Roads From Past To Future:

Roads from Past to Future Charles Tilly, Arthur L. Stinchcombe, 1997 Over the years Charles Tilly has had an indelible influence on a remarkable number of key questions in social science and history In the fields of social change states and institutions urbanization and historical sociology his seminal work has spawned whole new lines of inquiry and research In one volume this book offers the best and most influential of Tilly's important work with a new introduction by the author that relates his analyses to a wide body of scholarship The book includes a review and critique by Arthur Stinchcombe

Future Autonomous Road Vehicles Joseph Giacomini, 2024-05-10 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the past present and future of autonomous road vehicles for professionals and students Split into three parts the first section of the book brings together the key historical developments in autonomous road vehicle design and the primary explorations of the design possibilities from science fiction This historical analysis draws upon significant test vehicles from history and explores their roles as landmarks in the evolution of the field In addition it also reviews the history of science fiction and outlines the key speculations about autonomous road vehicles which emerged from that world In the second section of the book Joseph Giacomini introduces five of the most popular future facing speculative approaches used by designers In doing so he identifies the major user facing challenges which affect ideation product design service design and business modelling In the final part science fiction prototyping is identified as the speculative approach best suited to autonomous road vehicle application Connecting theory with practice Giacomini provides examples of sixteen science fiction prototypes which cover a comprehensive range of physical psychological sociological and ethical design challenges Written as an accessible guide for design practitioners and students this book will be of use to those interested in the psychological sociological and ethical factors involved in automotive design human centred design industrial design and technology

The Narrow Road David W. F. Wong, 2018-05-01 Why not go with the flow Why not take the easy road Why not keep on one side to be safe In The Narrow Road the author challenges readers to choose the path he describes as a mountain ridge with ravines on both sides The way is narrow difficult and perilous but it leads to life In today's confusing world we find ourselves torn in different directions hearing different teachings on all sides and uncertain which to follow aware of the dangers of extremes but unsure what the middle course might look like In The Narrow Road David Wong offers sensible and biblically based guidance drawing on years of pastoral experience and teaching There are no quick fixes or magic bullets here but much truth to reflect on Dr Philip Satterthwaite Principal Biblical Graduate School of Theology BGST

Unbound Queer Time in Literature, Cinema, and Video Games Juan Francisco Belmonte Ávila, Estíbaliz

Encarnación-Pinedo, 2024-07-19 Unbound Queer Time in Literature Cinema and Video Games investigates the potential of queer conceptions of time to unbind forms of understanding identities In doing so it recognizes the power of time to determine us but chooses to queer time and turn it into an ally of unbound forms of understanding identities Through the analysis of different media literature cinema and video games the chapters revolve around three key ideas that there are inherently queer styles of using and dealing with time and temporality in culture that the critical rediscovery of canonical texts and the analysis of largely ignored queer texts and authors allow for a better understanding of queer identities and finally that normative conceptions of time can and should be challenged through critical tools that reconceptualize notions of the self around time This volume will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers working close to areas such as queer and gender studies media and cinema studies cultural studies literary theory comparative literature game studies and art history
