Grounding God Arianne Conty,2023-12-01 Now that we have entered the Anthropocene the geological age in which humans have altered the natural world to such an extent that nature and culture can no longer be separated the modern dichotomies of mind versus body and culture versus nature have become implausible and need to be replaced In Grounding God Arianne Conty argues that it is in the field of religion where we can find a new ontology better suited for the Anthropocene Conty calls this new religious ontology the grounding of the sacred in that it seeks to deconstruct the binaries of modernity and provide in their place a revalorization of the immanent earth and the more than human beings that inhabit it Such a grounding of the sacred is a potent means to overcome the exploitation and desecration of the earth and its nonhuman beings and to provide in its stead an inclusive cosmopolitics that extends mind into matter and culture into nature Tracing such a grounding in the Christian Buddhist neopagan and animist traditions Conty seeks to elaborate an interdisciplinary ecosophy one that uses philosophy anthropology and religious studies to provide new values for the present age

Memory and Emotion James L. McGaugh,2003 Memories come in many different forms and vary substantially in strength some such as where you put your car keys can be brief while others remain in the mind forever James McGaugh a leading neurobiologist provides an accessible and thought provoking look at how we remember and why we forget Beginning with the first scientific studies of learning and ending with the latest cutting edge research he explores how memories are made and preserved why some experiences fade and disappear with time how stress hormones effect the consolidation of memory whether drugs would improve our ability to learn and what studies of extraordinary memories and disorders tell us about the workings of the brain systems involved in memory formation

Metaphors in the History of Psychology David E. Leary,1994-07-29 Arguing that psychologists and their predecessors have invariably relied on metaphors in articulation the contributors to this volume offer a new key to understanding a critically important area of human knowledge by specifying the major metaphors River Bed Andrea L. Weiser, 2011-02-22 Nature based poetry with heart These fine lyric poems venture into the earth's wild places while exploring the depths of the poet's heart Family love loss ritual and the mysteries of the natural world come alive in these poems The poet engages them fearlessly with an open heart and keen and generous sensibility Readers will recognize River Bed as our shared world where the poems flow as clear fresh and true as mountain snowmelt Tim McNulty poet essayist and author of Olympic National Park A Natural History amazon.com The Partition Motif in Contemporary Conflicts Smita Tewari Jassal, Eyal Ben-Ari, 2007-01-12 Papers presented at the Conference on Memory and the Partition Motif in Contemporary Conflicts held in July 2005 World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries ethnicities time periods literary movements and genres of these writings Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time is a tall order However World Literature in Spanish An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors themes genres and topics of Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present day affording an amazingly comprehensive reference collection in a single work This encyclopedia describes the growing diversity within national borders the increasing interdependence among nations and the myriad impacts of Spanish literature across the globe All countries that produce literature in Spanish in Europe Africa the Americas and Asia are represented covering both canonical authors and emerging contemporary writers and trends Underrepresented writings such as texts by women writers queer and Afro Hispanic texts children's literature and works on relevant but less studied topics such as sports and nationalism also appear While writings throughout the centuries are covered those of the 20th and 21st centuries receive special consideration Narrative as Counter-Memory Reiko Tachibana, 1998-01-01 A pioneering study of German and Japanese postwar fiction providing a broad cultural basis for understanding a half century of responses to World War II from within the two societies The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Memory Studies Lucy Bond, Susannah Radstone, Jessica Rapson, 2025-05-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the connections between memory and literature Organized into six interrelated sections the book explores both the value of approaches and concepts from literary studies for memory scholarship and the plurality of ways in which literature can advance theories of memory Chapters cover reading and writing memory and literature remediations and intersections local and global cultures postcolonial and decolonial approaches environmental and more than human memory and literature and law and justice It offers an indispensable resource for students and scholars of both literary and memory studies
