Cohen, 2012 Playing to the Camera is the first full length study devoted to the musical performance documentary Its scope ranges from rock concert films to experimental video art featuring modernist music Unlike the music under produced for films by unseen musicians on screen live performances show us the bodies that produce the sounds we hear Exploring the link between moving images and musical movement as physical gesture this volume asks why performance is so often derided as mere skill whereas composition is afforded the status of art a question that opens onto a broader critique of attitudes regarding mental and physical labor in Western culture Publisher's website The Palgrave Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century Documentary Dilemmas Carolyn Anderson, Thomas W Benson, 1991-04-25 A case history of the only American film under court imposed restrictions for reasons other than obscenity or national security Titicut Follies is an excoriating depiction of conditions in the Massachusetts Correctional Institution at Bridgewater a prison hospital for the criminally insane The Commonwealth of Massachusetts took Wiseman to court seeking to prevent the exhibition of Titicut Follies soon after its release in 1967 This account of the Titicut Follies case is based on ten years of research and relies on interviews journalistic accounts and especially on the legal record including the Commonwealth v Wiseman transcript to describe the entire process of independent documentary filmmaking The trials of Titicut Follies raise crucial questions about the relation of social documentary to its subjects and audiences Dont Look Back Keith Beattie, 2019-07-25 Dont Look Back a documentary film of Bob Dylan s 1965 England tour is recognised as a landmark work in the field of documentary film making contributing to the cultural life of an era This text examines the aesthetic thematic and social dynamics of the film in order to elucidate how and why it was a groundbreaking piece of documentary cinema Reality Fictions Thomas W. Benson, Carolyn Anderson, 2002 Rather than write briefly about each of the many documentary films Wiseman has made over the past 20 years Benson rhetoric and communication arts and sciences Pennsylvania State U and Anderson communication U of Massachusetts Amherst choose a few representative examples They interpret the films look at the rhetorical structures and explore the people and processes The first edition was published in 1989 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Writing, Directing, and Producing Documentary Films and Digital Videos Alan Rosenthal, Ned Eckhardt, 2015-12-23 In a new edition of this popular guidebook filmmakers Alan Rosenthal and Ned Eckhardt show readers how to utilize the latest innovations in equipment technologies and production techniques for success in the digital web based world of documentary film All twenty four chapters of the volume have been revised to reflect the latest advances in documentary filmmaking Rosenthal and Eckhardt discuss the myriad ways in which technological changes have impacted the creation process of documentary films including how these evolving technologies both complicate and enrich filmmaking today The book provides crucial insights for the filmmaker from the film's conception to distribution of the finished film Topics include creating dynamic proposals writing narration and navigating the murky world of contracts Also included are many practical tips for first time filmmakers To provide context and to illustrate techniques Rosenthal and Eckhardt reference more than one hundred documentaries in detail A new appendix Using the Web and Social Media to Prepare for Your Career guides filmmakers through the process of leveraging social media and crowdsourcing for success in filmmaking fund raising and promotion A day to day field manual packed with invaluable lessons this volume is essential reading for both novice and experienced documentary filmmakers Documentary David Saunders, 2010-04-21 This clear lively introduction to documentary covers its history cultural context and development and the approaches methods and functions inherent to non fiction filmmaking American Ethnographic Film and Personal Documentary Scott MacDonald, 2013-07-01 American Ethnographic Film and Personal Documentary is a critical history of American filmmakers crucial to the development of ethnographic film and personal documentary The Boston and Cambridge area is notable for nurturing these approaches to documentary film via institutions such as the MIT Film Section and the Film Study Center the Carpenter Center and the Visual and Environmental Studies Department at Harvard Scott MacDonald uses pragmatism s focus on empirical experience as a basis for measuring the groundbreaking achievements of such influential filmmakers as John Marshall Robert Gardner Timothy Asch Ed Pincus Miriam Weinstein Alfred Guzzetti Ross McElwee Robb Moss Nina Davenport Steve Ascher and Jeanne Jordan Michel Negroponte John Gianvito Alexander Olch Amie Siegel Ilisa Barbash and Lucien Castaing Taylor By exploring the cinematic personal and professional relationships between these accomplished filmmakers MacDonald shows how a pioneering engaged and uniquely cosmopolitan approach to documentary developed over the past half century Photography and American Coloniality Raoul J. Granqvist, 2017-04-01 This book is the first to guestion both why and how the colonialist mythologies represented by the work of photographer Eliot Elisofon persist It documents and discusses a heterogeneous practice of American coloniality of power as it explores Elisofon's career as war photographer correspondent and staff photographer for LIFE filmmaker author artist and collector of primitive art and sculpture It focuses on three areas Elisofon's narcissism voyeurism and sexism his involvement in the homogenizing of Western social orders and colonial legacies and his enthused mission of sending home a mass of still life photographs annexed African artifacts and assumed vintage knowledge The book does not challenge his artistic merit or his fascinating personality what it does guestion is his production and imagining of difference As the text travels from World War II to colonialism postcolonialism and the Cold War from Casablanca to Leopoldville Kinshasa it proves to be a necessarily strenuous and provocative trip How Documentaries Went Mainstream Nora Stone, 2023 Since the 1960s documentary films have moved closer to the mainstream thanks to the popularity of rockumentaries association with the independent film movement support from public and cable television and the rise of streaming video services Documentary films have become reliable earners at the U S box office and ubiquitous on streaming platforms while historically they existed on the margins of mainstream media How do we explain the growing commercialization of documentary films and the conditions that fueled their transformation The growing commercialization of documentary film has not gone unnoticed but it has not been sufficiently explained Streaming and the growing interest in reality TV are usually offered as initial explanations whenever a documentary enters the cultural conversation or breaks a box office record but neither of those causes grapple with the overlapping causal mechanisms that commercialized documentary film How Documentaries Went Mainstream provides a more comprehensive and meaningful periodization of the commercialization of documentary film Although the commercial ascension of documentary films might seem meteoric it is the culmination of decades long efforts that have developed and fortified the audience for documentary features Author Nora Stone refines rough explanations of these efforts through a robust synoptic history of the market for documentary films using knowledge of film economics and the norms of industry discourse to tell a richer story This periodization will allow scholars to compare the commercialization of documentary film with other genres Drawing on archival documents industry trade journals and popular press and interviews with filmmakers and film distributors Stone illuminates how documentary features have become more plentiful popular and profitable than ever before
