Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary Schools: A Research-Based Approach Cekiso, Madoda, Olifant, Florence, Mokhtari, Kouider, 2025-04-23
Teaching reading comprehension to English learners ELs in secondary schools presents unique challenges as these students must navigate the complexities of academic texts and the intricacies of language acquisition Effective instruction requires a research based approach that considers the diverse linguistic cultural and cognitive backgrounds of these learners Recent studies highlight the importance of integrating strategies that build both language proficiency and content knowledge essential for helping ELs develop the skills needed to comprehend complex materials Fostering metacognitive awareness through strategies like summarizing questioning and making connections can empower students to become active and strategic readers This approach recognizes the need for a supportive inclusive classroom environment that encourages language development while promoting academic achievement in content areas Further research may help educators provide English learners with the tools to thrive as capable readers in secondary school Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary School A Research Based Approach explores various aspects of teaching reading comprehension to English Second Language ESL learners in secondary schools It examines current challenges and evidence based strategies in reading comprehension This book covers topics such as language learning reading strategies and teacher training and is a useful resource for academicians researchers and scientists

Case Method and Pluralist Economics Kavous Ardalan, 2017-12-09 This book discusses the relationship between pluralist economics and the case study method of teaching advocating the complimentary use of both to advance economics education Using a multi paradigmatic philosophical frame of analysis the book discusses the philosophical methodological and practical aspects of the case study method while drawing comparisons with those of the more commonly used lecture method The book also discusses pluralist economics through the exposition of the philosophical foundations of the extant economics schools of thought which is the focal point of the attention and admiration of pluralist economics More specifically the book discusses the major extant schools of thought in economics Neo Classical Economics New Institutional Economics Behavioral Economics Austrian Economics Post Keynesian Economics Institutional Economics Radical Economics and Marxist Economics and emphasizes that these schools of thought in economics are equally scientific and informative that they look at economic phenomena from their certain paradigmatic viewpoint and that together they provide a more balanced understanding of the economic phenomenon under consideration Emphasizing paradigmatic diversity as the cornerstone of both the case method and pluralist economics the book draws the two together and makes an effective case for their combined use A rigorous multi faceted analysis of the philosophy methodology and practice of economics education this book is important for academicians and students interested in heterodox economics philosophy and education Illinois Journal of Education ,1918 Annual Report of the National Science Foundation National Science Foundation (U.S.),1961 Resources in Education ,2001-04 Summer Sessions Information and Class Schedules Bulletin University of Nebraska--Lincoln.
