Ready All George Yeoman Pocock And Crew Racing:

Ready All! George Yeoman Pocock and Crew Racing Gordon Newell, 2015-07-27 In the 1920s an upstart West Coast college began to challenge the Eastern universities in the ancient sport of crew racing Sportswriters scoffed at the crude western boats and their crews But for the next forty years the University of Washington dominated rowing around the world The secret of the Huskies success was George Pocock a soft spoken English immigrant raised on the banks of the Thames Pocock combined perfectionism with innovation to make the lightest best balanced fastest shells the world had ever seen After studying the magnificent canoes built by Northwest Indians he broke with tradition and began to make shells of native cedar Pocock who had been a champion sculler in his youth never credited his boats for the accomplishments of a crew He wanted every rower to share his vision of discipline and teamwork As rowers from the University of Washington went on to become coaches at major universities across the country Pocock s philosophy and his shells became nationally famous in the world of crew Drawing on documents provided by Pocock s family photographs from the University of Washington Crew Archives and interviews with rowers who revered the man Newell evokes the times as well as the life of this unique figure in American sport Ready All! Gordon R. Newell, 1987

The Wonder Crew Susan Saint Sing, 2013-11-05 The Wonder Crew presents the fascinating story of how the salty coach of the Annapolis crew team Coach Richard Glendon seized the sport of rowing first from the Ivy League schools and then the imposing British with a new style both uniquely American and very much his own Glendon took a group of young midshipmen with humble origins and dominated a sport once the domain of the privileged After stunning the Ivy Leagues in race after race the US Naval Academy team won a shot at the Olympics Their task was nearly impossible for hundreds of years the British Navy ruled the world and their supremacy of the seas naturally made them dominant in the sport of rowing With the hopes of a nation Navy went into the heart of Europe and in thrilling fashion defeated the heavily favored Brits to win the gold medal in 1920 With Glendon s new American style the US won Gold for forty straight years the longest winning streak in any single sport in Olympic history Rich in history with brave characters American ingenuity and dramatic training and competition Susan Saint Sing s The Wonder Crew is the first comprehensive account of the 1920 Olympic Navy crew team and their inspirational coach who forged the dramatic story of their quest for Olympic gold Six Minutes in Berlin Michael J Socolow, 2016-10-14 The Berlin Olympics August 14 1936 German rowers dominant at the Games line up against America s top eight oared crew Hundreds of millions of listeners worldwide wait by their radios Leni Riefenstahl prepares her cameramen Grantland Rice looks past the 75 000 spectators crowding the riverbank Above it all the Nazi leadership flush with the propaganda triumph the Olympics have given their New Germany await a crowning victory they can broadcast to the world The Berlin Games matched cutting edge communication technology with compelling sports narrative to draw the blueprint for all future sports broadcasting A global audience the largest cohort of humanity ever assembled enjoyed the spectacle via radio This still novel medium offered a liveness a thrilling immediacy no other technology had ever matched Michael J Socolow's account moves from the era's technological innovations to the human drama of how the race changed the lives of nine young men As he shows the origins of global sports broadcasting can be found in this single forgotten contest In those origins we see the ways the presentation consumption and uses of sport changed forever Wisconsin where They Row Bradley F. Taylor, 2005 Wisconsin Where They Row is the definitive history of rowing at the University of Wisconsin Although this oldest of intercollegiate sports had its American beginnings in 1852 as a contest among Ivy League men it would soon have to make room for the stubborn steadfastness of Wisconsin's athletes Author Brad Taylor captures the unique character of Wisconsin crew and its athletes in this meticulously researched and abundantly illustrated book Taylor recounts rowing's beginnings as the first UW intramural sport in 1874 the long and rich history of the men's crew the establishment of the women's team in 1972 and the presence of Wisconsin rowers on every U S Olympic rowing squad from 1968 through 2004 Taylor tells of the UW men's victory in 1892 at Oconomowoc against the Chicago Navy their first competition against an outside club the story of the famed Berry Crate Crew and the Badger crew's participation in the early intercollegiate regattas on the Hudson River Taylor depicts how boats were shipped east by train how one coach sacrificed most of his salary during the threadbare 1930s to keep the sport alive and how thousands of spectators watched races from railroad flatcars and yachts Taylor spent four years interviewing key figures visiting race venues and delving into the archives of college libraries historical societies and newspapers The result is not only this book but also a trove of information rowing memorabilia and some two thousand images of Wisconsin crew history that Taylor will donate to the University of Wisconsin archives and the new crew boathouse Wisconsin Where They Row documents in detail an exciting story important to sports history to Wisconsin's heritage and to alums and fans of the Badger crew teams It will appeal to anyone who thrills at the sight of oars flashing and shells skimming across blue water
