Road Might Lead To Anywhere:

Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations Statistics of Land-grant Colleges and Universities United States. Office of Education, 1960 Poems for Our Grandchildren Edith G. Bauman, Dr. Robert P. Bauman, 2011-10-26 Hared memories bind families and friends together Not least important among these are memories of stories songs and poems repeated often and incorporated into everyday thought and expression The child who grows up unaware of literature of the past is surely impoverished To fill this vacuum with the deluge of current song lyrics and drama from television and movies is scarcely a satisfactory solution We heard many of the poems assembled here from our mothers and have often read or recited most of these to our children The volumes from which they came are falling apart and long since out of print or too bulky for convenient handling Thus we saw the need for a compact selection Although from a variety of scattered sources we leaned heavily on a collection that appeared early in the 20th century in the magazine Normal Instructor Primary Plans subsequently published as Poems Teachers Ask For by F A Owen Publishing Company of Danville N Y Many of the poems such as the Mother Goose rhymes are no longer attributable to individuals and are heard in different versions Where authors are known we have given the name and have adhered to original words spelling and punctuation In the very few instances in which wording has been changed an asterisk has been placed by the authors name and the changes noted at the end of the book Since the collection was first assembled our own grandchildren have become the readers rather than the read to Yet to our knowledge no substantial body of new poetry has come along to take the place of these traditional works that range from light fancy to the joys and perils of growing up and the heroism of those who came before us Thus these out of date poems may be even more important to the children of the 21st century than to those for whom they were originally compiled This small collection ranges from familiar nursery rhymes to somber works on the struggles and valor of our forebearers It is our hope that these poems may bring mirth joy and an appreciation of our heritage to new generations of children and to their parents and grandparents Bulletin, 1960 Drama with and for Children Winifred Ward, 1960 The Enrich English Coursebook 3 S.Chand Experts, The Enrich English Course is a modern and challenging course designed to expose learners to real life situations that enable them to experience and respond to language in different scenarios The books aim at the development of communicative proficiency through a graded syllabus of structural patterns and the rich and varied contexts of English literature Favorite Poems Old and New, 1957-09-01 Children are poets before they grow up and they should live with poems I hope this book will encourage them to do so Eleanor Roosevelt Beloved and treasured for over 60 years here is the only poetry collection your family needs brimming with favorite classic poems carefully selected to inspire young readers Over 700 classic and modern poems written by poets from William Shakespeare to J R R Tolkien Emily Dickinson to Langston Hughes and covering a range of favorite topics pets playtime family nature and nonsense ensure that there s a poem to please every child A truly comprehensive collection that is the ideal way of introducing children to the joys of reading poetry If your children think they don t like poetry expose them to this collection and I defy them to resist its magic Kirkus A fine book for parents to read aloud to their children Library Journal This volume stands out for the comprehensiveness of its selection The Horn Book Children's Poetry Miriam Blanton Huber,Herbert Bascom Bruner,1925
