River Runs Salt Runs Sweet:

The River Runs Salt, Runs Sweet Jasmina Dervisevic-Cesic, Randall Larsen, Jay Lavender, 2014-08-08 At 15 Jasmina had typical teenage problems How could she talk to the boy she liked without making a fool of herself Would she find the right shoes to wear to the high school party She had heard the old stories about World War II when neighbor turned against neighbor but she never gave them a second thought That had all happened ages ago and she was living in a modern Yugoslavian city where Serbs and Muslims were close friends Then Yugoslavia started to break apart the national army turned its guns against its own people and Jasmina had to grow up fast The River Runs Salt Runs Sweet is a young woman s powerful and inspiring memoir of love loss and survival during The Bosnian War The innocent paid the greatest price in Bosnia More than half of the four million residents in Bosnia became refugees an estimated 100 000 people were killed and 20 000 50 000 women were raped many of them repeatedly The Bosnians didn t ask for NATO or UN troops just the means to defend themselves from genocide so they didn t have to fight tanks with old hunting rifles Jasmina wrote her story to bear witness to what happened to her country and to the people she loved and lost But as she wrote she came to understand that her story was about much more Everyone experiences loss Everyone even in peacetime loses loved ones Everyone feels jostled or even violated by events beyond their control Everyone suffers the losses of disillusionment and betrayal sooner or later As she thought about the things that kept her going in the worst of times Jasmina began to understand that her story was about more than Bosnia It was about how we manage to endure to support one another and to recover from the most difficult of trials My losses happened to come all at once personally physically and emotionally I lost some of my faith in humanity when I discovered that people who were your best friends one day could conspire to destroy you the next And there were more losses beyond that Ultimately I lost almost everything that many of us would call a normal life Yet here I am on the road back not only to a normal life but perhaps a happy one There are many who have endured the suffering Jasmina experienced as a young woman but survival is our most basic instinct What sets her apart is that in the midst of genocide her humanity survived And in her remarkable story we can find lessons and inspiration to help us persevere when we encounter turbulent times of our own The River Runs Salt, Runs Sweet Jasmina Dervisevic-Cesic, Joanna Vogel, Bruce Holland Rogers, 2003 Wartime memoir of a Bosnian refugee from Visegrad who made her way to America and became a spokeswoman for the Bosnian cause

The Holocaust and Genocides in Europe Benjamin Lieberman, 2013-04-11 Focusing on the major cases of genocide in twentieth century Europe including the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and genocide in the former Yugoslavia as well as mass killing in the Soviet Union this book outlines the internal and external roots of genocide Internal causes lie in the rise of radical nationalism and the breakdown of old empires while external causes lie in the experience of mass violence in European colonial empires Such roots did not make any case of genocide inevitable but did create models for mass destruction The book enables students to assess the interplay between general causes of violence and the specific crises that accelerated moves towards radical genocidal policies Chapters on the major cases of twentieth century European genocide will each describe and analyse several key themes acts of genocide perpetrators victims and bystanders and genocide in particular regions Using the voices of the human actors in genocide often ignored or forgotten provides arresting new insights The conclusion frames European genocide in a global perspective giving students an entry point to discussion of genocide in other continents and historical periods

The Thing I'm Most Afraid Of Kristin Levine, 2021-06-15 A new middle grade tale from critically acclaimed award winning author Kristin Levine about facing your fears set in Vienna during the Bosnian genocide Most twelve year olds would be excited to fly to Austria to see their dad for the summer but then Becca is not most twelve year olds Suffering from severe anxiety she fears that the metal detectors at the airport will give her cancer and the long international flight will leave her with blood clots Luckily she's packed her Doomsday Journal the one thing that always seems to help By writing down her fears and what to do if the worst happens Becca can get by without many panic attacks Routines and plans help Becca cope but living in a new country is full of the unexpected including Becca's companions for the summer Like Felix the short and bookish son of Becca's dad's new girlfriend Or Sara the nineteen year old Bosnian refugee tasked with watching the two of them for the summer As Becca explores Vienna and becomes close to her new friends she soon learns she is not alone in her fears What matters most is what you do when faced with them

Surviving the Peace Peter Lippman, 2019-11-15 Surviving the Peace is a monumental feat of ground level reporting describing two decades of postwar life in Bosnia specifically among those fighting for refugee rights of return Unique in its breadth and profoundly humanitarian in its focus Surviving the Peace situates digestible explanations of the region's bewilderingly complex recent history among interviews conversations and tableaux from the lives of everyday Bosnians attempting to make sense of what passes for normal in a postwar society Essential reading for students of the former Yugoslavia and anyone interested in postwar or post genocide studies Surviving the Peace is an instant classic of long form reporting an impossible accomplishment without a lifetime of dedication to a place and people Peter Lippman's website is <http://survivingthepeace.org>

Terrible Fate Benjamin Lieberman, 2013-12-16 In the modern Greek city of Thessaloniki the ruins of a vast Jewish cemetery lie buried under the city s university Nearby is the site of the childhood home of one of the founders of the modern Turkish state These are tantalizing reminders of what was once the bustling cosmopolitan city of Salonica home not just to Greeks but to thousands of Sephardic Jews Turks Bulgarians and Armenians living and working peacefully alongside one another Thessaloniki is just one example among many of what used to be Over the past two centuries ethnic cleansing has remade the map of Central and Eastern Europe and the Middle East transforming vast empires that embraced many ethnic groups into nearly homogenous nations Towns and cities from Germany to Turkey still show traces of the vanished and nearly forgotten ethnic and religious communities that once called these places home In Terrible Fate Benjamin Lieberman describes the violent transformations that occurred in Salonica and hundreds of other towns and cities as the Ottoman Russian Austro Hungarian and German empires collapsed to be reborn as the modern nation states we know today His book is the first comprehensive history of this process that has involved the murder and forced migration of tens of millions of people Drawing upon eyewitness accounts contemporary journalism and diplomatic records Lieberman s story sweeps across the continent taking the reader from ethnic cleansing s earliest beginnings in Bulgaria Greece and Russia in the nineteenth century through the rise of nationalism both world wars the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and the rise and fall of the Soviet empire up to the breakup of Yugoslavia in the 1990s Along the way he examines the decisive roles of political leaders not only monarchs and dictators but also those who were democratically elected as well as ordinary people who often required very little encouragement to rob and brutalize their neighbors or who were simply caught up in the tide of history

We Are All That's

Left Carrie Arcos, 2018-05-15 Two lives Two worlds apart One deeply compelling story set in both Bosnia and the United States spanning decades and generations about the brutality of war and the trauma of everyday life after war about hope and the ties that bind us together Zara and her mother Nadja have a strained relationship Nadja just doesn't understand Zara's creative passion for and self expression through photography And Zara doesn't know how to reach beyond their differences and connect to a closed off mother who refuses to speak about her past in Bosnia But when a bomb explodes as they're shopping in their local farmers market in Rhode Island Zara is left with PTSD and her mother is left in a coma Without the opportunity to get to know her mother Zara is left with questions not just about her mother but about faith religion history and her own path forward As Zara tries to sort through her confusion she meets Joseph whose grandmother is also in the hospital and whose exploration of religion and philosophy offer comfort and insight into Zara's own line of thinking Told in chapters that alternate between Zara's present day Providence RI and Nadja's own childhood in Bosnia and Herzegovina during the Bosnian War of the 1990s We Are All That's Left shows the ways in which no matter the time and place struggle and tragedy can give way to connection healing and love Praise for We Are All That's Left A multilayered view of tragedy and its repercussions Publishers Weekly STARRED REVIEW This complex compelling story takes readers on a deep dive below the surface exposing both the fragility of life and the redemptive bonds of love Booklist STARRED REVIEW This important and timely novel is a painful lovely exploration of mending a mother daughter relationship Kirkus Reviews Identity, Trauma, Sensitive and Controversial Issues in the Teaching of History Hilary Cooper, Jon Nichol, 2015-10-13 History Education is a politically contested subject It can be used to both promote xenophobia and to develop critical thinking multiple perspectives and tolerance Accordingly this book critically examines complex issues and constructivist approaches that make history relevant to students understanding of the modern world As such it has global appeal especially in North and South America Canada Europe and Asia The book's authors address the major challenges that History Education faces in an era of globalisation digital revolution and international terror nationalism and sectarian and religious conflict and warfare Central to this volume are controversial issues trauma and questions of personal and national identity from a wide range of international settings and perspectives The research in this book was undertaken by leading history educators from every continent Their interdisciplinary research represents an important contribution to the teaching of social sciences social psychology civic education programmes history and history education in schools colleges and universities The book offers new approaches to history educators at all levels In addition the chapters offer potential as required reading for students to both develop an international perspective and to compare and contrast their own situations with those that the book covers Section I considers issues related to identity how can history education promote social coherence in multicultural societies in societies divided by sectarianism or countries adapting to regime changes whether Communist or Fascist including for example South Africa previously Communist countries of Eastern Europe and previous dictatorships in South America and

Western Europe It discusses such questions as How important is it that students learn the content of history through the processes of historical enquiry What should that content be and who should decide it educators or politicians What is the role of textbooks and who should write and select them Should history be taught as a discrete discipline or as part of a citizenship or social sciences curriculum Sections II and III explore ways in which memory of sensitive issues related to the past to war or to massacres may be addressed Are there new methodologies or approaches which make this possible How can students understand situations involving intolerance and injustice

River Runs Red Jeffrey J Mariotte, 2019-08-07 Three friends return to their Texas hometown and a supernatural war that will decide the fate of worlds in this horror thriller As teenagers Molly Byrd and Wade faced inconceivable evil in an underground labyrinth on the banks of the Rio Grande Now they are reunited as adults about to discover that their terrifying experience was only the beginning Something has drawn the three friends back to their small Texas town and the caves in which they faced their fate A mysterious force is plunging them into a supernatural war that spans across the globe through raging rivers mysterious murders long buried gods and secrets worth dying or killing for
