will find this an essential sourcebook. Published in association with the International African Institute, London.

Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor, 2021. The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture. It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations visual oral written performative fictional social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality 2007 04 So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index A Companion to African History William H. Worger, Charles Ambler, Nwando Achebe, 2018-11-28 Covers the history of the entire African continent from prehistory to the present day A Companion to African History embraces the diverse regions subject matter and disciplines of the African continent while also providing chronological and geographical coverage of basic historical developments Two dozen essays by leading international scholars explore the challenges facing this relatively new field of historical enquiry and present the dynamic ways in which historians and scholars from other fields such as archaeology anthropology political science and economics are forging new directions in thinking and research Comprised of six parts the book begins with thematic approaches to African history exploring the environment gender and family medical practices and more Section two covers Africa's early history and its pre colonial past early human adaptation the emergence of kingdoms royal power and warring states The third section looks at the era of the slave trade and European expansion Part four examines the process of conquest the discovery of diamonds and gold military and social response and more Colonialism is discussed in the sixth section with chapters on the economy transformed due to the development of agriculture and mining industries The last section studies the continent from post World War II all the way up to modern times Aims at capturing the enthusiasms of practicing historians and encouraging similar passion in a new generation of scholars Emphasizes linkages within Africa as well as between the continent and other parts of the world All chapters include significant historiographical content and suggestions for further reading Written by a global team of writers with unique backgrounds and views Features case studies with illustrative examples In a field traditionally marked by narrow specialisms A Companion to African History is an ideal book for advanced students researchers historians and scholars looking for a broad yet unique overview of African history as a whole African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes Focus Carol Ann Muller, 2008 First Published in 2008 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Focus: Music of South Africa Carol A. Muller, 2010-04-15 Focus Music of South Africa provides an in depth look at the full spectrum of South African music a musical culture that epitomizes the enormous ethnic religious linguistic class and gender diversity of the nation itself Drawing on extensive field and archival research as well as her own personal experiences noted ethnomusicologist and South African native Carol A Muller looks at how South Africans have used music to express a sense of place in South Africa on the African continent and around the world Part One Creating Connections provides introductory materials for the study of South African Music Part Two Musical Migrations moves to a more focused overview of significant musical styles in twentieth century South Africa particularly those known through world circuits Part Three Focusing In takes the reader into the heart of two musical cultures with case studies on South African jazz and the music of the Zulu language followers of Isaiah Shembe The accompanying CD offers vivid examples of traditional popular and classical South African musical styles Viewing African Cinema in the Twenty-first Century Mahir Şaul, Ralph A. Austen, 2010-10-05 African cinema in the 1960s originated mainly from Francophone countries It resembled the art cinema of contemporary Europe and relied on support from the French film industry and the French state Beginning in 1969 the biennial Festival panafricain du cin ma et de la t l vision de Ouagadougou FESPACO held in Burkina Faso became the major showcase for these films But since the early 1990s a new phenomenon has come to dominate the African cinema world mass marketed films shot on less expensive video cameras These Nollywood films so named because many originate in southern Nigeria are a thriving industry dominating the world of African cinema Viewing African Cinema in the Twenty first Century is the first book to bring together a set of essays offering a comparison of these two main African cinema modes Contributors Ralph A Austen and Mahir aul Jonathan Haynes Onookome Okome Birgit Meyer Abdalla Uba Adamu Matthias Krings Vincent Bouchard Laura Fair Jane Bryce Peter Rist Stefan Sereda Lindsey Green Simms and Cornelius Moore African Video Film Today Foluke Ogunleye, 2003 This book considers the current state and status of the video film in different parts of Africa Nigeria Ghana Lesotho and Congo Kinshasa It addresses technological ethical and gender considerations and issues of language and ethnicity suggesting in the concluding chapters that the video film in Africa has become an art form that crosses borders and an important means of communication within the continent The editor thus argues it must be treated seriously as an art form and cultural industry in its own right and as worthy of the scholarship such that this volume is conceived to encourage

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Postcolonial Print Cultures Toral Jatin Gajjarawala, Neelam Srivastava, Rajeswari Sunder Rajan, Jack Webb, 2023-08-10 The texts that make up postcolonial print cultures are often found outside the archival catalogue and in lesser examined repositories such as personal collections the streets or appendages to established collections This volume examines the published and unpublished writing magazines pamphlets paratexts advertisements cartoons radio and street art that serve as the intellectual forces behind opposition to colonial orders as meditations on the futures of embryonic nation states and as visions of new forms of equality The print cultures examined here are necessarily anti institutional they serve as a counterpoint to the colonial archive and relatedly to more traditional genres and text formats coming out of large scale publishers This means that much of the primary material analyzed in this book has not been scrutinized before Many of these print productions articulate collective liberation projects with origins in the grassroots They include debates around the shape of the postcolonial nation and the new state formation that necessarily draw on a diverse and contentious public sphere of opinion Their rhetoric ranges from the reformist to the revolutionary Reflecting the diversity indeed the disorderliness of postcolonial print cultures this book covers local national and transnational cultures from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Its wide ranging essays offer a nuanced and taken together a definitive though that is not to say comprehensive or systematic study of a global phenomenon postcolonial print cultures as a distinct literary field The chapters recover the efforts of writers readers and publishers to produce a postcolonialism from below and thereby offer a range of fresh perspectives on the meaning and history of postcolonialism

African Film Foluke Ogunleye, 2014-03-17 African Film Looking Back and Looking Forward acknowledges all those filmmakers and film scholars who through their productions and theorization have made a difference to the filmic universe in Africa Their substantial contribution reflects our world and has the potential to change our lives The book adopts an interdisciplinary character traversing as it does the diverse subjects of politics economics and history among others It interrogates Africa's filmic past analyses current productions projects into the future of the film in Africa and deals with the nature of the filmmaking profession This book contributes to the growing literature on the African film and will provide the opportunity for filmmakers academics and students to learn about the history theories problems and various approaches to production marketing gender issues race and legal issues and a host of other subjects that impinge upon the African film

African Youth Cultures in a Globalized World Paul Ugor, Lord Mawuko-Yevugah, 2016-03-09 All over the world there is growing concern about the ramifications of globalization late modernity and general global social and economic restructuring on the lives and futures of young people Bringing together a wide body of research to reflect on youth responses to social change in Africa this volume shows that while young people in the region face extraordinary social challenges in their everyday lives they also continue to devise unique ways to reinvent their difficult circumstances and prosper in the midst of seismic global and local social changes Contributors from Africa and around the world cover a wide range of topics on African youth cultures exploring the lives of young people not necessarily as victims but as active social players in the face of a shifting late modernist civilization With empirical cases and varied theoretical approaches the book offers a timely scholarly contribution to debates around globalization and its implications and impacts for Africa s youth Decolonisations of Literature Stefan

Helgesson,2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths,2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions
