Rives coloniales Jacques Soullou, 1993 Prison Architecture and Punishment in Colonial Senegal Dior

Konaté, 2018-10-15 For the past four decades a rich scholarship has investigated the emergence of the prison in Europe and North America mainly the connection between institutional architecture techniques of social control and mechanisms of discipline Prison Architecture and Punishment in Colonial Senegal asks if these connections did exist in colonial Senegal since prisons in Africa had never been the focus of such scholarship This book addresses three main themes First it analyzes prison buildings and their changing architectural forms throughout the colonial period to highlight how the French used prison architecture to control Africans Second it describes the connections between the internal layout of prison spaces and punishment to show how the design of prisons expressed the notions of punishment and reforms The book also undertakes a critical assessment of inmates agency in reshaping the world of prisons in colonial Senegal Finally it discusses the legacy of colonial prisons in independent Senegal By providing a comprehensive history of prison architecture in Senegal the book helps insert Africa into a more global history by offering a uniquely comparative study of colonialism architecture and punishment "Portuguese" Style and Luso-African Identity Peter A. Mark, 2002-12-05 In this detailed history of domestic architecture in West Africa Peter Mark shows how building styles are closely associated with social status and ethnic identity

Mark documents the ways in which local architecture was transformed by long distance trade and complex social and cultural interactions between local Africans African traders from the interior and the Portuguese explorers and traders who settled in the Senegambia region What came to be known as Portuguese style symbolized the wealth and power of Luso Africans who identified themselves as Portuguese so they could be distinguished from their African neighbors They were traders spoke Creole and practiced Christianity But what did this mean Drawing from travelers accounts maps engravings paintings and photographs Mark argues that both the style of Portuguese houses and the identity of those who lived in them were extremely fluid Portuguese Style and Luso African Identity sheds light on the dynamic relationship between identity formation social change and material culture in West Africa Making and Remaking Mosques in Senegal Cleo

Cantone, 2012-04-03 This book constitutes a seminal contribution to the fields of Islamic architectural history and gender studies It is the first major empirical study of the history and current state of mosque building in Senegal and the first study of mosque space from a gender perspective The author positions Senegalese mosques within the field of Islamic architectural history unraveling their history through pre colonial travelers accounts to conversations with present day planners imams and women who continually shape and reshape the mosques they worship in Using contemporary Dakar as a case study the book s second aim is to explore the role of women in the making and remaking of mosques In particular the rise of non tariqa grass roots movements i e the Sunni Ibadou movement has empowered women particularly young women and has greatly strengthened their capacity to use mosques as places of spirituality education and socialization The text is aimed at several specialized readerships readers interested in Islam in West Africa in the role of women in Islam as well as those interested in the sociology and art history of mosques

Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola, Aribidesi Adisa Usman, 2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction

Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire Gauvin Alexander Bailey, 2018-06-06

Spanning from the West African coast to the Canadian prairies and south to Louisiana the Caribbean and Guiana France's Atlantic empire was one of the largest political entities in the Western Hemisphere Yet despite France's status as a nation at the forefront of architecture and the structures and designs from this period that still remain its colonial building program has never been considered on a hemispheric scale Drawing from hundreds of plans drawings photographic field surveys and extensive archival sources Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire focuses on the French state's and the Catholic Church's ideals and motivations for their urban and architectural projects in the Americas In vibrant detail Gauvin Alexander Bailey recreates a world that has been largely destroyed by wars natural disasters and fires from Cap François now Cap-Haïtien which once boasted palaces in the styles of Louis XV and formal gardens patterned after Versailles to failed utopian cities like Kourou in Guiana Vividly illustrated with examples of grand buildings churches and gardens as well as simple houses and cottages this volume also brings to life the architects who built these structures not only French military engineers and white civilian builders but also the free people of colour and slaves who contributed so much to the tropical colonies Taking readers on a historical tour through the striking landmarks of the French colonial landscape Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire presents a sweeping panorama of an entire hemisphere of architecture and its legacy

French colonial Dakar Liora Bigon, 2016-03-01 Chronicles the design of Dakar as a regional capital and suggests a connection between the French colonial doctrines of assimilation and association and French colonial planning and architectural policies in sub-Saharan Africa

German Colonialism in Africa and its Legacies Itohan Osayimwese, 2023-02-23 Germany developed a large colonial empire over the last thirty years of the 19th century spanning regions of the west coast of Africa to its east coast and beyond Largely forgotten for many years recent intense debates about Africa's cultural heritage in European museums have brought this period of African and German history back into the spotlight German Colonialism in Africa and its Legacies brings much needed context to these debates exploring perspectives on the architecture art urbanism and visual culture of German colonialism in Africa and its legacies in postcolonial and present-day Namibia Cameroon and Germany The first in-depth exploration of the designed and visual aspects of German colonialism the book presents a series of essays combining formal analyses of painting photography performance art buildings and space with the discourse analysis approach associated with postcolonial theory Covering the entire period from the build-up to colonialism in the early 19th century to the present subjects covered range from late 19th-century German colonial paintings of African landscapes and people to German land appropriation through planning and architectural mechanisms and from indigenous African responses to colonial architecture to explorations of the legacies of German colonialism by contemporary artists today This powerful and revealing collection of essays will encourage new research on this under explored topic and demonstrate the importance of historical research to the present especially with regards to ongoing debates about the presence of material legacies of colonialism in Western culture museum collections and immigration policies

Garden cities and colonial planning Liora Bigon,Yossi Katz,2016-05-16 This collection is a study of the process by which European planning concepts and practices were transmitted diffused and diverted in various colonial territories and situations The socio political geographical and cultural implications are analysed here through case studies from the global South namely from French and British colonial territories in Africa as well as from Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine The book focuses on the transnational aspects of the garden city taking into account frameworks and documentation that extend beyond national borders and includes contributions from an international network of specialists Their comparative views and geographical focus challenge the conventional Eurocentric approach to garden cities and will interest students and scholars of planning history and colonial history

Colonial architecture in Ile-Ife, Nigeria Cordelia Olatokunbo Osasona,A. D. C. Hyland,2006

The Interwar World Andrew Denning,Heidi J.S. Tworek,2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework

while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent s history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON., 2005 Trade, Globalization, and Dutch Art and Architecture Marsely Kehoe, 2025-10-01 We all look to our past to define our present but we don t always realize that our view of the past is shaped by subsequent events It s easy to forget that the Dutch dominated the world s oceans and trade in the seventeenth century when it s cultural imagination conjures up tulips and wooden shoes instead of spices and slavery This book examines the Dutch so called Golden Age though its artistic and architectural legacy recapturing the global dimensions of this period by looking beyond familiar artworks to consider exotic collectibles and trade goods and the ways in which far flung colonial cities were made to look and feel like home Using the tools of art history to approach questions about memory history and how cultures define themselves this book demonstrates the centrality of material and visual culture to understanding history and cultural identity Le Havre colonial de 1880 à 1960 Claude Malon, 2001 Ce travail se propose d tudier les relations entre le Havre et les colonies fran aises de 1880 1960 Il examine les modalit s et les cons quences de l int gration du port normand au syst me imp rial Trois domaines sont explor s les changes maritimes les entreprises coloniales l id e coloniale Le Havre joue un r le sp cifique dans la captation des produits chers caf cacao coton bois exotiques Des entreprises coloniales sont créées ou converties l'échange colonial particulièrement au cours des années 1920 et en direction de l'Afrique La protection douanière et le modèle de port de marché terminent une activité coloniale de place Les réseaux du prosélytisme la sociabilité coloniale l'identité coloniale des lites atteignent leur apogée dans les années 1930 Le contact avec les colonisés sont limités voire conflictuels Le négocier se replie sur l'idée autarciste Au temps de l'Union française les liens avec l'Afrique se renforcent Mais l'identité coloniale se désagrège Les acteurs de l'échange avec l'Outre-mer hésitent entre le statu quo le cartellisme et la coopération La décolonisation n'est pas un drame pour le Havre
