Road To Somewhere A Father And Son In Search Of The Old World:

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 The Road to Somewhere James Dodson, 2005 Bestselling author Dodson sweeps readers along on his once in a lifetime trip with his young son through the great cities and eccentric byways of Europe in a book that celebrates the wonder comedy and adventure to be found in the most unlikely places Styles of Extinction: Cormac McCarthy's The Road Julian Murphet, Mark Steven, 2012-06-28 Styles of Extinction Cormac McCarthy's The Road brings together several leading literary scholars one major philosopher as well as a handful of emerging critical voices all of whom deploy their own specialist methods in order to think through this bestselling Zeitgeist defining event of contemporary literature There are two dominant modes of analysis gathered here the first performed by Julian Murphet Paul Sheehan and Mark Steven is to locate the novel within its political spiritual and economic climates the second whose exponents include Paul Patton Sean Pryor Chris Danta and Grace Hellyer deals with the formal dimensions of McCarthy's characteristically brilliant prose in relation to its sparse narrative By coupling historically sensitive analysis with incisive formal criticism the contributors not only account for the matchless form of this exemplary novel they also suggest that The Road has something unique to disclose about the world we inhabit Man Enough Frank Pittman, 1994-10-01 How does a boy learn to be a man A man learns masculinity primarily from his father But generations of boys who grow up without caring fathers or male mentors to emulate are left to guess what men are really like They rely on cultural icons larger than life images as models of masculinity As a result they grow up mirroring overblown myths of manhood Obsessed with being man enough they become philanderers controllers and competitors constantly overcompensating for their loss of a true role model yet sorely unprepared for family life In Man Enough psychiatrist and family therapist Frank Pittman explores what it is like to grow up male today With great poignancy humor and candor he weaves together case studies from his practice examples from literature and films plus personal vignettes from his own experiences as a father to examine these hyper masculine men and to illustrate how they developed and how they can change Dr Pittman asserts that men can move past proving their masculinity and start practicing it by striving with the other guys rather than against them achieving equality and intimacy with their mates and by fathering A man raises himself as he raises children and learns to understand and forgive his parents as he becomes one An important book for men and women Man Enough offers a new approach to issues of commitment caring and control and creates a positive model for the fathers of tomorrow's men Food and Feast in Modern Outlaw Tales Alexander L. Kaufman, Penny Vlagopoulos, 2019-03-04 This collection of scholarly essays presents new work from an emerging line of inquiry modern outlaw narratives and the textual and cultural relevance of food and feasting Food its preparation and its consumption is presented in outlaw narratives as central points of human interaction community conflict and fellowship Feast scenes perform a wide variety of functions serving as cultural repositories of manners and behaviors catalysts for adventure or moments of regrouping and redirecting narratives The book argues that modern outlaw narratives illuminate a potent cross cultural need for freedom solidarity and justice and it examines ways in which food and feasting are often used to legitimate difference create discord and manipulate power dynamics In Search of the Way Richard Bowring,2016-11-24 In Search of the Way is a history of intellectual and religious developments in Japan during the Tokugawa period covering the years 1582 1860 It begins with an explanation of the fate of Christianity and proceeds to cover the changing nature of the relationship between Buddhism and secular authority new developments in Shinto and the growth of Japanese studies The main emphasis however is on the process by which Neo Confucianism captured the imagination of the intellectual class and informed debate throughout the period This process was expressed in terms of a never ending search for the Way a mode and pattern of existence that could provide not only order for society at large but self fulfilment for the individual The narrative traces how ideas and attitudes changed through time and is based on the premise that the Tokugawa period is important in and of itself not merely as a backdrop to the Meiji Restoration of 1868 Nine Decades Constance Rita Williams,2018-08-18 Nine Decades charts the author s life from losing her mother at a very young age and having to care for her siblings through a world war and the threat of being bombed and two marriages blighted by her husbands ill health all the while working hard to support her family and ensure a good education for her son This is an inspirational story of dedication and of never giving up in the face of adversity Boys Don't Cry? Milette Shamir,Jennifer Travis,2002-04-10 We take for granted the idea that white middle class straight masculinity connotes total control of emotions emotional inexpressivity and emotional isolation That men repress their feelings as they seek their fortunes in the competitive worlds of business and politics seems to be a given This collection of essays by prominent literary and cultural critics rethinks such commonly held views by addressing the history and politics of emotion in prevailing narratives about masculinity How did the story of the emotionally stifled U S male come into being What are its political stakes Will the release of straight white middle class masculine emotion remake existing forms of power or reinforce them This collection forcefully challenges our most entrenched ideas about male emotion Through readings of works by Thoreau Lowell and W E B Du Bois and of twentieth century authors such as Hemingway and Kerouac this book questions the persistence of the emotionally alienated male in narratives of white middle class masculinity and addresses the political and social implications of male emotional release Rock Island Employees' Magazine ,1929
