Roads They Made Women In Illinois:

The Roads They Made Adade Mitchell Wheeler, Marlene Stein Wortman, 1977 Illinois Lois Carrier, 1998-01-15 With a major port on the Great Lakes an extensive network of railroads and canals and a river system including the Mississippi the Illinois and the Ohio Illinois has long played a critical role in linking East Coast industrial cities the agricultural heartland and the Gulf Coast Writing in a fast paced down to earth style Lois Carrier introduces a host of innovations and innovators associated with Illinois Jane Addams and Louis Armstrong Frank Lloyd Wright and Walt Disney Cracker Jack and the Ferris wheel From the Cahokia Mounds to Chicago Illinois Crossroads of a Continent provides a panoramic history for students and general readers Ida B. Wells-Barnett and American Reform, 1880-1930 Patricia A. Schechter, 2003-01-14 Pioneering African American journalist Ida B Wells Barnett 1862 1931 is widely remembered for her courageous antilynching crusade in the 1890s the full range of her struggles against injustice is not as well known With this book Patricia Schechter restores Wells Barnett to her central if embattled place in the early reform movements for civil rights women s suffrage and Progressivism in the United States and abroad Schechter s comprehensive treatment makes vivid the scope of Wells Barnett s contributions and examines why the political philosophy and leadership of this extraordinary activist eventually became marginalized Though forced into the shadow of black male leaders such as W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington and misunderstood and then ignored by white women reformers such as Frances E Willard and Jane Addams Wells Barnett nevertheless successfully enacted a religiously inspired female centered and intensely political vision of social betterment and empowerment for African American communities throughout her adult years By analyzing her ideas and activism in fresh sharpness and detail Schechter exposes the promise and limits of social change by and for black women during an especially violent yet hopeful era in U S history The Female Offender--1979-80 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice, 1981 Women's Rights, Racial Integration, and Education from 1850-1920 M. Flanagan, 2020-07-21 At the turn of the last century as industrialists and workers made Chicago the hardworking City of Big Shoulders celebrated by Carl Sandburg Chicago women articulated an alternative City of Homes in which the welfare of residents would be the municipal government s principal purpose Seeing With Their Hearts traces the formation of this vision from the relief efforts following the Chicago fire of 1871 through the many political battles of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era In the process it presses a new understanding of the roles of women in public life and writes a new history of urban America Heeding the call of activist Louise de Koven Bowen to become third class passengers on the train of life thousands of women put their shoulders to the wheel and their whole hearts into the work of fighting for better education worker protections clean air and water building safety health care and women s suffrage Though several well known activists appeared frequently in these initiatives Maureen Flanagan offers compelling evidence that women established a broad and durable solidarity that spanned differences of race class and political experience She also shows that these women emphasizing their common identity as women seeking a city amenable to the needs of women children families and homes pursued a vision and goals distinct from the reform agenda of Progressive male activists They fought hard and sometimes successfully in a variety of public places and sites of power winning victories from increased political clout and prenatal care to municipal garbage collection and pasteurized milk While telling the fascinating and in some cases previously untold stories of women activists during Chicago s formative period this book fundamentally recasts urban social and political history Catalog of Copyright Entries. Robertson, 2010 Hearts Beating for Liberty Women Abolitionists in the Old Northwest Illinois History , 1991 Race and Rights Dana Elizabeth Weiner, 2013-01-15 In the Old Northwest from 1830 to 1870 a bold set of activists battled slavery and racial prejudice This book is about their expansive efforts to eradicate southern slavery and its local influence in the contentious milieu of four new states carved out of the Northwest Territory Illinois Indiana Michigan and Ohio While the Northwest Ordinance outlawed slavery in the region in 1787 in reality both it and racism continued to exert strong influence in the Old Northwest as seen in the race based limitations of civil liberties there Indeed these states comprised the central battleground over race and rights in antebellum America in a time when race s social meaning was deeply infused into all aspects of Americans lives and when people struggled to establish political consensus Antislavery and anti prejudice activists from a range of institutional bases crossed racial lines as they battled to expand African American rights in this region Whether they were antislavery lecturers journalists or African American leaders of the Black Convention Movement women or men they formed associations wrote publicly to denounce their local racial climate and gave controversial lectures In the process they discovered that they had to fight for their own right to advocate for others This bracing new history by Dana Elizabeth Weiner is thus not only a history of activism but also a history of how Old Northwest reformers understood the law and shaped new conceptions of justice and civil liberties The newest addition to the Mellon sponsored Early American Places Series Race and Rights will be a much welcomed contribution to the study of race and social activism in nineteenth century America Brick , 1912 The Road-maker , 1917 Congressional Record United States.
